NEW DEAL FOES LAUNCH BOOM FOR TALMADGE

Dixie Democrats Ask Roosevelt Defeat.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

(Picture on Back Page.)

Macon, Ga., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Jeffersonian Democrats of the south today launched a boom for Gov. Eugene Talmadge of Georgia for the presidency after adopting a platform which declared President Roosevelt is not a Democrat. The resolution called on Dixie voters to aid the Jeffersonians in "wresting this government from control of socialists and communists."

Talmadge, however, refused to comment on his possible candidacy. Asked whether he had any announcement to make, he rolled his eyes behind his black rimmed glasses and replied, "No."

Resolution Yelled Through.

An audience of 2,500 persons, mostly Georgians, attending the rally here yelled through a motion asking the governor to run as a constitutional Democrat who is fighting "theorists, crackpots, brain trusters, and professors" of the New Deal.

The constitution and preservation of state sovereignty and the American form of government were skeleton items in the platform adopted by the Jeffersonians. It accused President Roosevelt of abandoning faith in the constitution and the doctrins of Thomas Jefferson and of "repudiating, abandoning, and sidetracking" the platform on which he was elected in 1932. It said:

"We do not regard the occupant of the White House as a Democrat.

"He has broken the pledges of our party and violated the platform of 1932.

17 States Represented.

Democrats from seventeen southern and border states drafted the platform, according to its text. Georgia, Texas, and Tennessee had the largest delegations at the rally.

Talmadge was the core of the convention. When he appeared to make his speech the audience in the municipal auditorium gave him an ovation. As he spoke he was cheered repeatedly. One admirer, an ancient with white beard, garbed in overalls, got to the platform and for applause brandished a chair above his head.

The keynote of the day was struck by John Henry Kirby, millionaire lumberman of Houston, Tex., chairman of the Southern Committee to Uphold the Constitution. Mr. Kirby had written a speech of nine pages, but when he got steamed up he threw it away and made a different address.

Kirby Scores New Deal.

"If Franklin D. Roosevelt is a Democrat, Sherman's march to the sea was a Yankee retreat," declared Mr. Kirby.

"We must protest his lack of respect for the constitution he has sworn to uphold. Representative government has been placed on the spot by the motley crowd in charge at Washington. Congress has practically abdicated and has sacrificed reason and Democracy to the master's voice."

"At Crossroads," says Howell.

"Let's ask old Gene Talmadge to let us use his name as a candidate for President," he shouted while the audience howled.

"We're at the crossroads," he continued. "The future of the republic is in the balance. With all the theorists, crackpots, brain trusters, and professors of the New Deal have done there is as much unemployment today as in March, 1933.

"Jefferson founded the Democratic party; Roosevelt has dumfounded it."

In his speech Talmadge blistered the New Deal in Washington, the Democratic governors of states who did the "goosestep" on New Deal "must" bills, tore into Secretary Ickes, with whom he had a controversy over highway certificates, and assailed the administration for its attitude toward

LANDON SETS UP NEW CODE IN BID FOR PRESIDENCY

Eschews Epithets; Turns to Facts.

BY JOSEPH ATOR.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

(Pictures on back page.)

Topeka, Kas., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas laid before the nation tonight the principles on which he bases his hope of Republican nomination for President of the United States.

His speech struck a new note in the political oratory of recent months in that he declared a closed season on the substitution of epithets for arguments. He urged that members of his own party recognize what good the Roosevelt administration has accomplished that their indictment of New Deal follies may be more telling. And he suggested to New Dealers that their cries of "Tory" at every critic of their mistakes has lost effect.

Answers New Deal Poser.

Keeping his own rules, Gov. Landon replied to the insistent New Deal query, "What would you do?" by proposing relief for agriculture through a soil conservation program with the honest purpose of saving the fertility of American farms and not merely that of providing a blind for further dispensation of AAA checks.

The governor pledged himself to old age pensions. He recommended extension and improvement of civil service, and the utilization by the federal government of specially trained minds as he has used them in Kansas—"to collect facts, not to administer theories."

His own best recommendation of himself he gave in three succinct paragraphs summarizing his budget balancing achievements.

Hearers Roar Approval.

Some 2,700 of his friends from Kansas and neighboring states, gathered here to celebrate the diamond anniversary of Kansas statehood, roared their approval. Local telegraph offices were open until long after midnight, taking messages of congratulation from those who heard Gov. Landon on a coast-to-coast radio network.

To those who deem it important to compare personalities as between the Kansas governor and the man he hopes to oppose in the November election, it may be said that his outstanding platform characteristic is one of intense earnestness. The ready but rather shy smile which marks his personal contacts was absent except on a few occasions of particularly tumultuous cheering.

"A nation will survive to correct its political mistakes," he said. "But if an unsound financial program is coupled with them the nation faces destruction."

Discredits "Half Truth."

Turning to the relief problem, he said:

"It has been said that the demands for relief have imperiled our federal finances. That is only a half truth. The money actually reaching the un-

TRIBUNE PRESENTS HISTORY OF GROUPS NEW DEALERS FEAR

THE TRIBUNE today starts printing the histories of patriotic organizations against which the Black lobby committee, inquisitorial arm of the New Deal, has launched a reign of terror.

The record of The Crusaders appears today.

The Black inquisition was first revealed when Chicagoans received questionnaires demanding, on the authority of the senate, sworn statements of all details of contribution and other assistance given the American Federation of Investors, the American Liberty league, The Crusaders and similar organizations seeking to arouse the nation to the perils of the New Deal.

GUNMEN STEAL 2 LOADS OF LIQUOR AND LOOT SAFE

Four gunmen spent three hours last night leisurely looting the storeroom of the Universal Wine and Liquor company, 4440 Madison street, hauling away two truckloads of bonded liquor in the company's truck. The night watchman, James Mach, 2322 Kenilworth avenue, Berwyn, told the Fillmore street police that the robbers followed him into the office when he reported for duty at 9 p. m. While one of the men stood guard over Mach the others went through the liquor stock, loaded a company truck, and drove away. Soon afterward the truck returned and was loaded again. Then the robbers brought back the truck, broke open the company's safe, and took all the money it contained. They fled in their automobile, which they loaded with more liquor, and carried along a rifle and two automatic pistols they found in the storeroom. Officials of the company were unable to estimate the value of the loot.

Hitler Feasts 30,000 on 4th Year of Rule

BY SIGRID SCHULTZ.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, Jan. 29.—The fourth year of Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler's reign starts tomorrow with celebrations, speeches, religious services, parades, and broadcasts glorifying the Fuehrer in schools, churches, open air ceremonies, factories, political headquarters, and Nazi homes.

The Fuehrer in 1933 asked his people for four years in which to evolve his new and better state, offering to accept death at their hands if he failed. That he did not fail is flamboyantly asserted in a forty page issue of his own official newspaper, Voelkischer Beobachter, which flooded Germany today. The paper tells the country of the tremendous activities of Nazi organizations of all kinds which are helping the Fuehrer to build up his new state and the "new German man and woman" whose creed is to live for the nation on the strength of Hitler's order: "You yourself are nothing—your people are everything."

Continue Drive on Jews.

One hundred and fifty of the Nazi party's best orators scattered over Europe today to address Germans residing abroad and tell them and the countries they are visiting of the "achievements of Nazi Germany."

The government today served notice it will continue its unrelenting drive against Jews. Hans Frank, minister without portfolio, told the German academy's economic council: "We do not care what the world says about our Jewish legislation."

Tomorrow 30,000 old Storm Troopers will parade through Berlin, coming from all parts of Germany to assure the Fuehrer they are as loyal to him as they were three years ago. They will break bread with their Fuehrer and his ministers in a great open air meal.

Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, minister of propaganda, will address school children, lauding the achievements of the Fuehrer.

Reënact Torchlight Parade.

All churches will hold services on the order of Superintendent Dr. Zoellner, chairman of the state appointed church committee.

SOVIET SCIENTISTS REVIVE INSECTS BORN OVER 3,000 YEARS AGO

MOSCOW, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The Soviet Academy of Scientists announced today that insects and a small variety of lobsters born over 3,000 years ago have been revived and are pursuing a normal existence.

They were found buried 15 to 20 feet under the surface of a region of eternal frost in the Siberian peat fields, the statement said. The region comprises a zone sweeping from the Arctic across central Siberia to Mongolia. Ground there below the depth of six feet never thaws.

Some of the insects and lobsters since their revival have given birth to a new generation, the announcement stated. It did not give details of the method of revival.

GLOBE TROTTING KING EDWARD PLANS 1937 TOUR

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 30.—[Thursday.]—King Edward VIII. of England, the world's most traveled monarch, is to go globe trotting again and, according to this morning's Daily Herald, he will tour his vast empire following his coronation next year. During his absence his duties will be performed by a council of state composed of his mother, Queen Mary, and brothers, the dukes of York, Gloucester, and Kent.

It is regarded in official circles as indispensable that the king should visit each of the dominions on his accession. Edward is the first king to ascend the throne since the statute of Westminster made the dominions partner states in the British commonwealth of nations on a footing of complete equality with the United Kingdom. It is felt, therefore, that some kind of accession ceremony with Edward present must take place in Australia, Canada, New Zealand, and the Union of South Africa. In this connection, it is pointed out, the form of the accession proclamation in the dominions has been altered. In Ottawa, for instance, Edward was proclaimed, in addition to the usual titles, the "supreme lord in and over the dominion of Canada."

Included in the nine months' tour will be the imperial durbar in Delhi, when King Edward will solemnly be proclaimed emperor of the new Indian federation. This will take place in the fall of 1937.

Shower Ink on Students in Egyptian Riot

BY ALEX SMALL.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

CAIRO, Egypt, Jan. 29.—Angered by the duration of the cabinet crisis, in which Egypt has now gone seven days without a government, Egyptian students this morning battled police for over three hours and devastated the Kasr el-Ainy district of southwest Cairo.

Their wounded were estimated tonight at more than 100. Twenty policemen, including two officers, were wounded.

A feature of today's battle was the use of an ink spraying machine by the police. It was imported from England for the purpose and marks the students' faces indelibly, so they cannot avoid arrest. The stains last several days, change color each day or so, and police can determine in which riot the arrested person was implicated.

The battle raged around the Dar el-Ulm school for training teachers of Koranic law. The students of this school were joined by those of the higher commercial school.

How It Started.

The spark which touched off the violence was the receipt of news from the provincial delta towns of Mansura and Damanhur of the death last night of five students who were wounded in fights Monday.

In a few moments the students sacked the Dar el-Ulum building, making a bonfire of desks, chairs, and tables. Squad cars of boulok ghaffirs—special guards—were rushed to the scene. The ghaffirs, with riot equipment, attempted to storm the school, but were repeatedly repulsed by showers of bricks, rubble, and chunks of cast iron.

After two hours the students were able to retreat with the honors of war after a parley with a ghaffir officer who gave his word of honor they could leave the building without arrest.

Meanwhile, in the adjoining streets, other groups of students were felling trees and gas lamp posts to form barricades from behind which they bombarded the police, who soused them with a fire hose.

Display Fanatic Courage.

The students displayed fanatical courage. The bare-fisted youths piled into the lines of ghaffirs three successive times. The ghaffirs belabored them with clubs and gun butts.

All the Kasr el-Ainy district this afternoon looked like a no man's land. Further destruction was prevented by the foresight of officials who this morning left all the main Nile river bridges open for river trafic, thus preventing the main body of students gathered at Giza on the west bank from crossing to join their comrades in Cairo proper.

Despairing of halting the student agitation, authorities announced the indefinite closing of the university and other higher schools.

Further agitation is expected as long as the cabinet crisis continues.

The intrigues of nationalist politicians and continual rioting are changing the British attitude, it is understood. Britain now is considering reëstablishing a protectorate.

That was the sense of the ultimatum delivered a week ago by Sir Miles W. Lampson, British high commissioner for Egypt and the Sudan.

FIGHT TO DEATH WITH RAZOR IN BATH DESCRIBED

Inquest Holds Killer for Murder.

Richard Loeb, co-slayer of little Bobby Franks, used visions of family wealth and prestige to dominate fellow convicts—and perhaps officers—of Stateville penitentiary, according to charges which came to light yesterday in the investigation of his murder. The charges were made in a statement by James Day, the young convict who on Tuesday slashed Loeb to death with a razor during a vicious fight in a prison shower bath.

Day's statement was made immediately after the slashing while Loeb lay dying in the prison hospital, but for reasons known only to the prison officials it was not made public until yesterday when a coroner's jury charged him with murder and held him to the Will county grand jury.

Special Privileges Told.

The young convict's declaration pictured Stateville as a place where Loeb and other long term prisoners with outside means had unusual liberties and extraordinary privileges. The murder constituted another episode in the series of scandals that have attended prison administration in Illinois under Gov. Horner. In brief Day's statement said:

1. Loeb, son of a wealthy Chicago family, who was serving a term of life and 99 years for the murder of the Franks boy, had bothered Day for months and made his life in prison "a torment."

2. Day, smaller and younger than Loeb, killed in self-defense after wresting the razor from Loeb. Both men were nude in the shower bath. Loeb compelled Day to remove his clothing.

Loeb's Influence Shown.

3. Eighteen months ago Loeb offered to get Day a job in the prison office. Day got the job and he credited Loeb's influence.

4. Last June Loeb began to annoy Day. Loeb told him of other convicts for whom he had procured jobs and how they had repaid these kindnesses. These men were now out on parole and at least one of them had obtained work through Loeb's connections.

5. Loeb promised to pay Day if the younger man would do his bidding. The money, he said, would come from an allowance he received regularly from a brother.

6. When Day refused to accede to Loeb's wishes Loeb threatened to have him discharged from his prison job. This strained situation between the two men brought about the fatal fight.

Officials Make Denials.

Gov. Horner's prison officials did not seem greatly disturbed over Day's story of the annoyances to which he said Loeb had subjected him. Their main concern yesterday after the questioning of Day and other convicts on Tuesday appeared to be denials of the young slayer's charges that Loeb had any special privileges. These denials were strenuous, although the officials apparently accepted as credible Day's detailed story of the slashing in the shower bath.

"Do you feel there has been negligence on the part of the prison authorities leading to this crime?" was a question asked of Warden Joseph E. Ragen.

"We can't pin it on any one," he replied.

Prosecutor to Press Inquiry.

State's Attorney William R. McCabe of Will county was not so complacent. He declared that his investigation of conditions in the prison would go through to the finish. He said that today he would question Nathan Leopold, who was Loeb's confederate in the murder of the Franks boy and who is serving the same term, life and 99 years. Leopold, like Loeb, is the son of a wealthy family. In recent years they have been permitted to resume their companionship in prison.

They were associated in conducting a correspondence school for other convicts. Hitherto Leopold has refused to give any information about the events that preceded the fatal slashing, declaring that he knows nothing about the matter.

Questions Still Unanswered.

In spite of Day's statement investigators for the state's attorney general pointed out that several questions arising out of the slaying of Loeb have not been satisfactorily answered. These are:

1. Where did Loeb get the razor which Day said he carried into the bathroom?

2. Why was the key to the bathroom apparently in Loeb's possession?

3. What was the full extent of the liberties Loeb enjoyed in prison and why were these liberties countenanced?

4. Why did Warden Ragen give out statements minimizing the seriousness of Loeb's wounds before Loeb died?

5. Why was the statement made by Day immediately after the slashing not made public until a day later, after the inquest?

Razor Mystery Still Unsolved.

The inquest hearing only deepened the mystery of the razor. Penitentiary officials said that the razor belonged to the prison but it had not been reported missing from any cellhouse. They said the razor might have been stolen so long ago that the search for it had been abandoned.

Concerning the key to the bathroom, testimony at the inquest was vague. Austin Humphrey, a guard captain, said the key should always have been in the possession of the dining room keeper. Yet when Day went to the bath to await Loeb he found the door open and it was Loeb, he said, who had the key in his possession and locked the door from the inside when he joined Day.

Denies Special Privileges.

In insisting that Loeb had no more privileges than any other veteran convict [he had been in prison since Sept. 11, 1924] Warden Ragen denied that he could have received money from the outside. Prisoners, the warden said, are allowed to have a maximum of $50 on deposit and are permitted $3 of this amount each week for purchases at the commissary. No comment was made by the warden on the possibility that Loeb could have offered to pay Day in merchandise.

Another point raised by the investigators was the liberty of movement permitted to Loeb inside the prison grounds. As director of the correspondence school he was permitted to range freely through cellhouse C, where he lived, also the nearby buildings, they said. Leopold was also quartered in cellhouse C, and Day moved there after he got the prison office job.

Recalls Bribery Scandals.

Concerning the possibility that Loeb might enjoy unusual privileges through the bribing of prison guards, State's Attorney McCabe declared that in the past many guards have been involved in bribery scandals. The guards' pay is $100 a month.

No explanation was given of why Warden Ragen tried to minimize the extent of the injuries inflicted on Loeb or why he did not give out Day's statement on Tuesday.

The statement was made public yesterday by A. L. Bowen, state director of public welfare, who has supervision over all state prisons and hospitals. Bowen said that when he arrived at Stateville from Springfield on Tuesday night he was not informed of Day's declaration and did not learn of it until yesterday.

To this Warden Ragen replied that he had been too busy on Tuesday investigating the murder to give out any statements. He said a summary of Day's story had been made public Tuesday evening.

STORY OF THE KILLER

Day's statement was made to Dr. John A. Larson, prison psychiatrist, immediately after the slashing of Loeb. The shower bath where the fatal fight occurred is part of a suite of rooms that is now being remodeled for use of the correspondence school. Day was serving a one to ten year term for a robbery committed in Chicago. He was taken to Stateville 18 months ago from Pontiac reformatory, where he began his sentence in 1932.

"During the whole time I have been here I was bothered by Loeb," Day's statement began. "I asked for a correspondence course shortly after I got here and he gave it to me and seemed anxious to help me. He had talks on all subjects. He offered to get me a job in the office. I never wanted to be under obligations to any one, so I refused at first.

"After some persuasion by him I let him get me a job with the understanding there would be no obligation on my part. In about four months he got me a job and I was transferred to C cell house.

Recalls Talk in June, 1935.

AT INQUEST

Day then related frequent talks he had with Loeb. It was in June, 1935, Day said, that Loeb first remonstrated with him for his narrow minded attitude.

"He asked me not to get mad, but to be broad minded," the statement continued. "He told me of others he had talked to similarly. They were now paroled and he had helped one of them get a job through outside connections. He told me he got $10 a week from his brother and half of it would be mine if I would do as he said. He said he would, if necessary, get $20 a week from his brother for me.

"Loeb also said I would be fully protected and not to worry about prison officials because his connections were such that he could squash it. I told him he was a double-crosser and not a friend. I started to get up and leave, and he said: 'Don't fly off the handle that way.'"

Day left, however, he said. Two days later he again encountered Loeb and he "reminded me he got me my job and he could get it taken away."

"He said he could speak to some one up front," Day related. "Every time we met alone he threatened me about my job. He threatened to start a rumor about me. He's bothered me like that constantly since last June.

"Last Friday I had an argument and a fight in the morning. [This was apparently with another convict and was the struggle in which Day got the black eye noticed after the slashing of Loeb.]

Loeb Agrees to Wait.

"After noon Friday I was in the Catholic chaplain's office when Loeb walked in, took off his coat and said he wanted to talk to me. My cell partner, George Bliss, was in the doorway of the Protestant chaplain's office across the way. He came over and asked Loeb if there were to be any fisticuffs. He said if so he would not allow it because I had had a fight that morning and was too weak to fight Loeb. Loeb said: 'O, all right, there is another day.'

"That night I told my cell partners, Bliss and Robert Camy, the whole story. The next day Bliss went to Loeb and tried to straighten out matters for me. Loeb said it was his business and he would wait a month to let me recuperate from the fight I had just had.

"I never said anything more to Loeb until today [Tuesday]. Right after breakfast I asked Loeb if I could talk to him some time today. He was in a cell at the time, having breakfast with Leopold.

Director Bowen asserted that Loeb and Leopold were not having breakfast in a cell, but were in one of the correspondence school rooms eating food which they had bought from the commissary.

Meets Loeb in Bathroom.

"After dinner Loeb came to my cell, said he was on his way to take a bath and if I wanted to talk to him, to see him in the bathroom. He said he would be along as soon as he picked up some towels and his things.

"He said if I would stop at the bathroom he'd be right up; he would not talk to me at any other time. I left the cellhouse and stopped at the bathroom and waited. Loeb came in about five minutes. He turned and locked the door. He said to me: 'What is on your mind, young man? Get it off quick, whatever it is, but I'm warning you it won't do any good as far as my attitude is concerned.'

"He was taking all his clothes off. The bathroom is so small that I was half sitting and half standing against the wash basin. His back was to me as he undid his bundle of clean clothing wrapped in a towel. [illegible] and I can't remember exactly what I was saying when he turned and got between me and the door and I noticed he had a razor in his hand. He had taken it out of the bundle.

Afraid to Try for Door.

"He said: 'Get your clothes off.' I knew the door was locked and the key was in it, but I was afraid to try to get out. I was taking my clothes off when the thought struck me to act as though I had given in, to watch for a chance to do something. I got all my clothes off and turned and stepped under the shower. He followed me.

"He took two steps toward the sill of the shower and he started to step over. I kicked him in the groin. I don't remember which hand he had the razor in. He slashed at my face with the razor.

"As he fell downward the slash missed me by inches. When he fell I hit him on the neck with my fist. I am confused. I cannot remember everything as clearly as I should. I know I hit him on the neck and the hand with the razor hit the sill and the razor fell. He grabbed for it. As he turned around I caught him by the wrist and throat and we fell to the floor together.

Day Grabs the Razor.

"He dropped the razor again. It was wet and we slipped. He missed the razor and I grabbed it and jumped over him. He got up and swung his fist at me and caught me on the left side of the face. I slashed at him and blood flew in my face as he locked his arms around me. I remember slashing at him as I fell back across the sill and felt a sharp sting across my back and I dropped the razor.

"Loeb fell on top of me and he got the razor and caught me with one hand by the throat. Something in my mind told me I'd die unless I could get out from under him. Somehow I threw him off. He swung at me, half laughing and saying I could fight when I had to. I remember I got up by the door and I had the razor in my hand.

"I started slashing at him and he backed away from the shower and the hot water was turned on. I stepped in after him but the steam from the hot water got in my eyes. I kept slashing at him. After what seemed some minutes of fighting in the shower he sank to a sitting position.

Loeb's Last Efforts Related.

"I turned to leave the shower. He started to get up. His eyes were big and staring. He put everything he had into a lunge at me. His hands were clenched like claws. I slashed at him some more and kept on until he fell and then I stood, not knowing what to do."

Day then related that he turned off the shower. Loeb lunged at him again and slid over and fell by the door, Day said.

"He got up and started fumbling with the key," Day concluded, "and I saw he was trying to get out and I let him go. He ran out to the dining room tunnel and I never seen him after that. I grabbed his shirt from a peg and came out, putting it on, thinking it was mine. There was a crowd of fellows outside and they started to run when they saw me with a razor. I asked some one to call a guard captain. The captain came and I gave him the razor."

Forced on Him, Day Says.

The statement then tells of questions put to Day by Dr. Larson.

Q. [by the psychiatrist]—How do you size up this difficulty you are in? A.—It was something that was forced on me. I only did what you or any one would do. It was the natural thing to do.

Q.—Why natural? Is it natural for people to be cutting up other people? A.—No. Not cold blooded murder. But this was forced on me.

At this moment Dr. Larson was informed that Loeb had just died. He asked Day if he knew it.

"No, sir," Day replied. "I am sorry for his folks' sake, but it could not be helped. He brought it on himself. I am sorry. All I ever asked of him was to be left alone."

The inquest yesterday was conducted by Coroner A. Kingston of Will county in a room adjoining Warden Ragen's office at the penitentiary. Among those present were the warden, State Welfare Director Bowen; Edward Powers, chief investigator for State's Attorney McCabe, and Dr. Joseph Duffy and Dr. Frank Chmelik, prison physicians. Day stood on his constitutional rights and declined to testify.

Testimony of Warden.

Warden Ragen was the first witness. He told of being called to the prison hospital where Loeb lay dying.

Q. [by Kingston]—Please tell the jury if any report of this matter was given you by your subordinate officers. A. [by Ragen.]—Austin Humphrey, guard captain, said he was in the captain's office about 15 feet south of the shower bath room. He was called by an inmate, who said there had been a fight. He investigated and found Day with a razor. He ordered him detained and went to the hospital where he found Loeb.

Q.—You say the two men were in this bathroom when the trouble took place. Had either the privilege of going there? A.—No.

Q.—Do you know whether Loeb and Day were supposed to be locked up in their cells at this time? A.—No. Day works in the front office. He goes to his cell, then back to the front office after the noon meal. Loeb at this time would be in the rooms which are being remade into a school room.

Q.—Did Loeb have a time at which he must report? A.—No. He was in charge of an officer.

Powers then questioned the warden, who admitted he had not notified the state's attorney's office of the cutting until Loeb died. The warden asserted that the razor did not come from the prison barber shop.

56 Razor Cuts on Body.

Dr. Duffy then testified to seeing the wounds on Loeb. There were 56 slashes on Loeb's body, from one inch to two feet long. The physician told of a convict, who was not identified, donating blood for a transfusion in an effort to save Loeb's life.

Recalling then that there have been rumors that a hoax would be perpetrated to make the world think Loeb was dead, while he was actually freed from prison, the coroner asked Dr. Duffy if he were certain the dead man was Loeb. Dr. Duffy said he was certain. Dr. Chmelik also asserted the identification was positive.

Day was then called to the stand, but refused to testify. He wore his prison denim and appeared calm.

The coroner then instructed the jury. In his instructions he mentioned the word "accident."

Powers hurried forward. "I must have misunderstood you, Mr. Coroner," he said. "This was murder and we want this man held for murder."

CREMATE LOEB'S BODY AFTER PRIVATE RITES AT HOME OF MOTHER

Funeral services for Richard Loeb, who was slain by a fellow convict at Stateville prison Tuesday, were held yesterday afternoon. Following the services which were brief and informal the body was cremated at Oak Woods cemetery.

The body was taken from the prison late Tuesday night to the funeral parlor at 7659 Jeffery avenue where it remained until 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Shortly before that time four mourners appeared at the chapel where the brief services were conducted by Rabbi Gerson Levi of the Temple Isaiah Israel, Greenwood avenue and Hyde Park boulevard. Besides Rabbi Levi the others were identified as F. G. Bohnen, 6747 Bennett avenue, uncle of Richard Loeb, his wife, and Bohnen's brother, J. R. of 6831 Euclid avenue.

Mrs. Anna Loeb, Richard's widowed mother, did not appear at the chapel. Prior to the services there, a private funeral was held at her home, 5017 Ellis avenue. This service was attended by the immediate members of the family.

MERCHANT CHIEFS URGE TIME SHIFT FOR RAIL LINES

State St. Leaders Cite Benefits of Unison.

BY LLOYD WENDT.

Officials of the State Street council who were in the city yesterday expressed the opinion that the railroads should be permitted to follow the city in changing to eastern time on March 1. This, they said, would avoid a double time system here, and would make for full realization of the benefits possible in the time shift. Other leading State street executives agreed in this position.

The railroad time issue will be up before the interstate commerce commission at a hearing to be held in the Morrison hotel on Feb. 24. If the change is granted, Chicago will have one year round time system. If the change is denied, the railroads will be an hour behind the city in time, with consequent difficulties for the mails. The other fast time advantages would be retained, but the city desires to eliminate this last difficulty.

Many Opinions of Approval.

The officers of the State Street council interviewed yesterday did not speak in their council capacities, but for themselves and as representatives of their own concerns.

Robert E. Peacock, president of C. D. Peacock, jewelers, and new vice president of the council, declared that Chicago should have a single time system. "Since Chicago has voted to change time on March 1, it seems only reasonable that the railroads here should take similar action," he said. "At least two states in the area which would be affected have already adopted eastern time and desire the railroads to follow. The railroads want to concur with the wishes of the city, and I think they should be permitted to do so."

Called Boon to Business.

J. L. Kesner, president of the Kesner Realty Trust company, who was reëlected treasurer of the council this week, declared that he had always favored eastern time, and he urged that the railroads be permitted to change. "If we have a single, permanent time system, and it is the same system that is used in New York and other metropolitan points, it will speed the heavy transportation between such points and end confusion," he said. "As you know, the Chicago Real Estate board long ago indorsed eastern time as a boon to business."

"I have been neutral on the subject of changing time, but obviously Chicago should not have two time systems," said Walter L. Gregory, vice president of the Palmer house and chairman of the board of the State Street council. "Since Chicago has adopted eastern time, the railroads should certainly be allowed to follow."

D. F. Kelly Cites Benefits.

"We have always favored eastern standard time," said D. F. Kelly, president of The Fair store. "We have told the Association of Commerce that we intend to operate under eastern time when the city makes the change on March 1. We feel that it will benefit the health of the community, improve recreation facilities, and aid business. Of course we believe that the railroads also should be permitted to adopt eastern time."

"I am glad that the city is to make the change to eastern time, and I certainly believe that the railroads should be permitted to follow," said Fred D. Corley, first vice president of Marshall Field & Co. "We anticipate advantages for the public, for our employés, and for our business, and I heartily indorse the change."

708 to 314 Favor Plan.

Walter Olson, president of the Olson Rug company, was out of the city, but an official of the firm pointed to a poll of employés on eastern time as reflecting the sentiment of the company. The poll, taken before the council adopted eastern time, resulted as follows: For eastern time, 708; against, 314.

Henry G. Hart, manager of the Boston store and newly elected president of the council, was in the east and could not be reached yesterday.

RED RUSSIA EMBRACES ANOTHER BOURGEOIS DEVICE—ADVERTISING

[Copyright: 1936: By the New York Times.]

MOSCOW, Jan. 29.—Another device of the bourgeois countries—advertising—suddenly has been embraced with enthusiasm in communist Russia.

Today display ads skilfully arranged typographically in neat two column boxes appeared on the first pages of Izvestia and Pravda, which heretofore were devoted almost wholly to news and editorials. They proclaimed that various foods, from sausages to Black sea oysters, are now obtainable in soviet stores here. And they were all paid advertising. There is no deadheading even in the socialist state.

One advertisment by the Moscow meat trust described the great varieties of meat and game now available at its various stores here while the Moscow fish retail trust proclaimed its various delicacies from smoked herring to caviar.

FIRE CAUSES $1,300 DAMAGE.

Artificial Lightning Is Blamed for Putting N. Y. in the Dark

New York, Jan. 29.—(AP)—An artificial lightning stroke of still mysterious origin was revealed today to the American Institute of Electrical Engineers as the probable cause of much of the electrical explosion which shut off a great part of New York City's electric light and power on Jan. 15.

The accident was the first of its kind in the United States. It can happen, so far as is known, to any big city.

Electrical engineers gathered here from all parts of the United States were given the story as far as it has been officially developed by technical experts. The report was made by F. C. Forbes, system engineer of the New York Edison company.

Starts in Power "Bus."

The trouble started in a Hell Gate power house bus. A bus is a copper bar, about the size and shape of the huge boards laid as flooring on wooden water front docks.

The bus carries the current from the generator to the power wires. At Hell Gate these buses lie horizontal, like footwalks across a creek, each one heavily walled off from the others.

The initial trouble occurred, Forbes said, in one of the main buses. Immediately after this first flash a similar one occurred in another section of the copper planks.

"It seems likely that a surge was set up which caused the breakdown in the other section," Forbes explained.

"Surge" is the thing which travels over power lines when lightning strikes them. It was this surge and the damage directly from it that shut off the other sources of power and caused much of the city a period of darkness.

Measure Lightning's Size.

The fat lightning stroke seen in big storms is about four inches in diameter, its destructive power contained in an inner core less than an inch wide with explosive energy of 20,000 pounds to the square inch. These measurements were reported to the institute by P. L. Bellaschi of the Westinghouse company's Sharon, Pa., station.

The power in a stroke of natural lightning ranges, Ballaschi reported, around 100,000 amperes. Often it goes to 150,000 amperes. Rarely, he said, it may reach 200,000.

A radio station small enough to fit snugly into a coat pocket, with the power supply batteries in another, came out of the laboratory today. The total weight is less than five pounds.

Developed by engineers of the National Broadcasting company, it operates in the micro-wave band of one meter or 300 megacycles. It has a range up to four miles for voice.

The fact that the transmitter is housed in a cube-like cabinet only three inches on a side and has two ten inch rods protruding from one side as an antenna, supports the probability that it could be used by almost any one afoot, particularly policemen. It is small enough to be concealed in an overcoat.

SENATE ADOPTS 'SOAK CHICAGO' PROPERTY LEVY

Farm Bloc Rounds Up Relief Votes.

BY STANLEY ARMSTRONG.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—By a vote of 26 to 15 the Illinois senate today adopted the program of its farm bloc to soak Chicago property owners with an additional tax of 7 million dollars a year for poor relief. Members of the group predicted afterwards that the house would approve the levy next week.

The farm bloc had no votes to spare, 26 being required for passage. Twenty-five of its votes came from downstate Republicans and Democrats, including adherents of Gov. Horner. The winning tally was tossed to it by T. V. Smith [Dem., Chicago], a professor at the University of Chicago who was the only Cook county senator to vote for the farmers' program.

Turn Down Ward Bill.

Having gained their objective, the Horner Democrats and many Republicans turned their thumbs down on the bill of Senator Harold G. Ward [Dem., Chicago], who is Mayor Kelly's spokesman in the legislature, to appropriate 7½ millions from the state general revenue fund to supplement relief cash until May 1. Only two votes were recorded against the measure, but so many senators were silent that Ward postponed consideration of the bill.

A similar bill is pending in the house along with measures that abolish the Illinois Emergency Relief commission and propose other plans to raise money for relief. A scant attendance in the house blocked a vote on any of the bills today and action was postponed until next Tuesday, to which date both the senate and house have adjourned.

Only 77 votes are needed in the house to adopt the farm bloc program. If the series of five bills is approved by the lower chamber and is permitted by the governor to become law it will become effective on July 1, not being emergency legislation.

Levy 30 Cents a Hundred.

The measures would compel the levying of a tax on Chicago property of 30 cents for each $100 of assessed valuation. Provision is made for the city to make a levy and pass an appropriation ordinance in July. Unless the maximum tax is levied each year the city would be cut off from any share of the sales tax funds now being used for relief. For downstate they contemplate the return of relief taxes from counties to townships.

Some Chicago residents would be compelled to pay double the 30 cent rate set up in the bills, according to tax experts. Chicago property within the boundaries of a township that takes in both city and suburban territory would be subject to both the township and the city tax, they said.

In arguments against the bill Chicago senators pointed out the effect that approval would have on the state administration's praise for itself in abolishing the state property tax. In the last year it was levied the state property tax was 50 cents. Benefits to property owners from the abolition of that tax would be cut 60 per cent by the addition of the relief tax, they said.

Heaviest in Relief Areas.

"I also want to do a little debunking of the proponents' arguments for these bills," said Senator James O. Monroe [Dem., Collinsville]. "The tax will fall heaviest on the industrial cities and townships, and lightly on the farming townships where few persons are on relief.

"Relief is a state-wide problem. There is equity in my bills for a 30 cent state property tax for relief. If it is a property tax you want, my measures will give you your fill of it."

The senate also adopted house bill No. 8, which gives the Cook county bureau of public welfare the same duties and powers in respect to old age pensions as house bill No. 32 gives to welfare commissions in downstate counties. The bill now goes to the house for concurrence in senate amendments. As yet, the governor has not acted on No. 32, which both chambers approved.

While the assembly was in session, reports that apparently are authentic were circulated that the governor has decided definitly to call a third special session, probably soon after a sine die adjournment of the two special sessions now running concurrently. According to the reports, the call is being drafted now.

Three subjects are certain to be included, it was said, unless the governor changes his mind suddenly. These are permanent registration, occupational disease bills, and measures to erase from the state securities act the gold redemption clause so it will conform to the federal securities act in this respect. The governor was said to be still undecided whether to open the call also to measures that would restrict expenditures of the Chicago park district.

G. O. P. 'HARMONY' GROUP MEETS AT CAPITAL HOTEL

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Republican "harmony" advocates, who are looking about for a means of composing party differences in the state, went into conference at the Hotel Abraham Lincoln this evening. Present were Gus Johnson of Paxton, Paul Samuell of Jacksonville, Col. George Seaman of Taylorville and Judge James S. Baldwin of Decatur, who were recently named by a downstate conference of Republicans.

With this committee met the members of the legislative committee named by G. O. P. assemblymen—Senators Charles W. Baker, Monroe Center; Ray Paddock, Round Lake and Representatives Leroy Green, Rockford, minority leader of the house, Frederick W. Rennick, Buda, and Fred Reavill, Flat Rock.

The assembled politicians are endeavoring to bring about the nomination of a downstate Republican for governor but thus far have agreed on no one.

MAYOR ATTACKS PLAN TO TAX CITY FOR POOR RELIEF

The action of the Illinois senate yesterday in voting approval of the program to tax Chicago property owners an additional $7,000,000 annually to provide needed poor relief funds, was assailed by Mayor Kelly as "outrageous."

"The 3 per cent sales tax was originally set up to provide for relief in this state and today there are approximately $20,000,000 of sales tax money lying idle in Springfield," Mayor Kelly said. He added that if the state senate imposes an additional tax on the people of Chicago the sales tax should be "wiped out."

"If the sales tax is not used for relief purposes a surplus will accumulate in the state treasury and when a surplus of public money accumulates that money invariably goes to purposes other than those for which it was intended," said the mayor.

Lemont Couple to Observe 67th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Orchard, both 87 years old, will celebrate their 67th wedding anniversary today at their home on route 66 in Lemont. He retired several years ago from the creamery business.

KEOGH'S LAWYER QUITS; UPROAR IN COURT FOLLOWS

Killer Fights New Test of His Sanity.

Albert S. Long, an attorney, appeared yesterday before Judge Joseph Burke in Criminal court and asked permission to withdraw as counsel for John W. Keogh, former wealthy realty owner, who shot and killed Attorney Christopher Kinney on Jan. 13 in the courtroom of Circuit Judge John Prystalski. Keogh was adjudged sane by a jury in a surprising verdict after two alienists pronounced him insane. This verdict was overruled as contrary to the evidence and he is to appear Monday before Judge Burke for a second sanity trial.

Judge Burke asked that the defendant, who is 72 years old, be brought to the courtroom. Keogh appeared and an uproarious scene followed. He declared that he did not wish to have his sanity tested because the question of mentality was more serious to him than the charge of murder.

Dispute with Attorney.

Attorney Long repeated his reasons for wishing to withdraw. He said Keogh had written letters criticizing Long's handling of his case. Keogh said he not only agreed to Long's withdrawal but was glad the attorney was quitting.

Judge Burke asked Keogh if he wished to be represented by Attorney Joseph P. Harrington, whose name had been mentioned in connection with the case. Keogh replied that he had removed Harrington and intended to act as his own attorney.

With this declaration Keogh launched into an argument with the judge which lasted half an hour. Technical and legal points were argued heatedly until the court called a halt. This annoyed Keogh.

"Not a Word Said!"

"Your honor," he said, "I've not been allowed to say a word."

Judge Burke said he would appoint a member of the public defender's staf to represent Keogh and that he would have two new alienists examine the defendant. Keogh objected vehemently to the appointment of the alienists. He said he didn't want to be examined and that he would resist by force if necessary.

As Judge Burke ordered the hearing closed Keogh stepped forward and said he wished to discuss a personal matter. He asked if the young man with whom he traveled to Shanghai in 1926 was not the judge's brother. Judge Burke replied that the man was his brother. Keogh smiled broadly at this feat of memory and walked jauntily from the courtroom to the county jail.

SMITH WELCOMES PENSION HOME RULE; PROMISES SAVINGS

Clayton F. Smith, president of the Cook county board, yesterday expressed gratification over the state senate's passage of a bill giving the county home rule over old-age pensions, and pledged economy in distributing the money to the aged needy.

"I'm not for building up a big organization to administer pensions," Mr. Smith declared. "The trouble with most public welfare agencies is that they keep rolling costs into a bigger ball all the time. For example, the county child placing service started twelve years ago with $25,000, and last year spent nearly $500,000."

Mr. Smith said he was considering appointing a "real business man" to administer the pensions. This coincided with the proposed plan of Peter M. Kelly, chairman of the county board's committee on public welfare. Joseph L. Moss, a trained social worker, who is director of the county bureau of public welfare, has stressed the need for an "adequate" administrative staf to safeguard distribution of pensions, saying this would cost about $450,000 the first year.

PUMP STATION'S COSTLY VISITORS' ROOM IS PROBED

A richly furnished room on the second floor of the Western Avenue pumping station at 4925 South Western boulevard will be investigated by Ald. James F. Kovarik [15th] on orders from the council finance committee, which was aroused by the presentation of a long-overdue furniture bill by a loop store.

The room was ordered prepared as a "reception room for city visitors" in 1928 by a former Republican mayor. About $1,000 worth of furniture was paid for in 1930, according to Commissioner of Public Works Oscar E. Hewitt, including a $389 electric refrigerator which has been moved to the first floor to keep employés' lunches cool.

The present bill is for $613.75, and lists draw curtains worth $287.50, a $316 rug, and a $10.25 mat. The room also contains a glass-topped directors' table, six comfortable arm chairs, a mahogany sofa, two lether-covered easy chairs, and six bright brass spittoons.

HOUSE MOVES FOR INQUIRY OF TOWNSEND PLAN

Growing Resentment in Congress Flares.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Growing resentment in congress against the activities of Townsend plan supporters flared forth today when a resolution was introduced in the house calling for an investigation at this session of "the pension plan racket."

The resolution submitted by Representative C. Jasper Bell [Dem., Mo.], is slated for early action and will be reported out favorably next week by the committee on rules, it was learned.

Conduct Organized Lobby.

A committee of seven members will be appointed by Speaker Joseph W. Byrns and will immediately begin delving into the operations of the promoters of the Townsend plan who have set up headquarters in Washington and who have been conducting an organized lobby designed to force congressmen to pledge themselves to the scheme which calls for the payment of $200 a month to all persons over 60 years of age.

The Townsendites have been circulating a list of 44 congressmen who they claim have promised to vote for the Townsend plan. The authenticity of the list has been challenged by several of those named who declared their names were used without their permission.

Hits Fraudulent Promoters.

"Several groups of fraudulent promoters are enriching themselves by working the so-called pension plan racket," the resolution stated.

"These schemers and promoters are collecting from the old people of this country vast sums of money running into countless thousands of dollars.

"Some of the schemes, including the so-called Townsend plan, are wholly visionary, fantastic and impossible of fulfilment and call for the taxation of the people of the United States under the age of 60 years to the extent of more than 24,000 million dollars a year. In order to raise this vast sum, it would be necessary to levy taxes eight times as high as the present total revenue from taxation. The bulk of such taxes would fall upon millions of people already feeling the burden of heavy taxation.

Tells Taxation Boost.

"Under such a scheme, the rate of taxation for an American family would equal or exceed the amount earned in wages, salaries or other means for the family."

According to charges freely circulated, some of the promoters involved in the various schemes are men of questionable character, the resolution stated, and have long records as perpetrators of fraudulent schemes. Their activities, it was charged, "are not only cruelly raising false hopes in the minds of distressed and aged people and unemployed but are having a strong tendency to injure the chances for the successful operation of sound and workable old age pension laws."

Such a "cruel delusion" should be unmasked, the resolution declared. The promoters were charged with seeking to stir class prejudice.

Will Have Wide Powers.

The committee to be appointed will have wide powers under the resolution. It will be empowered to inquire into the "acts and conduct of any person, partnership, group, trust, association or corporation claiming to promote, organize or further old age pension schemes."

With most of the Democratic leaders reported in favor of the resolution, the investigation seemed assured.

BONUS EXEMPT FROM U. S. TAX, OFFICIAL RULES

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Guy T. Helvering, commissioner of internal revenue, today told his collectors the soldiers bonus payments were exempted from federal income tax.

Quoting from an act of congress of last Aug. 12, the commissioner added: "Payments of benefits due or to become due shall not be assignable, and such payments made to, or on account of, the beneficiary under any of the laws relating to veterans shall be exempt from taxation, shall be exempt from the claims of creditors, and shall not be liable to attachment or seizure by or under any legal or equitable process whatever, either before or after receipt by the beneficiary. Such provisions shall not attach to claims of the United States arising under such laws nor shall the exemption herein contained as to taxation extend to any property purchased in part or wholly out of such payments."

IERC WILL DROP VETERANS UNTIL BONUS IS SPENT

Lyons Forecasts Result of Meeting Today.

How payment of the veterans' bonus will affect the relief rolls will be discussed tomorrow at a meeting of the Illinois Emergency Relief commission, it was announced yesterday by Executive Secretary Leo M. Lyons. He said a survey will be made to determine the amount the IERC may expect to save when ex-soldier relief clients receive the bonus.

"I can see no way other than to consider the bonus as we would consider any other income," Mr. Lyons declared. "That means that a substantial bonus payment would result in the discontinuance of relief to veterans until the money has been exhausted. Disability compensation payments to veterans on relief have always been regarded in this light by us."

22,000 Veterans on Rolls.

It was estimated yesterday that 9,000 veterans are included in the 130,000 IERC families, indicating that the bonus payment will reduce relief rolls to this extent. On Works Progress administration projects, now employing 172,000 persons formerly on relief rolls, there are estimated to be 13,000 veterans. Since the WPA program is scheduled to last only until June 30, when the bonus is to be paid, these men will be required to use the money before they can successfully reapply for relief.

Frank A. Chambers, director of the city smoke abatement department, yesterday submitted to WPA his application on a project aiming at correcting the causes of air pollution which is injurious to health and property. Employing 130 persons, most of them chemists and engineers, the project would cost $75,225 for a five month period.

Boasts 10 Year Record.

"We want to determine the amount, varieties, and causes of air pollution, to better our record of having reduced dust fall in Chicago by 50 per cent in the last ten years," Mr. Chambers said. "The project would not only furnish us with information essential to carrying on this work but would include an educational program, with classes for homeowners, real estate managers, and janitors."

He declared that such a project would save its cost several times over in lessened property damage alone. Sulphur dioxide, one of the gases emitted by chimneys, is a powerful corrosive, he said.

Julia Pays $5, but She's Not a 'Put Awayer' Yet

The police yesterday were seeking a tall thin man to whom Miss Julia Trusiak, 18 years old, 5652 South Wood street, said she gave $5 when he promised to get her a job with a chemical company if she would "join the union." Miss Trusiak is a "package put awayer."

E. S. BALLARD NAMED PRESIDENT OF COUNCIL OF SOCIAL AGENCIES

Ernest S. Ballard was elected president of the Council of Social Agencies of Chicago yesterday at a meeting of the board of directors at 203 North Wabash. He succeeds Edward L. Ryerson Jr., who resigned after being president for eight years. A resolution expressed high appreciation of Ryerson's services.

RELIEF TOTAL IS NEAR PEAK, HOPKINS SAYS

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—(AP)—A dozen Democratic senators were informed at a private conference with Harry L. Hopkins today that almost as many persons are on the dole or work relief as a year ago.

The relief population reached an all time peak of more than 20,000,000 last January, and Hopkins was reported to have said today that while there had been a "slight" improvement, the relief load was about the same now.

RAISING BONUS CONGRESS' JOB, PRESIDENT SAYS

Treasury Fails to Help with Problem.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt tonight joined in the old political game of buck passing in putting the question of raising the 2 billion 249 million dollars necessary to pay the soldiers' bonus squarely up to congress.

The question of raising funds was soft pedaled in congress as members voted the bonus in the hope of capturing veterans' votes next November. To persistent questioning of the anti-bonus bloc in the senate headed by Daniel O. Hastings [Rep., Del.] as to how the money was to be raised, bonus advocates replied that the problem would be settled by the treasury.

No Effort by Treasury.

Secretary Morgenthau's retort to the congressional buck passing at a recent press conference was "that's a fine thing to do." The treasury made no effort to plan raising bonus funds.

Mr. Roosevelt at press conferences since the veto has carefully dodged questions as to whether the administration plans to levy new taxes to meet the bonus and other obligations being thrust on the administration since his budget message. In a letter to Speaker Byrns, announced by the White House, the President submitted estimates of the sum needed to pay veterans and indicated the fund raising is a task for congress to assume. The letter was not made public.

Expenses Estimated.

At the same time the President sent a letter to Acting Budget Director Bell explaining the estimates and the various amounts the government will require in order to carry out provisions of the act. His total estimate was one of $2,249,178,375.

"For administrative expenses the veterans' administration, including personnel services, equipment, rentals, and other necessary expenses, to enable the administration to perform duties required by the act $6,500,000 was estimated," the White House statement said. "To establish the adjusted service certificate fund, to provide for the payment of the face value of certificates' $2,237,000 was estimated.

Nearly 7 Million More.

"For expenditure under direction of the secretary of the treasury, including the employment of necessary personnel, rental of quarters, supplies and materials, printing and engraving, and other such service as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of the act, $6,678,375 was estimated."

The estimate of the President will increase the federal deficit by about 2 billion 250 million dollars. Secretary Morgenthau in testifying before the senate finance committee said bonus payment will raise the national debt to 35 billion 500 million dollars by the fiscal year ending June 30, 1937.

Deficit Will Mount.

The deficit for the fiscal year ending this June was estimated originally at 3 billion 250 million dollars. Immediate payment of the bonus plus 300 million dollars for existing AAA farm contracts and 200 million in new farm subsidies will raise the deficit to almost 6 billion dollars to bring a new high for even the New Deal.

On June 30, 1935, the New Deal reached a record deficit of 3 billion 375 million dollars.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Barbara M. Clark's interest in music, particularly singing by Nelson Eddy, is not great enough, she shouted through a transom tonight, to cause her to attend any more of his concerts—after the next one.

Beleaguered in her hotel room after coming here on the same train with the baritone from Columbus, O., she loudly denounced as "lies" reports she let her music interests carry her to California to hear the singer.

Miss Clark, 19 and blonde, and pretty, took issue, from behind the locked door, with those who suggested she might have been following Eddy for reasons other than musical.

She would not, she said, attend any more of his concerts after the one scheduled here tomorrow night. The same idea emanated earlier in the day from her home at South Bend, Ind., from Miss Clark's stepfather, Nathaniel R. Bessell.

Eddy secluded himself and could not be reached for a statement.

VETERANS TAKE 20,000 TRIBUNE BONUS BLANKS

Approximately 20,000 bonus application blanks had been distributed up to 6 o'clock last night by the Tribune Public Service offices at 1 South Dearborn street and in Tribune Tower. Crowds besieged the offices all day long, obtaining blanks and getting aid in filling them out.

It was estimated that nearly half of the blanks distributed were filled out and attested in the public service offices, where finger printing facilities were made available by experts. Others took the blanks away with them to fill them out at leisure or after obtaining the necessary identifying data.

The application blanks will be available daily from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. at the tower office and from 9 a. m. to 11 p. m. at the loop office.

Mayor Kelly announced yesterday that Police Commissioner Allman had completed arrangements to extend finger printing facilities to bonus applicants at all police stations without cost.

Pennsylvania Woman, Blind and Deaf, Is 104 Years Old

Punxsutawney, Pa., Jan. 29.—(AP)—A little woman, infirm, blind, and deaf, will be 104 years old tomorrow. She is Mrs. Mary Michael, in good health until a year ago. At that time she received a letter of congratulations from President Roosevelt. She has two sisters, Mrs. Hannah Hopkins, 87, Chicago, and Miss Matilda Michael, 85, of Big Run, Pa.

GERMANY HAILS FOURTH YEAR OF HITLERISM TODAY

Hitler and the late President Paul von Hindenburg in 1933 will be reenacted.

Wilhelm Frick, minister of home affairs, has instructed all government bureaus and state owned plants to hold celebrations. At noon Hitler, Dr. Goebbels and Victor Lutze, chief of the Storm Troops, will address Storm Troopers parading in the Lustgarten, the wide square facing the former imperial palace, and in four other Berlin squares. In the evening all Storm Troopers of Germany will hold roll calls in their different garrisons and listen to a broadcast of the torchlight parade.

Winter Relief Bonus.

All Germans have been requested over the radio and in newspapers to hoist flags. The winter help organization will distribute, in extra relief payments, 13 million coupons for food worth 40 cents each and 5½ million coupons for coal worth 60 cents each.

Alfred Rosenberg, "dictator of culture," in a long essay outlining the new Nazi Weltanschauung [World Outlook], writes that "for thousands of years German history was European history and we hear today that German spiritual history is again becoming Europe's spiritual history."

Rosenberg attacked Catholics, writing: "No man has a right to speak in the name of Christianity if for fourteen years he worked together with the enemies of Germany." He accused Catholic Centrists of having done this by coöperating with the Democrats and Socialists.

Cite Reduced Idleness.

A reduction in the unemployment figure to 2,500,000 was cited as a great achievement in an official report. It failed to mention that hundreds of thousands have been conscripted in the army, labor service, and governmental "work creating jobs."

The constitutional expert of the government, Dr. Wilhelm Struckart, outlined the fundamental principles of the Nazi state as evolved in the three years of Hitler's reign:

"The reich is a Socialist state, a racial state. Blood and soil are the vital fount of the German nation. The reich is the Fuehrer's state. The leader of the Nazi party is always the chief of the state and the supreme commander of the fighting forces. The party and the army are the two main pillars of the state which are indissolubly tied together."

The "throwing off of the fetters of Versailles" with the creation of a new army by Hitler's order and the creation of a new air force by Gen. Hermann Wilhelm Goering, minister of air, will be glorified in all of tomorrow's celebrations.

Community Fund Makes Finance Report for 1935

Subscriptions to the Community Fund for 1935, pledged in the campaign conducted in the fall and winter months of 1934, reached a total of $3,055,127, of which 99.1 per cent were paid in full, it was disclosed yesterday in the report made by James R. Leavell, treasurer of the fund, at the annual meeting in the Union League club.

At the same time, Lester D. Armour, chairman of the committee which in recent months conducted the campaign for 1936 funds, reported that subscriptions amounting to $3,190,152 have been received to date, about $10,000 under the $3,200,000 goal set for this year. This figure is about $200,000 higher than that for 1935.

Mr. Leavell's report on 1935 activities of the fund emphasized the unusually low "loss" on subscriptions—only $27,959—and ascribed it in part to the unpaid balances of employé group pledges which usually represent only estimates at the time they are made and as a result often are overestimated.

Total Receipts of $3,201,524.

Total receipts of the fund from all sources during 1935 amounted to $3,201,524, and total expenditures were $3,088,366. Administrative expenses and other expenses incident to conducting the subscription campaign were $77,091, or 2 per cent of total receipts.

Approximately 100,000 more names are included in employé group subscriptions for 1936 as compared with the previous year.

Edward L. Ryerson Jr., president of the fund, pointed out in his annual report that there are 3,500 individuals who give their time on the boards of directors of the participating agencies and that the fund serves as a coöperative enterprise between approximately 500,000 contributors and 500,000 beneficiaries.

Mr. Ryerson and Mr. Leavell and the following were reëlected: Fred A. Preston, first vice president; Clifford W. Barnes, D. F. Kelly, and Albert D. Lasker, and Victor A. Olander, honorary vice presidents, and Frank D. Loomis, secretary. Mr. Armour was named second vice president, a newly created office.

Distribution of Funds.

The 1935 expenditures for the 145 member agencies of the fund, as classified by their functions, and the budget allocations for the same agencies for this year, are shown in the reports, as follows:

	1935.	1936.
Major family service and relief agencies	$1,538,272	$1,414,486
Minor service and relief agencies	67,836	70,877
Child care agencies	558,051	516,713
Day nurseries	20,533	24,211
Group work	520,527	590,653
Protective work	102,227	123,079
Health agencies	161,467	245,931
Homes for the aged		36,963
Miscellaneous	119,454	240,617
Total	$3,088,367	$3,263,529

The major relief agencies which are beneficiaries of the fund are four in number. They received the following payments from the fund in 1935: American Red Cross, $112,898; Jewish Social Service bureau, $392,252; Salvation Army, $306,195, and United Charities of Chicago, $726,927.

(ADVERTISMENT)

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk, and the world looks punk.

Laxatives are only makeshifts. A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. SAYS HITLER HAS NO DESIGNS ON RHINELAND ZONE

German Minister Allays British Fears.

BY DAVID DARRAH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 29.—Reichsfuehrer Hitler has no intentions to make hasty moves for an early reoccupation of the demilitarized zone of the Rhineland—which Europe generally fears as the starting point for another war.

Baron Konstantin von Neurath, German foreign minister, was said to have assured British Foreign Secretary Capt. Anthony Eden of this in their talk tonight. Statesmen who attended the funeral of King George V. yesterday had a series of talks today with King Edward VIII., Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin and Eden.

British circles seemed gratified over the German explorations of possible Anglo-German coöperation. The British said the Germans showed they did not want to start trouble at all, as the French fear, and on the contrary put out feelers for an understanding. Sir Eric Phipps, British ambassador to Berlin, is now in London, and Capt. Eden will consult him about the developments of a new Anglo-German policy.

See New King's Influence.

Will King Edward VIII. have influence in furthering a German understanding? Some think he will and recall that he had much to do with establishing friendly relations between British and German veterans' organizations.

The king received visiting statesmen at Buckingham palace by way of starting his morning's work. The soviet foreign commissar, Maxim Litvinov, apparently got on well with the king for he remained at the palace half an hour. The king was busy at his desk until late this afternoon.

Capt. Eden had dinner tonight with Prince Ernst Ruediger von Starhemberg, vice chancellor of Austria, and King Carol II. of Rumania. Carol's visit to England, it is believed, will have far reaching effects on the stability of the Balkans. What Carol was promised or is getting was not revealed. Earlier Eden had talked with King Boris III. of Bulgaria.

Other statesmen who called on the king and Eden and made ten minute calls on Prime Minister Baldwin at 10 Downing street were the foreign ministers, Nicholas Titulescu of Rumania, Pierre-Etienne Flandin, France; Mohammed Khan, Afghanistan; Dr. Armindo Monteiro, Portugal, and Koloman de Kanya, Hungary.

Omit Fascist Salute.

A curious development in the diplomatic visits, particularly the farewells, was the departure of Crown Prince Humbert of Italy. The king and his brother, the duke of York, went to see Humbert off and so did Dino Grandi, Italian ambassador to London, officers of his embassy staf, and members of the Italian colony. But shades of Benito, they gave Humbert a regular military salute and not the Fascist salute.

Guns of coastal batteries fired farewell salutes for King Christian X. of Denmark, King Leopold III. of the Belgians, President Albert Lebrun of France, and other royal and republican visitors to the funeral. However, the number of statesmen sticking around until the end of the week means that Whitehall is preparing a new political broth in the European pot.

The cabinet resumed its regular Wednesday sessions with a two hour meeting at which the question of a billion and a half dollar loan for British rearmament was considered. Measures to reinforce the army, navy, and air force had been studied at at least four meetings prior to the suspension during the mourning period for King George.

The government is preparing a white paper explaining the reasons for major increases on sea and air defenses and on a smaller scale the army. The program will be submitted to parliament for debate when it reconvenes next Tuesday.

The Defense Program.

The six year rearmament program will include the following developments:

Navy—A billion dollars' worth of new warships are to be built, including eleven battleships, twenty-five cruisers, sixty destroyers, thirty submarines, and three aircraft carriers. The battleships will cost about $37,500,000 each.

Air Force—A total of 1,500 airplanes to be built yearly, half of them bombers and half fighters. The fighters will be three men machines, the crew consisting of a pilot, an observer, and a machine gunner. Thirty new airdromes will be laid out during the next two years.

Army—More rapid progress is to be made with mechanization. Another brigade of tanks will be formed. Six battalions of armored cars will be formed. The infantrymen will be armed with more machine guns and anti-tank guns.

A special government committee is to conduct a census of all engineering works in the country with a view of scheduling their capacities for the production of munitions in an emergency. Large stocks of machine tools have been ordered, and will be kept in store so they can be issued to these factories, thus enabling them to turn from peace time work to munitions work on a two or three day notice.

Deny Italian Propaganda.

British irritation with Italian propaganda was shown today in an official statement branding as false some recent radio broadcasts from Rome and evidencing displeasure with continued Italian agitation in Egypt.

The first attack was on a broadcast in English last night asserting that two schools at Jigjiga, used by the Egyptian Red Cross as hospitals, were actually barracks. Quoting their representative at Harrar, the British declared there was not an armed man in either of the two places. The British also denied the allegation that a Swedish Red Cross mission at Harrar was an Egyptian wireless station manned by operators wearing Red Cross armbands.

Sir Philip Game, police commissioner of London, today launched an official investigation because 10,000 persons were injured in the crowds watching yesterday's funeral procession. There were suggestions that the 11,000 troops and police lining the funeral route were insufficient, compared with the 35,000 who were on duty during the funeral of King Edward VII. in 1910. Yesterday's crowds were estimated as high as two million in London and at Windsor.

QUEEN MARY THANKS PEOPLE OF BRITISH EMPIRE FOR SYMPATHY

LONDON, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Queen Mother Mary tonight issued from Buckingham palace a message of gratitude to the people of the British empire for their sympathy in the death of King George V.

"I can only say with all my heart that I thank you," the message said. "I have been deeply moved by signs so full and touching that the passing of my dear husband brought a real sense of personal sorrow to all his subjects. In the midst of my grief I rejoice to think that after his reign of 25 years he lived to know he received the reward in overflowing measure of the loyalty and love of his people.

"Although he will be no longer at my side—and no words can tell how I shall miss him—I trust that with God's help I may still be able to continue some part at least of the service which for 42 years of happy married life we tried together to give to his great land and empire. During the coming years, with all the changes which they must bring, you will, I know, let me have a place in your thought and prayers.

"I commend to you my dear son as he enters upon his reign in confident hope that you will give to him the same devotion and loyalty which you gave so abundantly to his father."

'ABUSIVE' PATRON SHOT TO DEATH BY CAFE OWNER

Henry Telkes, 38 years old, 6221 Drexel avenue, a bartender, was shot to death last night when he became quarrelsome in a restaurant at 876 East 63d street. He was slain by Victor Reifman, 45 years old, 5006 Woodlawn avenue, owner of the restaurant, who fired one shot as Telkes lay on the floor struggling with Leonard Shayer, 27, 1330 Hyde Park boulevard, another patron. Reifman told the Woodlawn police that Telkes appeared to have been drinking when he entered the place. He became abusive to a waitress, Miss Jean Burgess, 24 years old, 6317 Blackstone avenue, and threw a cream pitcher at her, Reifman said. The pitcher missed the waitress and struck Reifman on the head, he added. Then Telkes started a quarrel with Shayer, according to the proprietor's story, and threw the man to the floor. As they wrestled, Reifman said, he fired one shot, which struck Telkes in the head. Police held the restaurant owner.

BUSINESS URGED TO ACTIVITY IN AFFAIRS BY KNOX

Cleveland, O., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Frank Knox, Chicago publisher frequently mentioned as a Republican candidate for President, asserted tonight "it is time the business men of this nation stopped complaining about their government and began doing something about it."

Addressing 1,200 northern Ohio Republicans in the Tippecanoe club's 33d annual McKinley day banquet, Knox drew a parallel between the coming campaign and the McKinley-Bryan campaign of 1896.

"What American business—and the American people—needed in 1896 was a guarantee of a sound currency and a sound credit structure. Those things McKinley promised and delivered." He added that the American people and American business now need "the same things."

ETHIOPIA RUSHES NEW TROOPS INTO SOUTHERN FRONT

Selassie to Take Charge in Crisis.

[Special to the London Daily Telegraph and the Chicago Tribune.]

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ADDIS ABABA, Jan. 29.—Strong reinforcements are being rushed to weakened parts of the southern front in an effort to stem the Italian invasion.

Jigjiga is denuded of Ethiopian troops. No trucks have entered the capital for the last week. They are all in use transporting troops to the front. A big battle in Ogaden province seems imminent.

Ras Desta Demtu's army in the Sidamo area is also receiving reinforcements. It is now concentrated at Igra Alem, new capital of the province which was founded by Ras Desta Demtu.

There are persistent rumors that Ras Desta will be deposed as a result of his recent retreat. Dedjazmatch Babre Mariam, minister of interior, and Dedjazmatch Makonnen Hosenne are mentioned as possible successors.

Drill Troops at Addis Ababa.

Troops recently mobilized are being drilled in the capital before being hurried south. The scenes recall those witnessed at the beginning of the war.

It is considered likely that Emperor Haile Selassie will return here from Dessye to concentrate his attention on the menacing Italian advance on the southern front.

Air raids, it is reported, continue in Sidamo province, and 5,000 cattle and 2,500 camels loaded with provisions have been killed.

[The above dispatch is at variance with the announcement of Emperor Haile Selassie on Tuesday that Italian reports of a southern victory were false and designed to bolster the Italian morale at home.]

Ethiopian General Wounded.

[Copyright: 1936: By the New York Times.]

PASSO DOGHEA, Jan. 29.—The wounding of Ras Mulugheta, about whom conflicting reports have been circulating for the last few days, can now apparently be confirmed. It was learned here today the former Ethiopian war minister received a fragment of a bombshell in his left leg about a week ago, not in the Tembien fighting as rumored but here, just opposite this point of the great Italian salient running out of Aksum. It was during the daily bombardment of Amba Aradan, which the Ethiopians now hold and are fortifying.

Confirmation of the report comes from the head of the Coptic priests of Scelicot.

Italy Seeks U. S. Goods.

ROME, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Leaders of Italian industry are anxious to revive a trade mission to the United States which failed last year, informed persons said tonight.

Shortly before this disclosure an apparently authoritative hint was given that Italy, because of league of nations sanctions, will look to the Americas for her future raw materials and commerce.

An editorial in Premier Mussolini's own newspaper, Popolo d'Italia, warned the sanctionists they could expect Italy to look toward "the vast raw material resources" of North and South America.

The United States, continued the editorial, refused to declare an oil embargo against this country because of resentment against British "imperial intemperance" in the African war.

Italy to Remember Friends.

Italy will remember her friends, the paper said, and between her and the republics of America, including the United States, "the financial and economic ties can never presuppose political interference."

League sanctions, it was asserted by authoritative sources, have strengthened instead of weakened Italy's gold resources. Despite the cost of the war, these circles added, the country's gold position is better now than it was in 1934.

No exact figures were given out on the exportation of gold. Bankers pointed out, however, that the public has given the government roughly 2 billion lire in gold, some of it in the form of wedding rings and other jewelry.

VESTRIS DISASTER CLAIMS SETTLED AT HALF MILLION

New York, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Claims growing out of the sinking of the steamship Vestris in 1928 with a loss of 110 lives were settled today for approximately $500,000, covering loss of life, cargo and injuries.

The payment agreed to by the Liverpool, Brazil and Roverplate Steam Navigation Company, Inc., operator, and Lamport and Holt, Ltd., owner of the ship, contrasted with original claims for more than $2,500,000 filed against the companies and the $81,000 which they claimed was their total responsibility because of limited liability.

The order signed by Judge Henry W. Goddard in federal court noted that in making substantial payment in settlement the defendants did not admit any degree of responsibility for the accident. The order exculpates them from any such responsibility, limits liability to the amount paid to the claimants' committee and bars the filing of any further claims.

The Vestris left New York, bound for South American ports, on Nov. 10, 1928, and the following day encountered heavy weather. Distress calls were sent out on Nov. 12, but before aid arrived passengers and crew took to boats or jumped overboard and the vessel sank.

URGE EXTENSION OF ELEVATED TO BROOKFIELD ZOO

Twenty-five residents of Berwyn and Brookfield appeared before the Illinois commerce commission yesterday to urge that the commission enter an order forcing the Chicago Rapid Transit company to extend the Douglas park branch of the elevated to the Brookfield zoo. Following completion of their testimony that the extension is greatly needed by the west side towns, the hearing ended and the case was taken under advisement by the commission. The elevated lines opposed the extension, asserting that it would be unprofitable. The commission's decision is expected within sixty days.

Father of 5 Fatally Beats Wife and Jumps to Death

New York, Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Paul Di Bari, 52, father of five children, fatally beat his wife, Rose, 49, with a hammer after a quarrel over money in their flat in Hoboken today and then jumped to a rear yard, killing himself.

CONDITIONS IN ITALY FORCE THE CLOSING OF THE BRITISH ACADEMY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Jan. 29.—The historic British academy at Rome has been suspended indefinitly after 112 years of activity. This decision, according to the Daily Telegraph correspondent in Rome, was taken by the general committee under the chairmanship of Sir Eric Drummond, British ambassador to Rome.

The academy has fallen victim to general conditions in Italy. Diminution of the foreign colony in Rome has so reduced the number of students that it is no longer self-supporting.

The committee thanked Prof. Sciortino Maltese, sculptor, for his long services. He will retain the directorship in the hope the academy will ultimately be able to resume its activities.

HOUSE MEMBER RAPS 'TOADYISM' OF HONORING KING

Sweeney (Ohio) Brings Up 'Murders' in Ireland.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—A denunciation of the house for its "toadyism" in adjourning last week in honor of the death of King George of Great Britain was voiced today by Representative Martin L. Sweeney [Dem., O.].

Asserting that he had no personal grievance against the late king, Sweeney declared: "I despise the symbol of imperialism which he represented. I have searched the record and I do not find anywhere in the annals of the British parliament that it ever adjourned out of respect to the memory of a dead President of the United States. We are going too far and it seems to me we are getting into the same atmosphere we got into just before the last world war. We are going to have this British influence in connection with our neutrality resolution.

Forecasts New World War.

"We are on the eve of another world war. It seems we have succumbed to the philosophy that we are subservient to the British people."

On Jan. 21, when the resolution of adjournment was offered in the house [the senate was not in session] Sweeney attempted to protest, but the speaker refused to recognize him.

"It was under the régime of King George that many of my friends and relatives were murdered when the black and tan invasion came into Ireland," shouted Sweeney.

Protests Cost of Tribute.

"An army was recruited from the Whitechapel district and jails of London which went over to Ireland and murdered those people because they dared to express the same sentiment that Patrick Henry expressed.

"I have been subjected to criticism because I have been told I was in bad faith to rise in a democracy and register my rights of protest as a member of this house. I want the record to show that I protest against the action of this house in paying a $50,000 tribute [cost of the house in session for one day] to King George of England."

Sweeney said he and other members of a house delegation had been "treated with contempt" on a visit to parliament.

British Spurn Arab Demand for Palestine Ban on Jews

JERUSALEM, Jan. 29.—(AP)—A demand by Arabs that Jewish immigration to Palestine be stopped has been categorically rejected by the British colonial office, Sir Arthur Grenfell Wauchope, high commissioner for Palestine, said today. Replying to a memorandum submitted by Arab delegations Nov. 26, Wauchope wrote that the government does not contemplate a departure from the guiding principle for immigration.

NEW DEAL FOES LAUNCH BOOM FOR TALMADGE

Democrats in Dixie Ask Roosevelt's Defeat.

the constitution and the Supreme court.

"There's no chance for the New Deal to succeed," he shouted, "unless they invent some kind of ointment to take the place of sweat.

"The Democrats of the south owe it to the nation to rally to the principles of Thomas Jefferson, the founder of this party.

Outlines '36 Battle Lines.

"What is the fight for the Democratic party in 1936? What is the fight for all true Americans in 1936?

"Here it is:

"Shall we cling to our present form of government or abolish it?

"Shall we barter away Americanism for communism?

"Shall we continue to borrow and spend, or settle down and settle up?

"Shall we substitute lunacy for sanity?

"Shall we convert Democrats into burocrats?

"Shall we share our wealth through charity, or lose it through taxation?

"Shall we replace impartial Uncle Sam with Old Mother Hubbard playing favorites?

"Shall we remain idle and import food, or work and produce it?"

Calls High Court "Rescuer."

The Supreme court, the governor said, has come to the nation's rescue. "Let us hold up their hands," he urged. "Let's don't allow a bunch of communists to have four years more to appoint the successors to such stalwart men as Chief Justice Hughes and Associate Justices Butler, McReynolds, Sutherland, and Vandeventer.

"If the New Dealers can pick their own Supreme court the wheels of our democracy would catch fire and burn down our freedom.

"Don't let any welfare worker tell you you've got to vote so and so. This crazy dream will soon be over."

"It won't be long," came a chant from the listeners.

Terms Cotton Law "Insane."

Talmadge referred to the Bankhead cotton control law as "more insane than the NRA."

"I'm going to talk direct to the President now," he said. "If he wants to help, let him call in Secretary Wallace now and tell him to forget the tax under the Bankhead act. He'd save Georgia over 3 million dollars, the south over a billion.

"When the Supreme court again saved America by saying that the AAA was unconstitutional, announcements came from Washington that Tugwell, Frankfurter, Wallace, and even the President himself were looking for plans to devise a law that would get around the Supreme court and continue their policy of scarcity here in America.

Hits U. S. "Intimidation."

"I am sad to say that some of the governors have goose stepped into line and saddled on their states and counties taxes that it will take a century to pay, giving over the freedom and the sovereignty of their states to boards and burocrats in Washington.

"Georgia did not goose step on the New Deal must bills which they sent down to Atlanta to me to be crammed through the legislature, providing for thousands of federal jobs in the state of Georgia at the expense of the state.

Turns Guns on Ickes.

"And, when the governor of Georgia did not goose step, he was labeled by a member of the cabinet as 'his chain gang excellency, whose word is no good.'

"The only one of the New Deal bills that passed in Georgia was one to defraud the counties of the state out of the highway scrip, where they had a bonded indebtedness for roads. I vetoed the bill.

"Secretary Ickes had accepted these highway certificates, contrary to law, and wanted to make the governor of Georgia a party to his illegal contract.

Cites "Forgotten Platform."

The governor spoke of the Democrats' forgotton platform of 1932.

"It won't do," he said "to give the present administration four years more in Washington. If we do, they'd take it as an indorsement of all their communistic theories."

Thomas Dixon of North Carolina, tall, gray haired author of "The Clansman," read the platform adopted at the rally and in a speech discussed "Red" activities. He declared that in New York "5,000 communist vermin are eating government bread and trying to wreck our government."

Platform Echoes Speeches.

The platform, adopted as a declaration of "the Jeffersonian Democratic convention," echoed the speeches. It said:

"We have reviewed the platform written by the national Democratic convention in 1932 and it impresses us as a profound document upon which a sound government must be based. We regret to say, however, that the platform referred to has been repudiated and treated as only a scrap of paper.

"The people of America, when they read that platform, indorsed the candidate who accepted it. This candidate promised the people of America that he would take that platform to his bosom and would carry out each and every plank thereof to the best of his ability.

"But what do we find today? We find that platform in the main has not been followed, that it has been repudiated and instead of being carried out by the President of the United States it has been practically abandoned and sidetracked.

"Old Teachings Ignored."

"Since March 4, 1933, there has been practically a suspension of constitutional government in our country and a radical departure from the time honored teachings of the Democratic party. The constitution is composed of uncompromising Jeffersonian principles. The occupant of the White House has abandoned faith in the constitution and set up a bewildering burocracy.

"We believe in the American system of a division of powers between state and federal jurisdiction.

"We condemn the usurpation of the lawmaking power by the President.

"We regard the Supreme court as the balance wheel of our governmental sfstem. Its power to pass upon acts of congress is the greatest safeguard to the rights of the citizen.

Urges Aid to Farmer, Laborer.

"We believe that every reasonable aid that may be given under the constitution should be extended to agriculture and labor.

"Can we afford the killing of six million pigs and running up the cost of all meat?

"Can we afford plowing up cotton while millions of people are cold and naked?

"Can we afford the burning of wheat, corn, oats, and foodstuffs while millions of people are hungry and in want?

"Can we afford to permit millions of pounds of meat, lard, and foodstuffs to be shipped into this country from foreign countries, thus giving employment to foreign people while our own people walk the streets and beg for work?

"We believe in thrift, in perseverance at tasks that promise a reward, in individual merit, individual goals, and we oppose every form of regimentation which deprives a free citizen of the United States of the incentives which were given him in the charter of our great government."

ILLINOIS TRADE BODY HITS U. S. TAX BLUE SLIPS

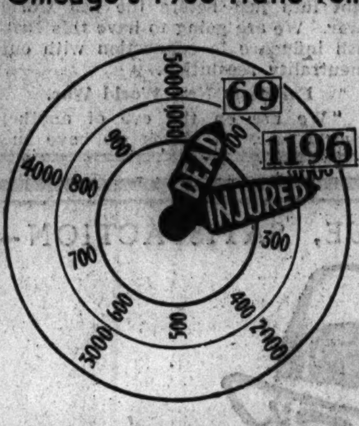
A demand for the repeal of the federal provision for duplicate federal income tax returns was sent yesterday by the Illinois Chamber of Commerce in a letter to all Illinois congressmen.

"We consider the blue duplicate income tax return objectionable," the letter said. "For example, in Illinois the private information contained in federal income tax returns if made available to local taxing authorities would result in the assessment of personal property taxes which in relation to many intangibles would result in practical confiscation."

G. W. Ferris, executive head of the state organization, said that while attempts to insure secrecy have been written into the duplicate return law it is the opinion of the chamber that the information would soon leak out and be available to anyone.

THE MASSACRE

Chicago's 1936 Trafic Toll



Over 98 per cent of the city's automobile fatalities are of a nature physically impossible on an elevated highway.

MOTORIST GIVEN 10 DAYS IN CELL 'TO STOP MURDER'

Judge Eugene L. McGarry announced in his courtroom yesterday that he was going to "stop this murder on the streets" when he imposed a ten day Bridewell sentence instead of a fine on Albert L. Morris, 20 years old, 5118 South Maine street, Downers Grove, for reckless driving.

Morris was arrested early yesterday at Washington boulevard and Keeler avenue by park district policemen who testified he was driving forty-seven miles an hour on the wrong side of an icy street.

Judge Gibson E. Gorman in South State street court yesterday sentenced Nick Garglionis, 39 years old, 7910 South Ashland avenue, to serve 30 days in the Bridewell for an accident on Nov. 8 in which Garglionis' truck struck Robert Gahagan, 14 years old, 6843 Parnell avenue, and injured the boy so severely his left leg was amputated below the knee.

Mrs. Anthona Bukovac, 50 years old, 9312 Anthony avenue, died yesterday in South Chicago hospital from injuries she received last Saturday when she was struck by an automobile driven by Nick Vickelick, 9757 Commercial avenue, at South Chicago and Exchange avenues.

Beverly Jeffries, 30 years old, died early today in the West Side hospital of injuries suffered yesterday when he was crushed by a truck in the garage of the Continental Trucking company, 119 Sheldon street, where he was employed and where he made his home.

At 4 p. m. yesterday 80 persons had been killed in trafic accidents in Cook county since Jan. 1, according to the coroner's office. During the same period 69 were killed and 1,196 were injured within the Chicago city limits.

AUTO KILLS FOX FLEEING POLICE, CHILDREN, DOGS

Two police squads, 100 school children, and about thirty dogs chased a fox through the streets of Oak Park yesterday to its death under an automobile.

Mrs. Anton Ansel, 1115 South Wisconsin avenue, reported to police that an animal which had been feeding in her back yard on scraps she put out for birds had leaped a five foot fence at her approach and disappeared.

Policemen Ray Gloss, Harold Lindblad, Robert Chester, and Walker Ijams started to the Ansel home and sighted the animal in the street.

School was just letting out and the children and dogs joined the policemen in chasing the fox, which ran down Roosevelt road toward Ferwyn until it was struck by an automobile fender at Maple avenue. The driver didn't stop.

SNUB TO WOMEN BY MARINE BAND STIRS UP HOUSE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—A walkout taken last night by the United States marine band on members of the Women's Patriotic Conference on National Defense seemed slated to become a celebrated incident today. The band was ordered not to play as a New Deal revenge upon the women for having listened to Bainbridge Colby, secretary of state under President Wilson, who attacked the Roosevelt administration.

A resolution calling upon the secretary of the navy to explain to the house why the marine band was ordered to walk out on the meeting was introduced by Representative George P. Darrow [Rep., Pa.], ranking member of the naval affairs committee. "We should know just who was responsible for this incident," said Darrow. "Let the blame be placed where it belongs and not on the band itself."

Snell Brings Fireworks.

In the house, a wrathful debate was aroused by what Minority Leader Bertrand Snell [Rep., N. Y.], called the "astounding" occurrence.

"Is this the forerunner of what Postmaster General Farley said would be the bitterest and dirtiest campaign in history?" inquired Snell. "The band is supported by the taxpayers. The women meeting here represent every patriotic organization in the nation from the Daughters of the American Revolution to the American Gold Star Mothers. Yet, because they had the temerity to listen to a criticism of the New Deal, a petty revenge is taken in calling off a scheduled concert of the marine band.

"I am wondering if the time has come here in America when free speech, free press, and free assemblage of law abiding citizens are going to be oppressed. To me, it smacks of something un-American. The whole procedure is abhorrent to the American people and is not in accord with the American system and American ideals."

Democrats to Fore.

This challenge brought a number of Democrats shouting to their feet.

"The gentleman will recall," yelled John J. O'Connor [Dem., N. Y.], "that free assemblage of American citizens down here on Pennsylvania avenue—some veterans that Mr. Hoover brought the artillery to drive out of town!"

Forgetting all other business, members of the house leaped gladly into the verbal fray. With fervor, Colby was read out of the Democratic party by O'Connor.

"I never knew him to take part in a Democratic activity," said O'Connor, the Tammany leader, with indignation. "His only claim is that he served under a Democratic President."

"He's a Liberty leaguer!" shouted Representative Charles L. Faddis [Dem., Pa.], as the clinching argument. "He made a speech against the administration, the like of which I never listened to."

"Didn't he agree in advance not to make a political speech and didn't scores walk out on him when he did?" inquired Scott W. Lucas [Dem., Ill.].

"Did they try to stop him from making the speech?" bellowed James M. Fitzpatrick [Dem., N. Y.].

Find It Humorous.

The imagined spectacle of the club women arising in their wrath and suppressing Colby proved humorous, even for the house, and there was a gale of laughter.

Aroused by all the excitement, Mrs. Virginia E. Jenckes, Indiana Democrat, announced that she would cancel her scheduled address to the women today.

The retreat of the bandsmen from the women's banquet, said to be an unprecedented snub, was reported to have been ordered by Henry L. Roosevelt, assistant secretary of the navy, who also ordered three high ranking naval officers to cancel their speeches at the conference after Colby had delivered his address.

YOUTH OF U.S. QUITTING NEW DEAL'S RANKS, ASSERTS OLMSTEAD

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—A progressive desertion of the New Deal by the younger generation of American voters was pictured here today by George Olmstead of Iowa, national chairman of the Young Republicans' organization.

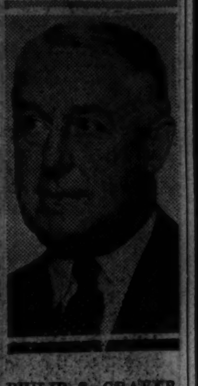
"I find young people generally are turning away from the New Deal," he said, "for in it they are discerning a curtailment of the opportunities which they seek. From it they can foresee an unloading of a monstrous debt for them and their descendants to repay."

Stressing the importance of a "positive" Republican farm program, Olmsted sounded the need "for a sectional consciousness in the great agricultural middle west—a sectional consciousness such as we have been able to observe for so long in the south, in the so-called silver states, and in the east."

Lithograph Concern Head, C. A. Powell Sued by Wife

Claude A. Powell, 808 Kenesaw terrace, president of the Marquette Lithograph company, 730 North Franklin street, was sued for divorce on ground of cruelty and drunkenness in the Superior court yesterday by his wife, Anne, who asks custody of a 5 year old son, alimony, and a property settlement. The bill stated that Powell owns most of the company's stock, that his salary for 1935 was $13,550, and that he is worth $100,000.

PHILIP S. GRAVER MADE MEMBER OF PARK BOARD



PHILIP S. GRAVER.

Philip S. Graver, former south park trustee, was appointed a member of the Chicago park district board yesterday. His selection by Mayor Kelly was confirmed by the council. He succeeds Martin Kennelly, who has resigned.

Mr. Graver, vice president of the Graver Tank and Manufacturing company, was appointed to the south park board in 1922 by a former Republican mayor with whom he had played football on champion Chicago Athletic association teams in 1896 and 1898. It was on the sout hpark board that he became associated with Mayor Kelly, then president of the board.

STOP THAT COLD IN ITS TRACKS!

Let It Not Get a Foothold!

A cold is nothing to "monkey with." It can take hold quickly and develop seriously. Take no chances on inviting dangerous complications. Treat a cold promptly and treat it for what it is—an internal infection. Take a preparation that is internal and one that is expressly for colds and not for a number of other things as well.

A wise thing to take is Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine—for several reasons. Instead of a "cure-all," it is expressly a cold tablet. It is also an internal treatment which a cold, an internal infection, requires. And it does four important things. First, it opens the bowels. Second, it checks the infection in the system. Third, it relieves the headache and fever. Fourth, it tones the system and helps fortify against further attack.

Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine contains nothing harmful and is absolutely safe to take. For more than forty years it has been the stand-by of thousands in the relief of colds. Every druggist sells Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. Always ask for it by the full name and look for the letters L B Q stamped on every tablet. The few pennies' cost may save you a lot of trouble.

DOUBLE YOUR MONEY BACK
if it isn't the finest cigarette you ever smoked

LAST OCTOBER we issued a daring challenge to the smokers of the nation. We said, in effect, if the new Double-Mellow Old Golds don't give you a thrill, we'll pay the bill and pay it double.

Never before had such an offer been made on a cigarette. But we made it with our eyes open. The prize crop tobaccos in Double-Mellow Old Golds fully justified this 2 to 1 wager.

For the benefit of those smokers who overlooked this offer, we repeat it again today. Smoke half a pack of Double-Mellow Old Golds. If it isn't the finest smoke you ever tasted ... just mail us the remaining cigarettes and the wrapper, at any time before May 1st, 1936, and we'll send you double the price you paid for the full package .... plus postage.

60 REPUBLICANS READY TO SEEK STATE OFFICES

Growing Anti-New Deal Feeling Spurs Hopes.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Indications yesterday were that there are at least sixty Republicans ready and willing to run for state office this year. Many of them are avowed candidates. Others are permitting the circulation of petitions bearing their names. The rest have said publicly that they were in a receptive mood.

An estimate of the extent of the extreme eagerness of followers of the G. O. P. to follow up their belief that Illinois is anti-New Deal was made possible when the list of candidates invited to appear before the "harmony conference" of members of the Cook county central committee came to an end at noon yesterday.

An Outpouring of "Possibles."

At the final of a series of three daily luncheons held at Henrici's by this group speeches were made by four men considered timber for the two major offices, those of governor and United States senator. Thirteen candidates for secondary office appeared and spoke, four others sent telegrams and the names of still five more were presented as additions to the list.

At the two preceding luncheons thirteen who are considered governorship and senatorship possibilities have recorded their willingness to answer the call of their party. Two active candidates for the governorship were not among those invited. There are a dozen not included in any of these groups who are known to be seeking secondary offices and it is believed the grand total will see further additions before Feb. 8, the first day for filing petitions.

"Wisdom in Numbers"—Deneen.

"Out of numbers should come wisdom," was an utterance of Charles S. Deneen, former United States senator, whose presence at the third of the luncheons yesterday aroused comment because it was his first public appearance in connection with the impending campaign. He had no announcement whether he will go after the senatorship nomination, but his speaking, even in a general way, was taken as an indication that he may hook up later with the allies now in the conference.

That possibility is one that will be considered by the allies—now acknowledging the leadership of Eden T. Brekke, committeeman from the 36th ward—when they meet in executive session today to start setting up a definite state and county program.

G. O. P. Women Meet Today.

The luncheons were terminated, at least temporarily, by the announcement that the second floor of the Randolph street restaurant where they have been held is engaged today for a luncheon of Republican women in honor of Mrs. Bertha Baur, Republican national committeewoman. But it was known that the leaders of the group felt it was time for them to get down to work more arduous than listening to candidates.

Those in addition to former Senator Deneen who appeared at the third luncheon were Chauncey McCormick, who also has been urged to run for the senatorship, and two aspirants for the governorship, Ald. John A. Massen of Chicago, who has been discussed as a possible compromise candidate, and George W. Dowell of Duquoin, who has announced himself.

Chauncey McCormick Appears.

In an informal talk, Chauncey McCormick said he was not a candidate for any office, being ready to "serve and not seek," but he spoke of the office of congressman at large in a way that was construed to mean that he will consider running for it.

Massen said he did not appear as a candidate, but he spoke of the need of the revision of the state revenue laws and retrenchment in state expenditures. Dowell, who has been attorney for the Progressive Mine Workers' union, said he intended to remain in the governorship race until the primary.

Brooks' Strength Grows.

At the Hotel La Salle headquarters of Wayland Brooks, whose candidacy for the governorship, sponsored by George F. Harding, was indorsed last week by twenty-eight members of the county committee, it was announced that John Mackler, of Chicago Heights, committeeman for the First country towns district, had signed up during the day.

This gives the Brooks forces a voting power of 200,054 in the county committee. A majority is 193,064. The total calculated for the committeemen who have appeared or have been represented at the Henrici meetings is 172,698. Three committeemen have not taken sides, at least publicly.

INVESTIGATE MYSTERY DEATH.

Irving Park police yesterday began an investigation into the death of Raymond Kowalski, 26 years old, 3511 North Oak Park avenue, from a skull fracture in the county hospital. His brother told the police Kowalski might have been injured at a dance he attended Saturday night.

FIND M'KINLEY'S BIRTHDAY OMEN OF G. O. P. VICTORY

Club Members Look Back to '96 Success.

Republican triumphs of years ago were retold yesterday at a reunion luncheon of former members of the old Marquette club and present members of the Hamilton club in celebration of President McKinley's birthday. Born in 1843, President McKinley was assassinated in 1901. The meeting was held at the Hamilton club, 18 South Dearborn street.

The two clubs merged in 1912 after the Marquette club had gained some national prominence through its support of victorious Republicans. In 1888 it energetically advocated the candidacy of Gen. Benjamin Harrison of Indiana for President, and supported Maj. William McKinley of Ohio in his successful campaign for the presidency in 1896.

Loesch Recalls 1899 Visit.

Frank J. Loesch, veteran crime fighter, who was a member of the old club, told of the gala occasion when President McKinley journeyed here from Washington in 1899 to attend a banquet in his honor given by the Marquette club.

"After an eight course dinner and speeches by eight persons," Mr. Loesch related, "President McKinley arose at 12:15 in the morning to make his address. He spoke for an hour and twenty minutes on the tarif problem, and not a man left the room."

Loesch said there was a parallel between 1896, when McKinley was elected to his first term, and 1936.

"Following the Democratic administration of 1892, we were down about as deep then as we are now," Loesch said. "Prosperity returned with McKinley in 1896. Let's hope it will be the same this year."

Tributes to the assassinated President, sent by prominent Republicans throughout the state and nation, were read at the reunion.

Fletcher Recalls 1896.

Among those who sent messages were former Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois and Henry P. Fletcher, chairman of the Republican national committee. Mr. Fletcher's tribute, read by Mrs. Bertha Baur, recalled the campaign of 1896.

"Candidate McKinley said: 'Let us hold fast to what we know is good,'" Fletcher wrote. "'It is not an increase in the volume of money which is the need at the time, but an increase in the volume of business. Not an increase of coin, but an increase of confidence. Not more coinage, but a more active use of money coined. Not open mints for the unlimited coinage of the silver of the world, but open mills for the full and unrestricted labor of American workingmen.'"

BUILDING EMPLOYES OF LANDLORD SMITH THREATEN TO STRIKE

New York, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Alfred E. Smith, landlord, faced repercussion from a new quarter tonight over his Liberty league speech.

It was included in an announcement by leaders of the Union of Building Service Employés that 320 employés of Smith's Empire State building, including elevator operators, would probably strike unless they were returned a 25 per cent wage cut.

"Last Saturday night," declared James J. Bambrick, union chief, "Mr. Smith pleaded the cause of the common people and still refuses to consider the plight of the employés in his own building, who are underpaid."

In the event the strike is called Smith would have to hike up thirty-two floors to his own offices, and in case he decided to get a bit of fresh air on the roof it would require a trek of 102 flights. The Empire State building is the tallest office building in the world.

AL SMITH WANTS REPLY TO SPEECH FROM PRESIDENT

Says Robinson's Answer "Beclouds Issue."

New York, Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Alfred E. Smith today waved aside Senator Joseph T. Robinson's radio answer to his Liberty league dinner speech, and challenged President Roosevelt himself, although he omitted to refer to him directly, to reply to his arraignment of the New Deal.

The former governor, who issued a formal statement through his secretary, expressed pity for his old friend "Joe" Robinson for being placed in the position of having to read off a "canned speech" and attempting to "becloud" the real issue.

Text of Statement.

Mr. Smith's answer follows:

"Poor Joe—I'm sorry for him; they put him on a tough spot. He did the best he knew how, but it was no answer. As I said in my speech at the Liberty league dinner, there is only one man who should try to answer me.

"No, I won't make any reply to what Senator Robinson said, but I will say a few words about my old friend Joe. I was an unhappy warrior to hear him read off a speech over which he stumbled so that I felt sure it was canned and did not come from the heart of the Joe Robinson that I have known.

"Its purpose was to becloud the issue, and while I won't reply to him I want the issue kept clear. Of course I said I was for farm relief. I still am. In my Omaha speech in 1928 I proposed a constitutional and effective method. That doesn't keep American people from rising up to protest against a silly and unconstitutional plan.

Wants Constitution Obeyed.

"Of course I said that in war time we wrapped up the constitution and went under war time powers. That doesn't keep the American people from demanding obedience to the constitution in times of peace.

"Of course I said that I thought there should be a dictator of federal public works with full powers. Federal public works are the proper concern of the federal government. That doesn't keep the American people from protesting against federal interference with the individual lives of our citizens.

"Of course I said government should lend money for relief to the states that needed it. That is what the Democratic platform said. That doesn't keep the American people from denouncing the creation of the greatest federal burocracy this country has ever seen and denouncing a New Deal which has created a pay roll for the federal government that has gone close to 1 billion 500 million dollars a year, not including the army, the navy, the CCC, and the people on relief, and the legislative and judicial branches of the government—just regular expenses."

WPA TO IMPROVE CONVENTION HALL AT PHILADELPHIA

Wonder About Similar Gift for Cleveland.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Mayor S. Davis Wilson of Philadelphia announced today that Harry L. Hopkins had approved a $1,809,000 works progress allotment for his city, including more than $100,000 for improving its convention hall and nearby streets.

The Democratic national convention will be held there next June. The announcement brought immediate speculation as to whether Cleveland, which will be host to the Republican convention, would receive a similar gift.

Immediate comment from Hopkins was not forthcoming, but in Cincinnati, Jan. 16, he was quoted as saying "We've approved a project to prepare the Cleveland public auditorium for the Republican national convention."

$4,000 for Plumbing.

A search of records indicated today that so far, at least, the only WPA funds alloted for the Cleveland hall consisted of $4,000 announced last June for improvement of the building's plumbing.

In announcing approval of Philadelphia's allotment, Mayor Wilson, a Republican said the program was one of "permanent public improvements," and not chiefly to prepare the city for the convention.

Wilson was accompanied to the conference with Hopkins by Senator Joseph F. Guffey [Dem., Pa.], Albert N. Greenfield, a Republican who is chairman of the city's convention committee, two Democratic representatives and John B. Kelly, Wilson's opponent in the recent mayoralty race.

The specific convention hall allotments were $58,436 for widening the plaza and nearby Vintage avenue, and $5,906 for parking facilities. The city will contribute $11,226 and $4,641, respectively.

Will Paint Floors.

In addition money for painting the floors of the convention hall is included in a $44,448 allotment which also will finance improvements to the Commercial museum. The city is contributing $20,840.

About $500,000 in all was provided for improving public buildings, including, besides the convention hall, $9,753 to pay the entire cost of renovating buildings in the Independence hall group.

Many of the streets included in a $830,576 paving program, to which WPA is contributing $595,576, are in the vicinity of the convention hall or connect it with leading hotels.

APPEAL FOR WAR STRIKE WEIGHED BY METHODISTS

The board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church opened its annual meeting yesterday at the Methodist Book concern, 740 Rush street. Among its first considerations was the appeal of the National Council of Methodist youth for the board to approve a proposed student demonstration, or strike, against war, to be held throughout the country in March or April. The Rev. Hayes Beall, president of the council, presented the cause of the youths. The plea referred to a committee headed by Bishop Edgar Blake of the Detroit area of the church, president of the board of education.

DAISY ROOT'S FATE IN HANDS OF DEATH JURY

Expect Slaying Verdict This Morning.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 29.—(AP)—The trial of pretty Mrs. Daisy Alexander Root for the "jealousy murder" of her husband was given to a jury tonight at 9:55 o'clock, Chicago time, with the state asking a second degree murder conviction.

Judge Phil Wallace gave his instructions to the jury of married men after they had listened to hours of fiery arguments from opposing counsel. He asked that they report or returned a verdict when court convenes tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Reveals State's Desire.

W. T. McLain, district attorney general, revealed for the first time tonight what penalty the state wishes imposed on Mrs. Root for the slaying of Benton Root, 32, son of a Chicago pastor, last Nov. 3, following a night club party at which they quarreled over Root's asserted attentions to Lucille Underwood, red haired "cigaret girl."

Mrs. Root was tried on a first degree murder indictment.

Conviction on a second degree murder charge would carry a penalty of 10 to 20 years in the penitentiary.

In final arguments by attorneys the young widow was assailed as a "cold blooded" slayer and praised as a "poor little woman" who endured seven years of "torture" before shooting her husband in defense of her own life.

Hits Defense Plea.

Answering the plea of A. B. Galloway, defense attorney, that Mrs. Root should be acquitted "in the name of the womanhood of our southland" because her husband was "a seducer of southern womanhood," McLain shouted:

"He says it's okeh for a southern woman to shoot her husband. If you turn her loose a cold blooded murderess will walk down the street."

2,756 Apply for Payment of Taxes Without Penalty

County Treasurer Joseph L. Gill reported last night that 2,756 applications for payment of delinquent taxes by Feb. 1 were made yesterday by property owners. The total of taxes involved, with penalties excluded, is $1,750,000. Of the total, 1,722 were home owners, who will save all accumulated penalties, and 1,034 owners of income producing property, who will save 50 per cent of the penalties.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES
This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief Of Pain

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are one of Nature's chief ways of taking the acids and waste out of the blood. If they don't pass 3 pints a day and so get rid of more than 3 pounds of waste matter, your 15 miles of kidney tubes may need flushing.

If you have trouble with frequent bladder passages with scanty amount which often smart and burn, the 15 miles of kidney tubes may need washing out. This danger signal may be the beginning of nagging backache, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes and dizziness.

Don't wait for serious trouble. Ask your druggist for DOAN'S PILLS, which have been used successfully for over 40 years by millions of people. They give happy relief and will help flush out the 15 miles of kidney tubes. Get DOAN'S PILLS.

Some "Don'ts" for Pile Sufferers

If you are a sufferer from Piles, or some other rectal disorder, read carefully the following list of "don'ts"—prepared by Dr. T. G. McCleary, world known rectal specialist. Don't neglect a well defined rectal ailment and expect it to get well. Don't use an ointment for temporary relief, believing it will produce a permanent cure. Don't wait until your whole system is undermined before you consult a competent rectal specialist. Don't take the grave chance of cancer or some other incurable condition developing before you decide to do what you should do now. Dr. McCleary has prepared a book that describes all rectal conditions and the mild McCleary treatment. It will be sent to you without any obligation.

LANDON SETS UP NEW CODE IN BID FOR PRESIDENCY

Declares Closed Season on Epithets; Gives Facts.

employed and impoverished has not rocked the federal treasury. The rocking has been done by abysmal waste through changes of policy, maladministration, and ruthless partisanship."

And later:

"The emphasis on relief has obscured the fact that employment, not aid, is our larger problem. Employment comes from the common conviction that the American system of representative government is secure. Confidence is far more important than the exploitation of a multiplicity of pretentious plans which do not work."

Points Way for Agriculture.

Turning from relief and social security to the problems of agriculture, Gov. Landon proposed a soil conservation policy "that is not limited in benefits to immediate cash returns, but seeks as well to rebuild the fertility of the soil and meets the problem of flood control." He demanded for agriculture "tarif equality" with industry, and ended his agrarian discussion with the caution that no one remedy will prevail over farm ills.

"There are supplemental factors which would be helpful to the farmer, such as the greater industrial use of farm products, the rebuilding of foreign markets, and last but not least, lower taxes and interest charges. Even more basic would be the expanding home market growing out of restored confidence in our future."

Urges Campaign "Be Fair."

It was then that Gov. Landon put forward the rules which he believes should govern intelligent political discussion.

"In my opinion," he said, "the policy of condemning everything the opposition party does never has produced better government. Nor am I one of those who believe that the Republican party has a corner on patriotism and intelligence. We should go into the campaign prepared to be as fair in conceding the good points of the opposition as we are courageous to point out what we consider its errors."

Then he paid his respects to name callers on the Democratic side of the fight.

"Unfortunately now, as always, there are people today calling themselves liberal who regard any suggestion of economy as reactionary. They seem to think that willingness to throw other people's money around is a peculiar sign of a pure heart.

Toilers Must Pay Debts.

"They show too little consideration for the toil which millions of American men and women will have to undergo to pay off the debt so gayly incurred. Those in power responsible for this reckless extravagance are not liberals. They are more nearly benighted reactionaries."

Nowhere in Gov. Landon's speech did there appear a definite declaration of his intention to seek the nomination. That, of course, was not necessary. The Kansas state committee put him in the race early in the day with a formal resolution offering him to the party as a candidate for the highest office in the nation.

Gov. Landon probably will not embark on any national speaking tours, nor enter preferential primaries in all of the states where they exist.

Will Maintain His Record.

The first action is dictated by his desire to keep up the record which is his principal recommendation to voters at present—his administration of the state of Kansas. The second, of course, is merely political strategy on the part of his advisors, anxious to avoid defeats in states at present more friendly to other candidates.

The resolution offering Gov. Landon to the nation was passed by unanimous vote when State Chairman Will T. Beck put the question to members of the state Republican committee. The committee's action climaxed resolutions by Republican women, Republican war veterans, and other intraparty organizations which extoled the record of Alf Landon as governor of Kansas and urged that the voters of the nation promote him to Washington.

Adopted in Historic Setting.

Offered by Jay Scoville of Independence, Kas., fellow townsman of the governor, the resolution stated:

"We commend Gov. Alf M. Landon to the nation as a candidate for the Republican nomination for President of the United States and pledge him the hearty support not only of each member of this committee but of all Republicans of the state of Kansas."

The resolution was passed in the great hall across from the state capitol which commemorates the services of Kansans in the civil war. A portrait of Abraham Lincoln, for whom Kansas cast its first presidential vote, in 1864, looked down on the delegates as they voted.

"Gift of Common Sense."

"Gov. Landon's term of office has covered the most difficult years in the history of our state and the nation," stated the resolution. "Problems of the most perplexing character and of varying kinds have been presented to him.

"In the solving of these questions he has brought into play a rare combination of business judgment, a sympathetic understanding of the powers of government, and the needs and abilities of our people, together with a rare gift of common sense.

"It is our belief that the qualities shown by Gov. Landon are those which are most sorely needed at this time in the affairs of the national government and eminently fit him as the Republican candidate for President of the United States."

Text of Gov. Landon's Speech Before Republican Kansas Day Diners

Topeka, Kas., Jan. 29.—(AP)—The text of Gov. Alf M. Landon's Kansas day address here tonight follows:

"Seventy-five years ago today Kansas was born out of a mighty struggle for human liberty. We gather tonight to honor the memory of those who won that fight. Rather than attempt to heap praise upon them, let us take a lesson from their accomplishments.

"After all, experience is still the greatest teacher. From thousands of prairie firesides is handed down this homely warning: 'Change does not necessarily mean progress. A social philosophy is not always bad because it is old, nor good because it is merely new.'

"In the progress of human rights the road has not been continuously upward. It has not followed a straight course in the best direction. Rather, there has been a general rise with ups and downs depending upon the composite wisdom of the people. There have been curves and detours along the way where some have wandered off after false gods.

Stresses Homely Virtues.

"As did the pioneers, we always must keep alive the inner fire of individual conscience. We must subordinate material rewards and enthrone the things of the spirit. We need emphasis on common honesty, character, and devotion to principle.

"It is fitting that a celebration of the admission of Kansas to the Union should evoke thoughts about constitutions. Our forefathers had a passion for self-government as a corollary to the individual right of self-determination. That is not a Kansas ideal alone, but an American ideal. Through this yerning for orderly national existence, security, and individual liberty has come the written covenant we term the constitution of the United States.

"It is the militant manifestation of great spiritual force. These ancient rights only remain safe today as the constitution stays written in our hearts. The people have been bound to their government by the sacred tie of voluntary devotion.

150 YEARS' SERVICE

"But today there are powerful forces trying to convince our people that the constitution is not their charter of human liberties. Should these forces prevail, the American government then becomes a source of oppression such as now afflicts various other peoples throughout the world.

"A government is free in proportion to the rights it guarantees to the minority. The constitution was not framed to give us anything, but to protect inherent rights we already possessed. It was framed to protect minorities against a government momentarily controled by impulsive majorities.

"For a century and a half the constitution has protected American citizens against such oppression. Against repeated onslaught it has preserved the right of trial by jury; it has been the safeguard of the American home and of churches in their most sacred right of religious freedom; it has protected the freedom of the press; it has safeguarded individuals in their right of free speech, and it has been the guarantee of the right to conduct lawful personal affairs without interference by meddling burocracy.

"Balance Wheel of Progress."

"This, fellow citizens, is the constitution which was established to make the United States a sanctuary for every honest individual and every honest interest.

"Let me make this emphatic, the constitution of the United States is not an obstacle to progress. It is the balance wheel of progress. No flaunting of the constitution, whether by executive evasion, loose legislation, or insidious propaganda, can destroy our safeguard so long as courage and common sense are cherished in the hearts of the American people.

"As we assemble to celebrate the diamond jubilee of our state, we are conscious that we confront in the next national election the most fateful decisions of our generation. Deceiving words and luring phrases may cloud the issues, but they cannot hide them.

"A nation will survive to correct its political mistakes. But if an unsound financial program is coupled with them the nation faces destruction. We have seen appalling waste and extravagance. We are exhausting our capital on useless projects which advance us no farther on our way.

BUDGET DANGER SIGN

"The budget proposed for the next fiscal period by the nation's chief executive is the final grim proof of the financial vortex into which we are being drawn. Its prediction of a deficit of only a billion is delusive. Considering the admitted needs for relief and other realities, the period undoubtedly will end with a deficit greater than those of each preceding year of this administration. Bookkeeping tricks may be used, but the huge deficit will remain.

"Despite promises of a 25 per cent reduction in federal expenditure, federal expenditures continue steadily to rise. It is true economic conditions have improved as they do after every depression. That has been reflected in great increases in federal income.

"They have not, however, been able to match the increases in spending, thus repudiating the assurances of the budget messages of three and two years ago. The gap between income and outgo steadily widens. The billions on billions already added to the national debt are in themselves dangerous. They are doubly dangerous as an invitation to even wilder dissipation of our resources.

Money Taken from Needy.

"It has been said that the demands for relief have imperiled our federal finances. That is only a half truth. The money actually reaching the unemployed and impoverished has not rocked the treasury. The rocking has been done by abysmal waste through changes of policy, maladministration and ruthless partisanship. Relief appropriations have been more than ample, but all too many on relief and work projects have been denied adequate aid because burocracy has eaten up too much of the funds intended for relief. We need desperately a cheaper, simpler and more responsible relief administration throughout the Union.

"Taking at their face value the solemn promises of the administration that politics would be kept out of all relief activities, I continued the relief organization of my distinguished Democratic predecessor. Here in Kansas we thought differences over methods could only injure the deserving. So we accepted what was offered and made an administrative success of federal plans equaled by few other states. The records will show that no state coöperated more fully with the Federal Relief administration than Kansas.

Victory for Spoilsmen.

"With passage of the five billion dollar relief bill, however, came the melancholy discovery that a nonpolitical administration of relief was not intended. The WPA was organized so that relief might be handled in familiar 'pork barrel' fashion. It has permitted a party machine to spend the greatest peace time fund in all human history. Our people are disappointed and amazed. They realize now that the promise to make human needs the sole guide for action has been broken. Victory is in the hands of the party spoilsmen.

"Nonpolitical relief administrators have been forced out. Citizens have poured the evidences of intolerable conditions upon Washington. The only result has been loss of poise and a resort to abuse by the administration and its spokesmen who take the undemocratic attitude that all criticism is abuse and that all who do not agree have base motives and selfish purposes. They seem to forget that true democracy thrives on honest criticism.

ASSAILS "SHIFTING"

"With some of the avowed objectives of those in Washington no right thinking person can quarrel. But there has been a constant shifting back and forth in decisions. Utterly wasteful policies have prevailed. There has been too great an attempt to pass off just criticism of the administration of relief by branding the critics hard hearted persons who propose to let every one starve. Epithets, evasions, and sophistries do not answer.

"If there is any place more than another where common sense in government is needed, it is in the relief problem. Although many millions of our people still depend on relief and the outpouring of billions is greater than ever, I do not believe that the problems presented are insurmountable in this land of potential plenty.

"No good American wants any of his fellow citizens to be hungry, much less starve. But if there is to be no hunger it is imperative that the administration of relief be purged of waste and partisanship.

Work Is Vital Problem.

"The emphasis on relief has obscured the fact that employment, not aid, is our larger problem. The clinching proof of the New Deal's failure is that almost as many persons are out of work today as there were when it first set up shop in 1933.

"The key to real stability is not boondoggling, but permanent jobs with the laborer worthy of his hire. Theories will not produce them, nor can unemployment be made to vanish overnight. 'Help wanted' signs will blossom out of restored confidence in the nation's finances.

"Work for those who want it comes from the assurance to business and industry that they may plan wisely for the future. Employment comes from the common conviction that the American system of representative government is secure. Confidence is far more important than the exploitation of a multiplicity of pretentious plans which do not work.

Legacy of Machine Age.

"History and experience alike teach us that 'government is protection.' When it ceases to protect it ceases to be government. As a nation we have begun to protect childhood, but the obligation to protect old age lies straight before us. This obligation is the legacy from the machine age in which we live. It is an essential part of the unemployment problem of a great industrial civilization.

"The hope that we will deal with our unemployment problem successfully lies in the fact that the hardships and suffering of the depression have made us conscious of certain defects in our society brought about by the rapid growth in our industrial structure.

"We are aware that we must make our just contributions to solution of the problems of the times. Each generation in turn has its own problems to solve for posterity. No age has escaped this inspiring responsibility. If such there were, then that was an age of stagnation.

NATIONAL PROBLEM

"Our problem of unemployment will not be solved by rabid partisanship on the one hand or wishful thinking on the other. We may differ as to methods and procedure, but there can be no difference as to the imperative necessity for a solution.

"Fundamentally we always must keep in mind the answer we seek is not based alone on the query, 'Am I my brother's keeper?' The solution rests on considering it in a major sense from the viewpoint of a problem created by the rapid development of our industrial machine.

"The problem is national in scope and should be solved on a national basis. This involves the most careful consideration of the limitations of the federal and state constitutions.

"Solving this problem of unemployment and old age pensions is both humane and economic and we shall solve it in spite of our past neglect and recent well intended but utterly unworkable, hastily thrown together, makeshift legislation.

"We have witnessed burocratic agencies vying one with the other in efforts to excel in experimentation. Fuzzy-thinking and unorderly procedure have characterized the manner in which all of the goals have been approached. There have been confusion, reversal of policies, haphazard administration, bickering, and repeated delay.

Urges Recovery as Best Reform.

"There is much discussion whether reform of our social and economic system should go before recovery or whether recovery should precede reform. My answer is that the greatest reform that we could have is recovery. We are going to be many years unscrambling the eggs cooked up by the kitchen cabinet of this administration. One of the greatest failures of these cooks was that they were unable to tell the bad eggs from the good. The result has been indigestion for all of us.

"It is necessary for all of us who are concerned with agriculture's welfare—and every American ought to be—to work together in the development of a program that will be both sound and legal. And I have faith that we shall develop such measures and the courage to put them into effect.

"The problem of agriculture certainly must be approached on a nonpartisan basis. No one can justify any attempt to make political capital out of the national anxiety for effective solution of the agricultural problem.

Farm Fertility Exhausted.

"Solutions are not devised as easily as a magician produces an egg from his mouth. Low prices for farm products and increasing interest and taxes have forced too many farmers to exhaust their soil. Farmers have realized this, but under economic pressure for cash crops have been unable to do anything about it.

"Low prices have been caused by the practical loss of the farm markets, both domestic and foreign. Of the markets, the domestic market always has been far more important for our farmers.

"But even in the case of the major cash crops, on which a surplus has been produced, our domestic farm prices have been fixed largely by the prices bid by our foreign purchasers. In other words, the surplus has set the price for the whole crop.

"The proper application of soil conservation principles would help materially to prevent the production of such price depressing surpluses. As I repeatedly have said, it should be possible to develop a national program of soil conservation on the more than 65 per cent of the nation's crop land which already has begun to lose its food producing value.

LINKED TO FLOOD CONTROL

"Equally impressed with the public interest is the problem of flood control. Flood control fits right in with the soil program. According to government studies, a sound national conservation program in itself would reduce the damage from floods 25 per cent.

"The situation today emphasizes the urgent need for a sound national land use policy. Our soil must not be exhausted by wasteful methods.

"The farmer is entitled to expect for his crop a fair price comparable to the price of the commodities he buys. A policy that is not limited in its benefits to immediate cash returns, but seeks as well to rebuild the fertility of the soil and meets the problem of flood control, also is impressed with national interest and entitled to national support.

"I am advised from reliable sources that the costs of about 200 items the farmer has to buy are increased about one-fourth by operation of the tarif. Because the farmer has been forced to sell on the world market, is he not entitled to some countervailing provisions, to some compensating tarif equivalent, in order that he may receive an equal benefit?

Urges Tarif Equality.

"The purpose of the tarif is to protect workers and industry from the cheap competition of foreign labor. The farmer should be given this same protection.

"Is it any wonder that the immediate concern of agriculture is tarif equality with the other groups comprising this nation? There are supplemental factors which would be helpful to the farmer, such as the greater industrial use of farm products, the rebuilding of foreign markets, and last but not least, lower taxes and interest charges. Even more basic would be an expanding home market growing out of restored confidence in our future.

"There is no single solution of the farm problem. The perplexity in one part of the country is not always the same as the problem in other parts. A well rounded farm policy must take note of agriculture as a whole. The extensive experience of these latter years should make it possible to develop workable measures which will be better than any heretofore tried.

"Kansas from the first coöperated with much of the federal emergency program. We felt that improved conditions were of greater consequence than any partisan considerations. In my judgment, the policy of condemning everything the opposition party does never has produced better government.

Disclaims Patriotic Corner.

"Nor am I one of those who believes that the Republican party has a corner on patriotism and intelligence. We should go into the campaign prepared to be as fair in conceding the good points of the opposition as we are courageous to point out what we consider its errors. But I do condemn half baked legislation, maladministration and the dangerous short cuts to permanent change attempted in the name of emergency.

"The administration has presented no permanent solution of our major problems. On the contrary, it has created many new problems and its gross overcentralization of power reflects either ignorance or indifference in regard to our federal system of government. All this in my judgment is actually delaying the return of prosperity.

"Unfortunately, now as always, there are people today calling themselves liberal who regard any suggestion of economy as reactionary. They seem to think willingness to throw other people's money around without any cnsideration of value received is a peculiar sign of a pure heart. They show too little consideration for the toil which millions of American men and women will have to undergo in order to pay off the debt so gayly incurred.

TAX FOURTH OF INCOME

"Already the average family spends one-fourth of its income for taxes, whether the family knows it or not. It will take much more than that to pay the bill which political wasters have contracted in the American people's name.

"Those in power responsible for this reckless extravagance are not liberals. They are more nearly benighted reactionaries.

"When the record of the administration is challenged their only answer is, 'What would you do?' That begs the question. Their program not only is ineffective, it is destructive of the American system. In the face of that fact, no reasonable citizen should ask us what to do. The American people propose to solve their problems under the American system.

Seek Sane Middle Ground.

"Nor is the cry of 'Tory' sufficient answer to those who question their delusions. If I know my fellow Kansans, and they are a good cross section of America, they do not approve anything smacking of a return to a system of exploitation of the many by the few. Nor do they want to go floating aloft in a stratospheric balloon of unkept promises.

"They think the alphabet has been overworked. They believe it is time to use simple addition and subtraction. They want neither reaction on the one hand nor radicalism on the other.

"Let those who insist on the alphabet remember that America was built by energy, ambition, and enthusiasm, by courage, character, and common sense.

"The choice ahead of the American people is not whether to keep on with the mistakes of the so-called New Deal or return to the mistakes of the old order. The old order belongs to the past, but sound American principles persist. The hands of the clock of political destiny move forward, not backward. But they must turn at a steady, orderly pace. We have had too much palaver about old deals and new. Performance, to me, counts for more than phrases.

Court Decisions Help.

"The action of the Supreme court in cutting away some of the errors in recent national legislation has given a healthful impetus to our entire economic life. The months following the voiding of the NRA registered America's most marked upturn since the depression. In contrast, the four months following the passage of that act were marked by a drop in industrial production and employment equalled only by our greatest panics of the past.

"What our nation really needs today is better housekeeping. Our women could show the way. They have had more successful experience than any political spendthrift in getting full abundance out of living and in managing to put by something for a rainy day.

"Kansas has tried to do this kind of housekeeping.

"Through the coöperation of her officials, from the smallest political subdivisions to the statehouse, Kansas has succeeded to a conspicuous degree.

CUTS TAXES 32 PER CENT

"Since 1929 Kansas property taxes have been reduced 32 per cent. The per capita cost of state and local government has been cut $19, or 26 per cent. Total revenues for state and local purposes in 1934 were 24 per cent less than in 1932. Yet, while these tax reductions were being made, counties and municipalities reduced their bonded debt by $17,000,000, or 12 per cent, during the period from 1932 to 1934.

"The credit, as I repeatedly have said, does not belong to any one political party or state administration, but to thousands of local officials all over Kansas. Savings were not made by skimping of necessary services or dodging new responsibilities of relief.

"Throughout 1933 and 1934, according to the report of the Federal Relief administration, 30.6 per cent of the relief burden in Kansas was financed from nonfederal funds. On this basis Kansas ranked fifteenth among all the states. Contrast this record to that of fourteen states which spent less than 10 per cent of nonfederal funds for relief.

Assails New Deal Burocracy.

"The time has come for a direct attack on the attempt at Washington to substitute a tax eating burocracy for liberal democratic system. Business recovery offers more promise of employment than a thousand wildcat schemes. The return of fruitful productivity in the United States will be directly translated into higher living standards for us all.

"There must be a revival of confidence in national credit, confidence in soundness of the dollar, confidence in the government at Washington. These guarantee the perpetuity of our American system of democracy, and under that guarantee will come a flood tide of recovery.

"The good wheat must be separated from the great stack of New Deal chaff. This requires wise and effective administration, free from partisan bias. The hysterical tone of government must be eliminated. Our high officials must think with their minds rather than with their emotions.

SPOILS SYSTEM MUST GO

"The times demand economy and efficiency so that the regular and extraordinary services of government can be fully performed without threatening a mighty people with national bankruptcy. We must build a new and better civil service that will fill government positions with trained, trustworthy, and capable employés, and offer to our youth a career in public service based on merit and qualifications for the job.

"The political spoils system and the spoilsmen responsible for it must go in the interest of economy and efficiency.

"There never was a time when government so needed factual information and expert trained service. We must not allow our rising prejudice against mere experimentation to blind us to this fact. Here in Kansas we have found that a research department to collect facts—not to administer theories—is of the greatest importance and aid to members of the legislature and to the chief executive of the commonwealth as well.

Outlines a Platform.

"We are still in the throes of personal government. Only a government of laws, not men, can rescue us from this plight. A mere change in officials in Washington will not suffice. The next national platform of the Republican party should be a straightforward declaration that will set forth the careful thought and serious convictions not of one person but of many. Behind that platform must be an honest intention to redeem its pledges, not to throw it on the junk pile the day after election.

"With a renewed confidence and a reaffirmation of faith, let us turn from an un-American doctrin of division and classes. As a united people, common in our hopes as in our purposes, we shall move forward to that greater destiny which is our just heritage."

What Landon Said About Issues

Topeka, Kas., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Here, in brief, is what Gov. Alf M. Landon said tonight, in his Kansas day address, about national subjects and issues:

THE CONSTITUTION.

Powerful forces are trying to convince the people the constitution is not their charter of human liberties. Should they succeed, the government would become a source of oppression. The constitution is not an obstacle to progress—it is the balance wheel of progress.

POLITICAL CAMPAIGN.

NATIONAL FINANCES.

A nation will survive to correct its political mistakes. If an unsound financial program is coupled with such mistakes, however, the nation faces destruction.

RELIEF.

The country needs a cheaper, simpler, more responsible relief administration. Politics has entered in. Many needy have gone without adequate aid because of the relief funds going to administration. Hence, if there is to be no hunger, the relief administration must be purged of waste and politics.

OLD AGE PENSIONS.

Protection of childhood has been started. The obligation to protect old age still lies ahead. The problem of unemployment and old age pensions shall be solved in spite of past neglect and despite recent well meant but unworkable makeshift legislation.

FARM PROGRAM.

First of all the program must be sound, legal, and on a nonpartisan basis. Soil conservation principles, flood control, a sound national land use policy, and tarif protection on a basis of equality with industry are prime points.

NEW DEAL RECORD.

Instead of effecting permanent solution of major problems, the administration has created new problems. This delays recovery. Instead of accepting criticism, New Dealers resent it—imputing false motives to critics.

SUPREME COURT.

The court's outlawing of certain measures has proved a boon to the nation's economic life. Business picked up after the invalidating of NRA. It had fallen off after NRA's passage.

CIVIL SERVICE.

A new and better service must be built, more trained employés installed, merit and qualifications recognized. The spoils system must go.

"We Agree, Judge Green!"

■ We believe, too, that if every driver could see, as Judge Green sees, the grim realities of automobile accidents, there would be less reckless driving. Automobile accidents today take a toll worse than war. Only about 245,000 Americans were killed in all of the wars of the United States since 1776. Yet nearly 400,000 Americans have been killed since 1920 in the great peacetime war with automobile accidents!

■ Under conditions that exist today, we urge that every Chicago car owner ought to have full coverage insurance on his car, such as Chicago Lloyds offers in one convenient policy, a policy that protects you against

LIABILITY FOR PERSONAL INJURY • COLLISION • PROPERTY DAMAGE FIRE • THEFT
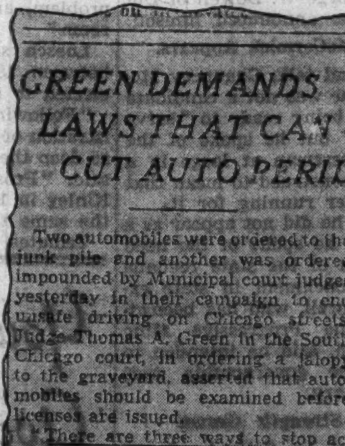
and the other minor hazards of driving

■ And you can save money on your automobile insurance, too, because Chicago Lloyds accepts only the preferred risks. That means preferential rates—rates based on the careful, cautious driver, not on the reckless driver. With such a policy on your car, and a determination on your part to drive carefully, you're doing all you can to make the streets safe for yourself, your dependents and the always present Unknown Innocent Victim.

"Lloyds Is the Best Policy"



GREEN DEMANDS LAWS THAT CAN CUT AUTO PERIL

Two automobiles were ordered to the junk pile and another was ordered impounded by Municipal court judges yesterday in their campaign to end unsafe driving on Chicago streets. Judge Thomas A. Green in the South Chicago court, in ordering a jalopy to the graveyard, asserted that automobiles should be examined before licenses are issued.

"There are three ways to stop accidents," he said. "First, automobiles should be examined before licenses are issued; second, the driver should be licensed, and third, every automobile should be covered by liability insurance."

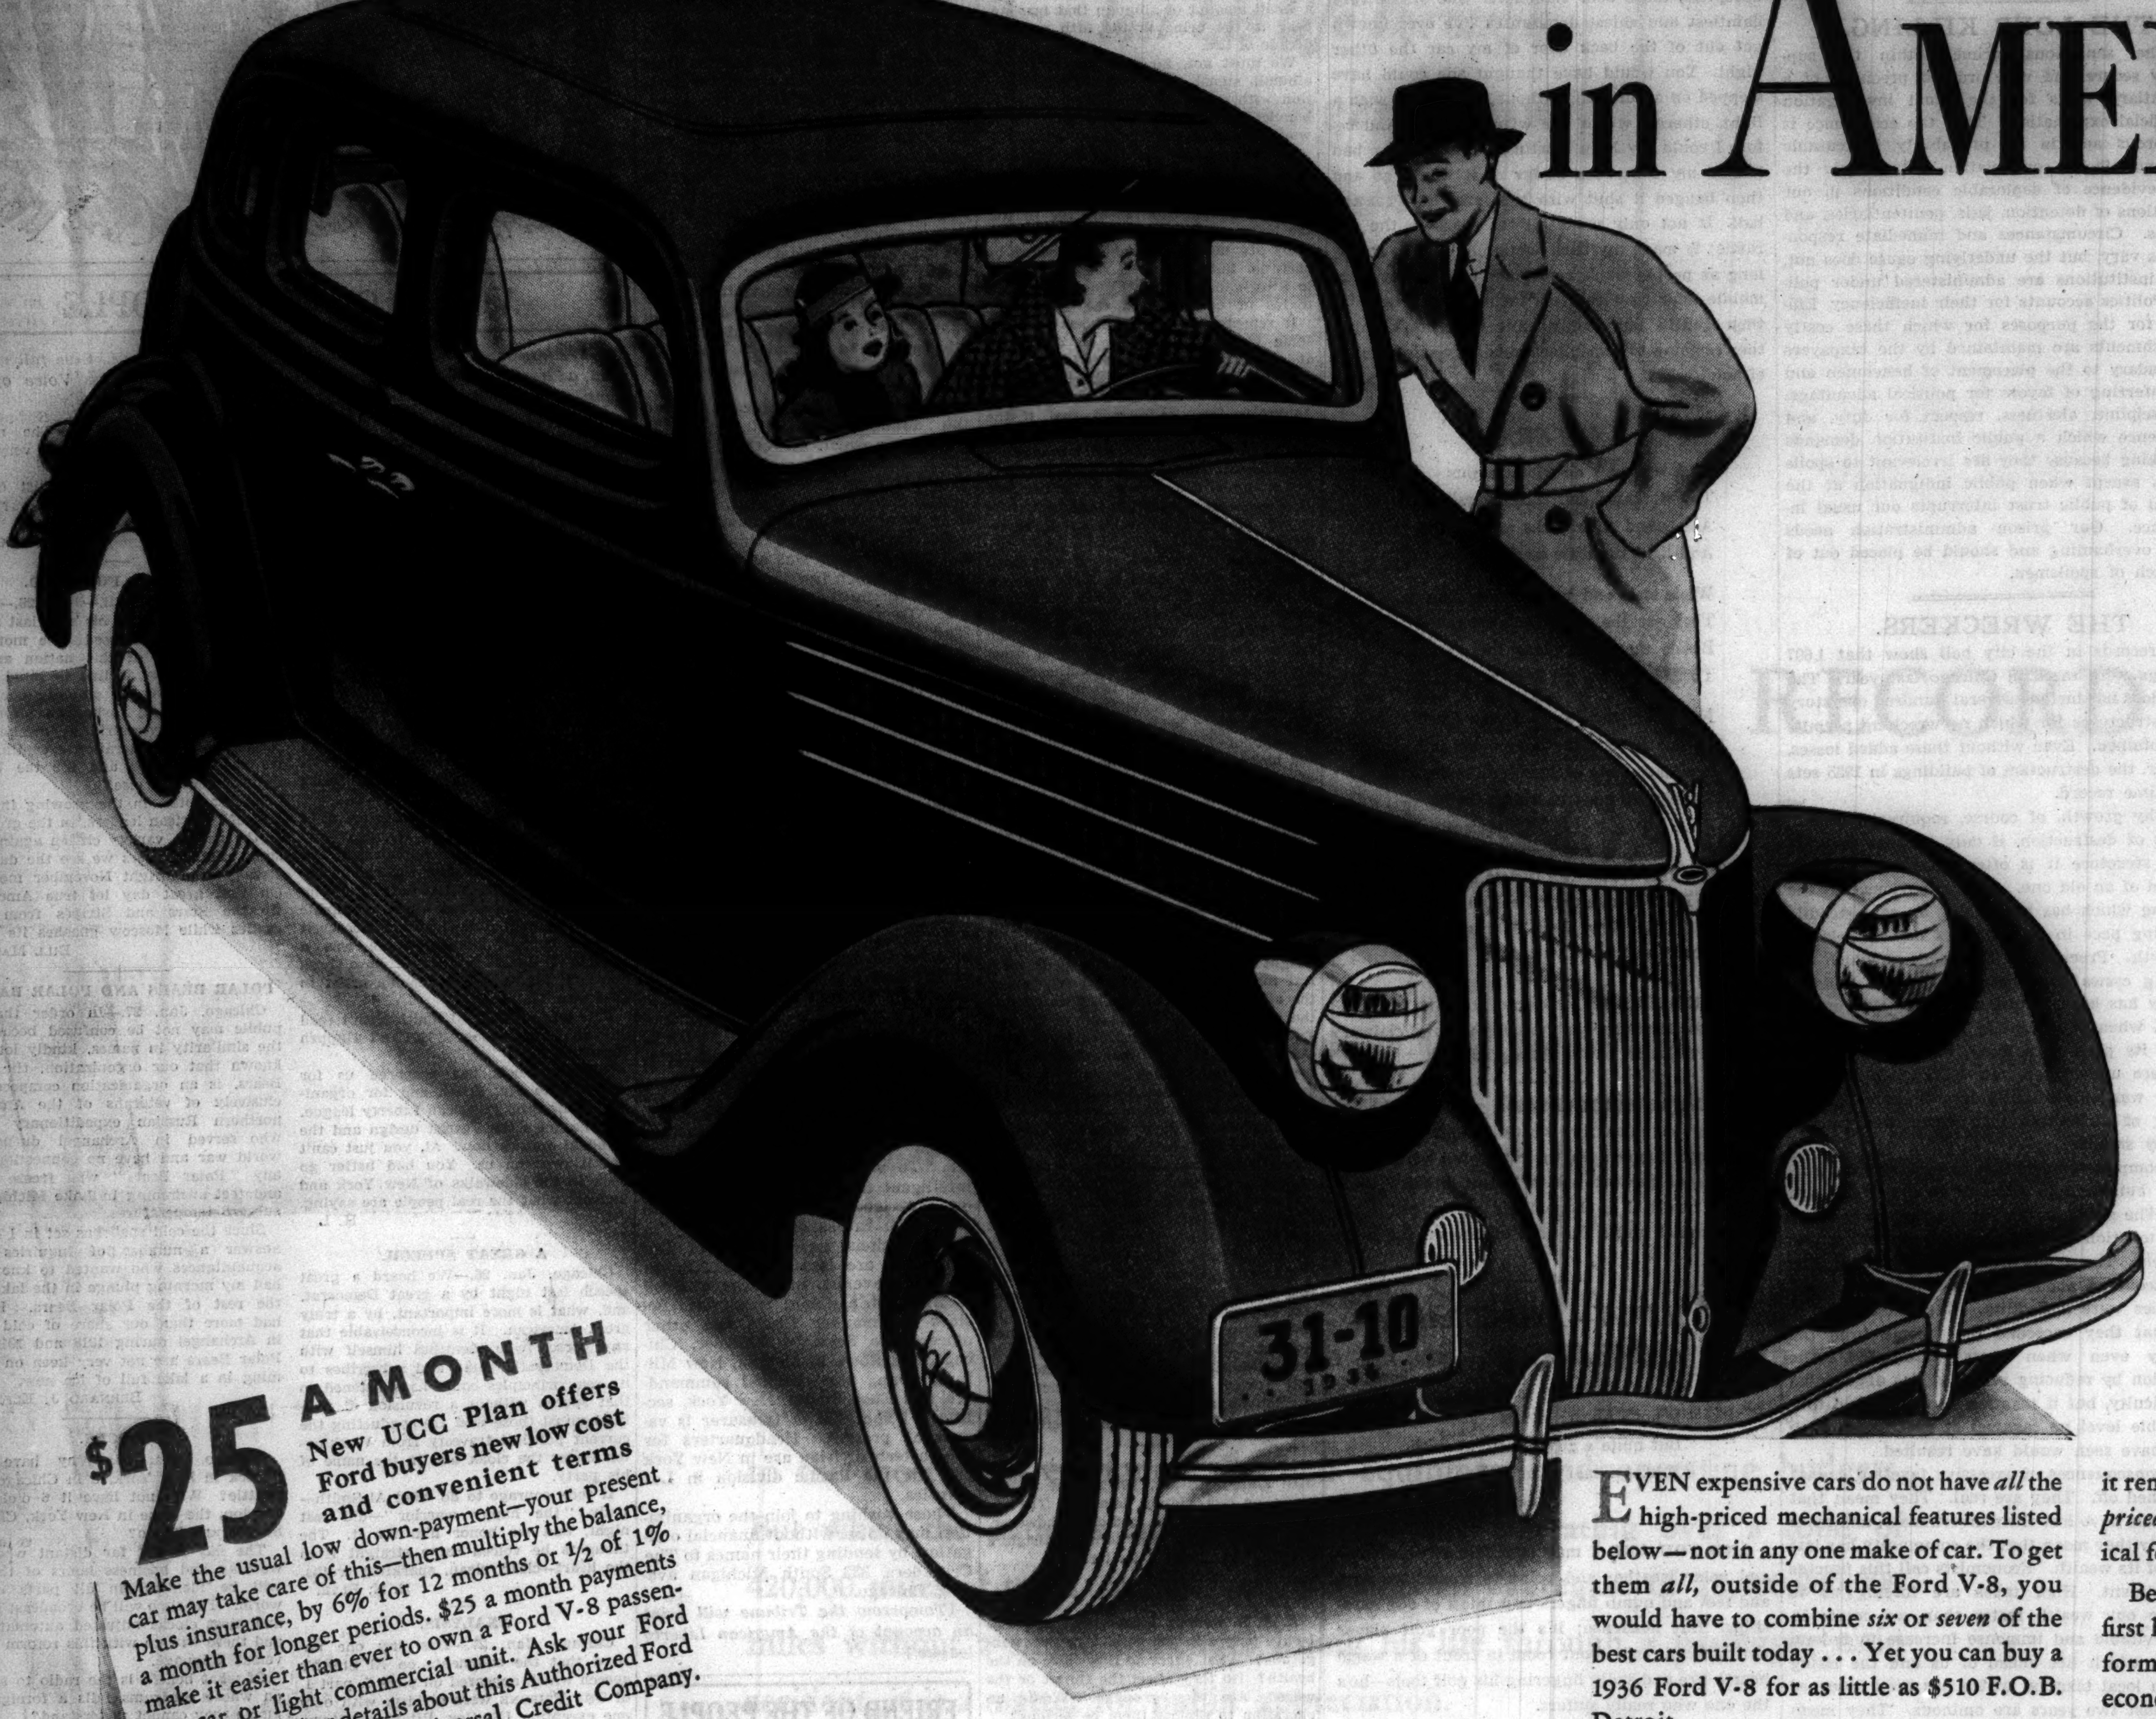
The Most UNDERPRICED CAR in AMERICA!



$25 A MONTH

New UCC Plan offers Ford buyers new low cost and convenient terms

Make the usual low down-payment—your present car may take care of this—then multiply the balance, plus insurance, by 6% for 12 months or ½ of 1% a month for longer periods. $25 a month payments make it easier than ever to own a Ford V-8 passenger car or light commercial unit. Ask your Ford dealer for further details about this Authorized Ford Finance Plan of the Universal Credit Company.

EVEN expensive cars do not have all the high-priced mechanical features listed below—not in any one make of car. To get them all, outside of the Ford V-8, you would have to combine six or seven of the best cars built today . . . Yet you can buy a 1936 Ford V-8 for as little as $510 F.O.B. Detroit.

That's why, without even considering the beauty and riding comfort of the 1936 Ford V-8 or the low cost of Ford upkeep, it remains a fact that here is the most underpriced car in America . . . judged on mechanical features alone.

Before you choose any 1936 car, learn at first hand what these features mean in performance, in comfort and in long-term economy . . . See your nearest Ford dealer.

THE LIVING REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

Mr. Borah's speech was one of counsel from an elder statesman to the party with which in a long public life he has remained associated. He has disagreed with its management and disliked some of its methods at times. So have many other Republicans. Historically the party in national crisis has served the best interests of the country. It has been reliable when the need was great and has been rewarded by the voters, being given long periods of administration.

In politics use sometimes tends to abuse. When the Republican party has lost popular confidence and favor it has been turned out. When resentment has turned to regret the party is returned to power. It would seem that such a cyclic period is about to be rounded out, but, as Mr. Borah noted, the Republican party was pounded almost to pieces by its defeats of recent years. Its prospects are good, its procedure is uncertain.

As its record stands it defeated the effort of the Democratic south to divide the nation, it fostered the industrial growth of the country, it defeated Bryan's attempt to debase the currency, it was equal to the new responsibilities thrown upon the country by the developments after the war with Spain, it defeated Wilsonian internationalism and now it faces the Roosevelt collectivism.

The party was born to deal with a rebellion. Its duty now is to deal with a revolution. Its new Lincoln is not in sight, but the real Lincoln was not known when the party needed him. He was discovered by the need and developed by the crisis. Fortunately it will not be required of the party that it give the country at this time another figure for all ages, although the man who as President succeeds in getting the United States off the rocks and back in safe water may appear in tremendous stature to generations to come.

Mr. Borah's admonition to the party is to put its convention and nomination above reproach. He is himself a candidate, but he is not speaking in self-advancement. No candidate in the country can properly foreclose the deliberations of the convention in favor of himself. None can do his party or his country an advantage by a selfish or unscrupulous promotion of himself and it is to be hoped that he can do himself no good.

There will be differences of opinion as to men and measures to be reconciled honestly and harmoniously in the convention. That will be an obligation upon the highest minded men in the party. Upon the fundamentals there is no room for compromise. Mr. Borah spoke of a living platform. It will live in its reaffirmations of the American principles which until 1933 no one dreamed would be attacked by a government in Washington.

Strange evils have befallen America. Who could have thought that a declaration of the American bills of rights, of American privileges and immunities, of American limitations on autocracy and restraints of overreaching authority would be as important in 1936 as it was when America was created as the free nation of the world?

That is the living Republican platform. Without it and without its success there will be no other questions to discuss. Edicts will take the place of discussion.

NEW STREET CARS.

While the seeming unwillingness of the Chicago Surface Lines to coöperate with Mayor Kelly and the city council in framing a coördinated traction plan for the city is undoubtedly exasperating, that feature should not be confused with the issue raised by the surface lines in seeking permission to purchase eighty-three new street cars. The two questions are not interrelated in the financial setup and each, therefore, should be considered independently.

Urban transportation has changed radically since the last street car franchise was granted. The new and active automotive industry has placed the gasoline bus in the field to raise the question as to the superiority of these flexible vehicles. This competing element, however, has had its effect on the street car industry, which is now ready with an entirely new type to replace the trolley cars now in service. It has superior acceleration, speed, comfort, and noiseless qualities.

But no metropolitan area has adopted this modern equipment and the public is unable to appraise its value. Experiment is necessary, which the surface lines are willing to make on a single service—Madison street. Why not permit them to do so? The Chicago Motor Coach company has been allowed to modernize a substantial part of its rolling stock.

After all, in the bargain that is to be made between the city and the traction interests Chicago will insist on full value received for the use of the city streets. Will that "value received" assume the form of service in the present outmoded cars? Certainly not. Then what? That question as well as the determination of the superiority or otherwise of bus service can only be decided by a demonstration with the modernized equipment, relatively few samples of which the surface lines now wish to purchase.

Common sense would appear to dictate that the city should not oppose the efforts of the surface lines to show what they can do. The position of the city will in no way be weakened by the transfer of one and one-half millions from the nineteen million dollar equipment fund to actual property. The valuation remains unchanged.

THE LOEB KILLING.

Another sensational crime within the supposedly secure and well ordered precincts of a penitentiary waits for the usual investigation and official explanation. That the occurrence is malodorous and in all probability inexcusable needs no official confirmation. It is only the latest evidence of deplorable conditions in our institutions of detention, jails, penitentiaries, and asylums. Circumstances and immediate responsibilities vary, but the underlying cause does not. These institutions are administered under politics. Politics accounts for their inefficiency. Efficiency for the purposes for which these costly establishments are maintained by the taxpayers is secondary to the placement of henchmen and the conferring of favors for political advantage. The discipline, alertness, respect for duty, and competence which a public institution demands are lacking because they are irrelevant to spoils politics, except when public indignation at the betrayal of public trust interrupts our usual indifference. Our prison administration needs drastic overhauling and should be placed out of the reach of spoilsmen.

THE WRECKERS.

The records in the city hall show that 1,607 buildings were razed in Chicago last year. The figure does not include several hundred one story frame structures for which no wrecking permits were obtained. Even without these added losses, however, the destruction of buildings in 1935 sets an all-time record.

Healthy growth, of course, requires a certain amount of destruction, if only because to build a new structure it is often necessary to clear the land of an old one. That is obvious, but the wrecking which has been going on at a steadily increasing pace in recent years has no relation to growth. Precisely in the years in which the wrecking crews have been busiest the building industry has been almost stagnant. Conversely, in 1926, when the building industry in Chicago was at its peak of activity, only 762 wrecking jobs were undertaken. In 1927, when building activity was only slightly less than in '26, the number of structures torn down was proportionately smaller.

The complete explanation of excessive destruction of buildings in Chicago is found in high taxes. The power to tax is the power to destroy; unless taxation is moderate the destruction is inevitable. Thousands of building owners in this city discovered about 1929 that their improved properties were a liability. The taxes were so high that they exceeded the income from the property even when rents were high. The depression by reducing rental values aggravated the difficulty, but if taxation had been held to a reasonable level no carnival of destruction such as we have seen would have resulted.

The consequences of excessive taxation cannot be laughed off. They are real. They mean that individuals have lost their investments, and more especially they mean that the community has lost a part of its wealth. Economists call this process disinvestment. High taxes are forcing us to consume our wealth faster than we create it. The inevitable and immense increase in federal taxation which lies ahead of us and the rising trend in local taxation which has been observed in the last two years are ominous. They mean that more and more taxes will be wrung from less and less wealth.

Editorial of the Day

NO IMMEDIATE DANGER.

[Decatur, Ill., Herald.]

Destruction of AAA by Supreme court opinion, while disheartening enough in general principle, threatens no such immediate disaster as would have followed a court reversal of the gold act.

Farm markets are not likely to crumble immediately on the heels of the present decision. Farm prices even may continue to rise for a time.

To understand this fact one has only to remember that AAA crop control already has done its work in respect to all commodities now ready for market. No huge surplus now exists, to be thrown upon the markets. No increase of corn production can be accomplished until ten months from now. An increased harvest of winter wheat cannot be had in fifteen months. Probably two years would pass before a surplus of hogs could be brought to market, even if farmers exerted every effort to that purpose.

In the meantime the markets must continue to reflect the present controled quantities of these commodities, and time is allowed in which to find legislative substitutes for the AAA.

Farming is peculiarly a business of long range planning. Farm production simply cannot be stepped up, or stepped down, by any large proportion on a moment's notice. The operation of AAA crop control this year is important, not to this year's supplies and markets, but to the supplies and markets of a year and two years hence.

This year's farm prosperity was made possible by the work done under AAA a year ago and two years ago—in the time when farmers had been brought so near ruin that wholesale foreclosures actually had begun to bring armed uprisings against local government.

We were pulled out of that dreadful and threatening situation. Six elderly lawyers of the Supreme court now say that the method by which we were saved was unconstitutional. To persons who live in a world of practical realities, rather than in a booklined marble cloister, this sounds very much like the rebuke to Gulliver because he put out the fire in the queen's palace with the wrong pail of water.

Fortunately for us our high court is so exceedingly deliberate about rushing to the defense of what it is pleased to call our constitutional liberties, the fire is already well damped down and time can be found to look around for another pail of water more acceptable to the exacting analysis of the Ivory tower.

THE RUSSIAN REDS say they can raise bigger and better potatoes by bombarding the seed potatoes with sound waves two months before they're planted. If the sound waves include jazz, crooners' songs, tooth paste ads, and political speeches I shouldn't think it would make the potatoes grow any better. On the contrary I should think the potatoes would just turn over and grow down the other way in the hope of getting away from it all.

HOW CAN WE EVER get motorists to drive more carefully when we can't even get them to close car doors without trying to slam them off their hinges or break all the glass in the auto? If they can't even close a door decently, of course they're going to be careless and indifferent about stopping at stop signs and remembering that it's very rude as well as highly dangerous to pass another car on a curve or a hill. And they're so deceptive, those door slammers. One of the very daintiest and shiest debutantes I've ever known got out of the back door of my car the other night. You would have thought she could have stepped on a butterfly without bruising it, such a light, ethereal will o' the wisp she was. And before I could say John Mortimer Robinson she had hauled my door back as far as it would go and then banged it shut with the force of a cannon ball. It not only made all the glass in the car rattle; it made my back teeth jingle. No, sir, as long as people won't remember to close an automobile door to within six inches of the car and then gently but firmly shut it I don't think they're going to remember any of the safety rules, either.

LANTERNS.

At five o'clock on winter nights
The workmen doff their overalls
And stand their picks against the walls
And light the little scarlet lights.

While stars and lamps are coming on,
They set the shiny lanterns round:
Beside the ditch, along the ground,
To flicker there till it is dawn.

Nightlong the lonely street must stare
As one by one the houselights fail,
And day comes back, all milk-pale,
To haggard lanterns smoky there.

DR. JOHN W. STUDEBAKER, federal commissioner of education, says very solemnly that the old theory that a person can learn nothing after he is 28 is obsolete. AN EX-WAR SPEAKER SPEAKS.

Oh poor am I indeed, whose voice rang out
To stir men on to battle and to kill . . . !
In name of Glory I spoke much and loud,
To hear the crowds cry out: "WE WILL! WE WILL!"
I was a "patriot" then, with flaming eyes,
With clenching hands and words that flashed with fire—
To stir the peaceful ones to war and hate,
Was then my morbid pride and grim desire.
A flag, a bugle, soldiers marching by,
Would send me shouting in the dusty street—
But, oh, since then I saw those boys return
With blinded eyes and helpless dragging feet—
I saw the trenches where the heroes stand,
Their bayonets still jutting from the ground.
I saw ex-soldiers standing in bread lines
I saw white crosses standing row on row
Beneath a dreary stretch of foreign skies;
I saw war orphans huddled in a shack,
I saw the tears that ebbed at mother's eyes . . . !

Oh God, look down with pity on me now!
If war should come—confine me behind bars . . .
Lest I should help to hang on window panes

CHRONIC KIDNEY DISEASE.

THE presence of a small amount of albumin in the urine has been looked upon in some quarters as a death warant—perhaps not immediately, but within a relatively few years. This may have been true at one stage of medical progress. It certainly is not the rule today. If we happen to find a few gray hairs we do not at once insist that death is nigh. Neither should we take too seriously the occurrence of a small amount of albumin that may appear in the urine in the fifth or sixth decade of life.

We must not, however, disregard the albumin signal. It may have no connection with disability provided a properly balanced, common sense program of rest, work, and diet can be instituted.

Most of us recognize that the kidneys are delicate structures and are as susceptible to inflammation as are the tonsils, the lungs, and other organs of the body. They are not so frequently attacked by bacteria, but their cells respond readily to injury through the agency of disease toxins or chemicals in the circulation.

If repeated inflammation has occurred some kidney tissue will be destroyed, and while enough may remain to maintain life, some decrease in the output of these structures is often apparent. Again, we can understand that if the circulation of blood through the kidneys themselves is decreased from any cause whatsoever, function will be lowered. For example, if a portion of the network of blood vessels becomes hardened, narrowed, or plugged, circulation is necessarily reduced.

Repeated inflammation or decreased circulation often leads to what we call chronic kidney disease. Here is a typical case: A patient, weighing 153 pounds, first noticed a slight swelling of the ankles which, with the passing of time, became more extensive until the edema [water in the tissues] reached halfway to the knee. On examination the urine was found to contain a considerable amount of albumin and an occasional red blood cell. There was a fair degree of anemia and the blood count was nearly 20 per cent below normal. Because of the swelling of the tissues the patient was given one-half more than the average amount of protein in the diet and no salt was allowed. It was assumed that the excess weight [36 pounds] was due to retained water which the kidneys were unable to excrete. This was proved by the rapid reduction of weight under diet, rest, and good medical management. Within a few weeks the edema had entirely disappeared and the patient lost all symptoms of fatigue. The red blood cells returned to normal. Correct weight was maintained on the prescribed diet, which remained high in protein. At no time was the urine entirely free from albumin.

Another case of a different kind of kidney disease was that of a woman 42 years of age who, in addition to swelling of the hands and feet, complained of shortness of breath on exertion, slight dizziness, and spots before the eyes. She had been aware of her kidney condition for some years. This patient was given a full diet except that water drinking was greatly reduced and common salt was excluded. As a result 27 pounds of water disappeared. At the present time—about three years after the program was established—while kidney disease is still present the patient is functioning normally and has lost all symptoms of breathlessness, fatigue, and swelling.

Although we can live for many years with kidney disease, yet no one should invite or risk kidney damage. The resources of modern medicine, however, have robbed the old term "Bright's disease" of many of its terrors.

POLYPS.

A. A. R. writes: I have been told that I have polyps in the nose. Are they dangerous? What effect do they have on the health? Do they affect the throat or the voice? Are they growths? Would an operation to remove them be serious?

REPLY.

Polyps are soft, watery, grayish, shiny tumors, usually springing from the mucous membrane of one of the sinuses. They can be any size from that of a pinhead to one so large that it fills the nasal chamber and extends down into the pharnyx, or forward out of the nostril. There may be only one or two present, but as a rule there are many of varying sizes. Untreated, they tend to grow larger until all the space available is filled, thus bringing about a gradually advancing obstruction of the air passages.

To effect a cure not only must the polyps be removed surgically but the infected area must be drained and properly treated. Removal is not serious in an otherwise healthy person.

GROOVED TONGUE.

L. D. writes: My tongue is all chopped up with cracks lately. There is no pain.

REPLY.

A grooved or fissured tongue is seldom indicative of disease. The condition is frequently hereditary and requires no treatment. A mild mouth wash is sometimes used in order to prevent bacterial infection from particles of food which may become lodged in the cracks.

NERVOUS HABIT.

Mrs. M. writes: My 3 year old son bites his nails, blinks his eyes, and picks his nose. Is this serious?

REPLY.

The boy is suffering from a nervous habit, probably due to some environmental difficulty. You will no doubt notice that his nervousness ceases when he is calm and playing happily. Try to find by observation just what it is that makes him tense and fearful, and do your best to remove the cause. While he may outgrow the habits, the personality injury may affect his future, hence early correction is advised.

VARICOCELE.

REPLY.

The acute type of varicocele generally subsides rapidly with rest in bed, elevation of the parts, and cold applications. If these means fail consult a competent urologist in regard to the advisability of an operation.

BAD MEMORY.

Miss R. P. writes: What can be done for a person who does not remember very well? I have a hard time remembering what I read and hear. I am 23 years old.

REPLY.

Do not worry about your poor memory. Many are afflicted that way. Your difficulty, however, may be due to inattention. Try to concentrate on those things you want to remember and let the rest go.

Patriotic Societies

The Tribune today begins publication of a series of articles describing the history, purposes, and accomplishments of patriotic organizations now being investigated for lobbying by the Black senate committee, the inquisitorial limb of the New Deal. As the result of the committee attacks, the organizations are experiencing membership gains. Today's article deals with The Crusaders.

The Crusaders, one of the patriotic groups which has opposed New Deal policies and, as a consequence, is being attacked by the Black senate committee, was organized in Cleveland in July, 1929, under a charter permitting it "to oppose all forces subversive of sound government." Fred G. Clark of Mentor, O., was the founder and the dozen men associated with him named him national commander, which post he still holds.

Because prohibition appeared then as the principal curtailment of American freedom, The Crusaders entered the fight against it at that critical time and were given credit for forcing congress into line on the issue. How many persons were enlisted by the organization in this battle was not disclosed until repeal; then it was made known that by the time the national conventions met in Chicago, The Crusaders had more than 4 million members.

That vast organization never lost form. In the early New Deal days The Crusaders were active in backing the administration's economy bill, before it became apparent that no attempt was to be made to fulfill the Democratic pledge for cutting the costs of government.

Later, when the organization found the administration attempting to change the American form of government, The Crusaders became active in support of the constitution and began a new development, reorganizing its forces for the new fight.

At about the same time a statement of purposes was adopted, eight points to which the organization now stands committed. They are:

1. "To preserve, protect, and defend the constitution of the United States and a truly representative form of government.
2. "To oppose any violation or distortion of the constitution to achieve various objectives in our governmental, economic, and social systems.
3. "To fight vigorously any attempt to have the majority of Americans ruled by organized minorities seeking special advantages.
4. "To resist any so-called 'planned economy' which involves centralized control of industry by government and the regimentation of the American people.
5. "To stand firm against any drift or drive toward Fascism, communism, or socialism; to demand the investigation of all subversive activities.
6. "To fight for sound national credit—the first requisite of which is confidence in our money—and assurance of a balanced budget.
7. "To insist that governmental enterprises be stimulated and not supplant or compete with private enterprise.
8. "To wake up America so that intelligent thought and action, based on experience, shall be exerted to shape the future of our country."

The national headquarters of The Crusaders are located at 332 South Michigan avenue, in charge of Fred L. Blaisdell, assistant treasurer. Besides Commander Clark, the other officers are Seymour Wheeler, Chicago, and Rowe B. Metcalf, New Milford, Conn., vice national commanders, and Enos Curtin, New York, secretary. The post of treasurer is vacant at present. Headquarters for the eastern division are in New York and for the Pacific division in Los Angeles.

Those wishing to join the organization may do so, without financial obligation, by sending their names to The Crusaders, 332 South Michigan avenue, Chicago.

DEED TO PROPERTY.

Chicago, Jan. 25.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—In 1929 I placed in Judge ———'s court [on advice of my lawyer] a piece of property to be sold in a partition sale. This sale never took place. 1. What will I have to do in order to get from this judge or lawyer my papers pertaining to my property? Since that time my sister, who was the contending party, has died. 2. I am the attorney at law for said property. These papers were all given to my lawyer and when I asked him for them [3] he told me that he placed them with this judge. I hold his receipt for the papers, also for $100 that [4] he gave the judge, $50 for himself, and [5] $80 he claimed that the title company had to have. L. B. B.

1. If you refer to recorded deeds we would say that their possession is unimportant.

2. We do not understand what you mean by this statement. If you mean that you have been admitted to the bar, then you ought to be able to answer these questions.

3. Ordinarily the original deeds would not be filed with the original complaint. It is not clear what is meant.

4. If you are accurately quoting him, he ought to be brought up before the Bar association, but we doubt if your quotation is accurate.

5. We are not in a position to advise as to the propriety of this fee.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

WITHIN THE LAW.

Chicago, Jan. 23.—[Friend of the People.]—Recently I made a complaint to this department with regard to premises next door used as a wood cutting factory. Three weeks ago I received a letter from your department stating that occupant had been notified to discontinue using property for this purpose. Said occupant has disregarded the notification and has continued with his work. This work goes on at all hours and on Sundays. What steps can be taken regarding this matter? J. S.

Upon receipt of a previous similar complaint this department notified the owner to discontinue this use of premises for wood cutting purposes. He thereupon submitted to us affidavits, properly attested, from residents in the immediate neighborhood to the effect that this use of premises had begun previous to the year of 1922 and had been carried on since that time.

As the zoning ordinance did not go into force and effect until May 17, 1923, and this business having been established and in operation at the said location previous to that date, the law permits its continuance and we are powerless to stop it.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Writers should confine themselves to 200 or 300 words. Give full names and addresses. No manuscripts can be returned. Address Voice of the People, The Tribune.

UNANSWERABLE.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 26.—No New Dealer in this country can make an intelligent reply to Gov. Smith's address. It is completely and entirely unanswerable. His defense of our constitution and our Supreme court is the most masterful, the most powerful and patriotic defense of our republican form of government ever delivered to the American people. It is a masterpiece that will live for generations in the minds and hearts of the American people. J. C. FRANCIS.

AL AS HITLER.

Chicago, Jan. 24.—Al Smith's radio speech on Saturday night didn't quite go over; didn't quite make its point, did it? Rather a pitiful attempt at hypnotizing the people with words and Hitlerish oratory.

The wise cracking at the beginning of his speech was clever enough and brought rounds of applause. The "ain'ts" and the rest of the bad grammar gave the speech the desired "common" atmosphere, but when the finale of the speech came—calling Roosevelt socialist and communist—there was a terrible stillness that must have been embarrassing to the vaudeville artist in Al Smith.

Sinclair Lewis has prepared us for orators like Mr. Smith and for organizations like the American Liberty league. We recognize the Fascist design and the Windrip oratory now. Al, you just can't put it over on us. You had better go back to the sidewalks of New York and find out what the real people are saying.

H. L.

A GREAT SPEECH.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—We heard a great speech last night by a great Democrat, and, what is more important, by a truly great American. It is inconceivable that any person who identifies himself with the Democratic party and subscribes to its real principles could have listened to that speech without a revulsion of feeling against those who are conducting the current political travesty from Washington under the cloak and in the name of his party.

It took courage to do what Al Smith—truly "the happy warrior"—did last night, and we honor him for it. The thoughts he voiced came straight from the heart—clear, clean, sparkling truths.

E. N. BLYE.

ANALYSIS.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Has any one noticed that the comments on Al Smith's speech which appeared on page 7, part 1, of THE TRIBUNE were divided, with only one exception [Ex-Gov. Ritchie of Maryland] as follows:

Commendatory—Northerners.
Condemnatory—Southerners?

Does this mean that Roosevelt and his subversive policies are finding supporters only in the reactionary and retrogressive south?

ROMA L. JONES.

THEY FOUGHT TO AMEND IT.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Why is the constitution more sacred to Al Smith and members of the Liberty league now than it was when it contained the 18th amendment? Then this same group fought the constitution by means both fair and foul—mostly foul.

C. B. L.

POLITICAL CORPSES.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—I read with interest today's editorial, "The Issue Before Us," eulogizing the recent speeches of Mr. Davis and Alfred E. Smith because of their attacks on the administration and Roosevelt's policies.

Permit me to say that these two political corpses are not fooling any one. Mr. Davis' Wall street connections are well known and Mr. Smith can no longer influence public opinion. The masses are on to him. They know very well whose bedfellow he is.

Will you please print a list of the Liberty league's charter members? How interesting that would be!

GEORGE NICHOLIS.

LOOKING FORWARD.

Downers Grove, Ill.—Jan. 26.—When Al Smith poured out his soul last Saturday night we witnessed once more the basic soundness of this nation and its people. We may incline to blind partisanship; we may be stupidly docile by nature, but always when situations become thoroughly putrid we awaken and forget every consideration excepting that we are Americans and for the United States above all else.

In test votes, in the growing indignation of American leaders, in the growling of the garden variety citizen against the smug rabble raisers we see the dawning streaks of a bright November morning. On that great day let true Americans fly the Stars and Stripes from their castles while Moscow gnashes its teeth!

BILL MAYOR.

POLAR BEARS AND POLAR BARES.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—In order that the public may not be confused because of the similarity in names, kindly let it be known that our organization, the Polar Bears, is an organization composed exclusively of veterans of the American northern Russian expeditionary forces who served in Archangel during the world war and have no connection with any "Polar Bears" who freeze hands and feet swimming in Lake Michigan in subzero temperatures.

Since the cold spell has set in I had to answer a number of inquiries from acquaintances who wanted to know if I had my morning plunge in the lake with the rest of the Polar Bears. Having had more than my share of cold baths in Archangel during 1918 and 1919, our Polar Bears are not seen swimming in a lake full of ice now.

BERNARD J. ELFMAN.

CLOCKS.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Why here is it 6 o'clock in New York, 5 in Chicago, 3 in Seattle? Why not have it 6 o'clock in London, the same in New York, Chicago, Seattle and Tokio?

Of course it is not far distant when the working and business hours of the day will be identical in all parts of the world. Then time will be broadcast hourly and most clocks adjusted automatically, and there will be a universal language.

Of what benefit is the radio to seamen on whose eardrums falls a foreign language they cannot understand?

Canada has used the 24 hour system for many, many years. Both Mexico and Russia have adopted the 24 hour system. None has yet adopted standard time, and until it is fixed by radio instead of distant stars, as now. That day will come, and the wise inventor and manufacturer of timepieces will be ready when it comes sooner than expected.

JESSE T. KENNEDY.

FREEDOM OF WORSHIP.

Chicago, Jan. 27.—Reds who pry their way into our pulpits offer only a prelude to what they will do there later. If Christians don't get out to the polls next November and vote the Reds out of Washington and vote in candidates who will sustain the constitution they may find their churches boarded up, or turned into museums, theaters, or what not, as in Russia.

It was a dreadful example for the President to have sworn by the holy Bible to defend and protect the constitution and then to turn his back upon his oath. A prominent churchman.

"Well, Aunt Emily, and what do you think of our little Ultra Violet Ray?"

TRIBUTE TO A PERFECT RECORD OF THE RAILROADS

WITH SAFETY an increasingly difficult problem in all modes of transportation, we believe this perfect passenger-safety record of the railroads of the United States for the year 1935 deserves broader recognition than the modest item published in the newspapers.

Any one of the more than 800 roads making up our great railroad system might well be proud of such a record, in these days when higher and higher speeds are demanded by the public, while the roads are forced to the most rigid economies in their equipment and operating budgets. But when the nation's entire railroad system, operating over a total of 420,000 miles of track, carries human beings an aggregate of 18,400,000,000 miles without a single passenger losing his life through a passenger train accident, it is a matter for public appreciation.

To achieve such a record meant remarkable perfection of signal systems and safety devices, and an amazingly high standard of dependability in rails, rolling stock and equipment. But even more important than this, it meant unceasing vigilance and absolute devotion to duty on the part of the great human organization of 995,000 railroad employees. In storm and flood, in fog and sleet, in biting cold and blistering heat, they "carried on" with an indomitable spirit and a resourcefulness in emergencies required in few other public services.

The long and unremitting campaign of the railroads for "Safety First" has borne fruit in the world's safest form of transportation.

CRY TO IMPEACH WALLACE HEARD ON HOUSE FLOOR

Attack on Court Brings Ouster Demand.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Impeachment of Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace for his assertion that return of 200 million dollars in AAA processing taxes was "probably the greatest legalized steal in American history" was suggested in the house today by Representative Allen T. Treadway [Rep., Mass.].

Representative Treadway secured the floor to protest against the charge Wallace made in a radio address yesterday as the senate agriculture committee, burdened with constitutional doubts, reported out the revised administration soil conservation subsidy plan as a substitute for the AAA. The committee vote was 15 to 2.

Charges False Statements.

"For inaccurate, false statements Secretary Wallace should be given a gold medal," Treadway declared to the applause of Republican congressmen. "Any officer making such a statement as he did against the court should be impeached unless he makes an immediate apology or takes a walk. No, in Wallace's case he ought to sprint right out of office as fast as the President can send him.

"The decision to which Wallace referred was the result of his own foolish, illegal, and unconstitutional legislation. It is strange his own laws cause him to vent his hatred and disgust on the Supreme court. I hold no brief for the administration, but I would advise the President to begin cleaning out his cabinet and to start with the secretary of agriculture and proceed right or left. He should not keep any one in his cabinet having the ignorance to make such a statement."

When Wallace was advised of Treadway's suggestion at his press conference he shifted in his chair to declare, "I wonder does he belong to the right branch of congress?"

No Copy of Constitution.

Told that Treadway belonged to the constitutional branch of congress, Wallace asked to look at a copy of the constitution.

"There isn't one here," an aid told the cabinet officer who has been loudest in demanding a revision of the constitution to strengthen the New Deal burocracy.

"It's my recollection that the senate impeaches," Wallaces said.

Then, when informed by newspaper men of what every schoolchild knows, that the house impeaches and the senate sits as a trial court, Wallace continued:

"I was just stating [in his speech] what seemed to me to be justice. I believe the opinion was erroneous."

Several Methods Considered.

Wallace revealed that legislation providing for the recovery of the 200 million dollars in taxes returned to procesors by the Supreme court will be sought by the administration. He said several methods of approaching the problem were being considered, but that he did not "believe it wise to say anything more about it at this time." He was believed to be hinting that the administration is contemplating a retroactive tax program to finance the AAA substitute.

After the senate agriculture committee voted out the revised substitute Chairman Ellison D. Smith [Dem., S. C.] expressed grave doubt as to the constitutionality of the measure. He and several others of the 15 "aye" votes pointed out that they voted merely to report the bill instead of the customary "favorably report" vote.

Opposed by McNary.

Senators Charles L. McNary [Rep., Ore.] and Peter Norbeck [Rep., S. D.] voted against the stop-gap legislation to permit continuance of New Deal farm subsidies during the campaign year. It is to continue for two years until a permanent program is enacted based on federal grants to states. The revised program, which differs but slightly from the administration's original proposal, was speeded in response to pressure from the farm belt.

Senator Smith said his committee will meet tomorrow to decide whether to include in the report, but not in the bill, argument of Senator Elmer Thomas [Dem., Okla.] for more and cheaper money to keep up farm prices. Smith, an inflation advocate, said he believed the Thomas argument will be included in the report.

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Decatur, Ill., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Widespread dissatisfaction among organized farmers in this state over the order of the United States Supreme court to return to processors approximately 180 million dollars of processing taxes collected on farm commodities and held in escrow at the time the agricultural adjustment administration act was invalidated was reported here today by delegates arriving to attend the opening session of the Illinois Agricultural association's twenty-first annual convention.

Farmers at convention headquarters indicated a resolution would be introduced before the close of their three day meeting petitioning congress to pass the necessary legislation to correct the situation, which they brand "an unjust enrichment of processors."

Counsels have advised farm leaders here that there is precedent for congress passing a separate revenue measure that would provide an excise tax upon processors who were subject to the processing tax on farm products under the AAA.

Would Ask Same Rate.

The rate to be asked under this proposal would be the same as that collected under the AAA plan. The excise tax would be made retroactive to cover the period in which injunction proceedings impounded processing taxes. The impounded money has been returned or ordered returned to the processors.

The proposed plan, which may be indorsed at this convention, would credit the processor who paid in all of the processing tax money to the United States treasury without protest.

Several of the 5,000 farmers attending today's meeting point out that this state's first gas tax law declared unconstitutional a few years ago furnished precedent for handling the impounded AAA processing tax money. In the gasoline case major petroleum companies filed a petition of interpleaders asking the court to order all persons with an interest in the impounded funds to file their claims. After a reasonable length of time the court ordered the unclaimed funds transferred to the state treasury, attorneys at the convention explained.

Hear Coöp Reports.

Today farmers held separate meetings with officials of the Illinois Agricultural association's subsidiaries that buy farm supplies, market farm products, and service farmer members in various ways. At the end of the day aggregate reports of the supply organizations showed that 85,000 Illinois farmers last year pooled their buying power through their coöperatives and spent approximately $11,632,117, or an increase of about 1½ million dollars over 1934. These buying enterprises saved the farmer members nearly two million dollars in 1935. The agencies have been set up by the state association and the 96 affiliated county farm bureaus.

In a conference of the Illinois farm supply company this afternoon the agency's manager, L. R. Marchant, reported that the organization and its 60 affiliated county units handled approximately $8,400,000 worth of products, mostly petroleum and soy bean oil paint, for 85,000 patrons last year. Patronage dividends aggregating more than $800,000 were paid back to members. The farmers' investment in the 60 county companies totals nearly a million dollars.

Report Insurance Savings.

The lump sum of the three insurance companies sponsored by the state association amounted to $2,872,154 for 1935, saving farmers more than a million dollars, according to managers' reports. Twenty-five thousand farmers bought coöperatively last year anti-hog cholera serum and virus, used in vaccinating hogs, totaling $151,000, retail value. They were refunded patronage dividends amounting to more than $35,000.

National farm leaders are scheduled to speak on the program tomorrow, bringing to the convention last minute information from Washington on the progress of proposed farm legislation designed to replace the outlawed AAA plan.

67 DIFFERENT U. S. TAXES INFLATE COST OF LIVING

Survey Shows Extent of Purse Raiding.

New York, Jan. 29.—[Special.]—The federal government collected sixty-seven different taxes during the fiscal year that ended on June 30, 1935, imposing more than thirty taxes on every wage earner in the income tax group and even levying concealed taxes on the poor man who barely ekes out a living.

Such are the findings of the Merchants' Association of New York, compiled in the report of its committee on taxation and public revenue under the direction of Laurence Arnold Tanzer.

To collect those sixty-seven taxes, according to the report, the government imposed 131 additional and separate levies. The concealed taxes alone amounted to $1,781,000,000, including commodity taxes which formed part of the purchase price of the commodity, the committee found.

3 Billions Collected.

The grand total of all federal taxes collected amounted to $3,299,435,572, according to the report.

The inquiry indicated that the result of commodity taxes was to raise the retail price of goods not less than 5 per cent. The committee cited as an example of the many sided nature of commodity taxes the fact that the tax on distilled spirits, wines, and beer was imposed in nineteen different forms.

The study showed that most taxes which concerned the average family are not paid directly by the members of the family. Taxes which increased the cost of living for the average family included the cumulative liquor taxes, taxes on tobacco, cigarets, certain necessary drugs, oil, gasoline, tires, automobile parts, electrical energy, matches, tooth paste, toilet soaps, perfumes and cosmetics, radio parts and phonograph records, sporting goods, cameras and lenses, chewing gum, coconut and other oils, admissions to theaters, etc., and imposts on telegraph and telephone messages and oil transported by pipe lines.

Other Taxes Boost Prices.

In addition to these there were the wheat, cotton, tobacco, corn, pork, sugar, peanuts, and rice taxes imposed under the AAA and entering largely into the cost of food.

The taxes mentioned affect the average man on a salary, not concerned with investments. Just as soon as a man began to carry on a few business transactions, he ran into more taxes. If he was an investor he had his profits reduced by the capital stock tax, excess profits tax, and the corporation income tax, as well as by the stamp tax on the transfer of stocks. The investor also had to pay a tax on his safety deposit box. For the wealthy man, there were added the estate tax, the gift tax and the tax on club dues.

VANDERBILT CHILD'S ESTATE GROWS BY $700,000 IN 1935

New York, Jan. 29.—[Special.]—The estate of twelve year old Gloria Laura Morgan Vanderbilt was increased by more than $700,000 in 1935, according to an accounting filed today by Thomas B. Gilchrist, guardian of the little girl's estate.

On Dec. 27 the assets totaled $3,667,814, as against $2,948,743 at the beginning of the year. The increase included income of $135,947, but the greater part of the addition to the estate was due to additional money received under a trust fund, established by the child's grandfather, the late Cornelius Vanderbilt.

TEAR GAS ROUTS STRIKE PICKETS AT PEKIN PLANT

Attack Follows Parley with Union Men.

Pekin, Ill., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Seventy-five pickets camped near the strikebound American Distilling company plant here were routed with tear gas today as preparations were made to resume operations tonight or tomorrow.

A force of twenty sherif's deputies, policemen, and plant guards took part in the attack, which followed a half hour's conference with the union men in which they refused to leave their posts commanding approaches to the plant.

Later in the day it was announced that office employés would return to their jobs tomorrow.

"Squat" Strike Continues.

Akron, O., Jan. 29.—(AP)—While 1,000 workers of the Firestone Tire and Rubber company remained idle in a "sit down" protest the company refused tonight to reinstate a union worker whose suspension caused the passive resistance.

W. R. Murphy, Firestone labor superintendent, said a union committee asked that Clayton Dicks be returned to work pending an impartial investigation of a fist fight with a nonunion workers last Wednesday after an argument over wage rates.

Dick's suspension for the remainder of the week cannot be revoked, Murphy said he told the committee.

Workers in the tire building department began a protest movement against Dicks' suspension late yesterday by sitting idle at their machines.

As shifts were changed today some of the workers left and other remained, with the result that about twice the normal number of workers held places at the machines.

Postpone Railroad Strike.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—A strike of employés of the Mobile and Ohio railroad was temporarily averted today. A joint union committee meeting, scheduled for today to set a date for the walkout, was postponed at the request of James W. Carmolt, national mediation board arbitrator, until tomorrow to permit time for further negotiations. Operating and clerical workers demand a 10 per cent wage restoration.

THREE ELEVATORS BURN.

Pleasant Lake, N. D., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Fire early today destroyed three grain elevators here. A dust explosion was believed to have ignited the first elevator.

Jan. 29, 1936.

TRACTORS, horses and mules will be used in the farm power tests included in the 1936 program on the Tribune Experimental farm near Wheaton. Both animal and mechanical power are found essential in operating the Tribune's Yorkville and Wheaton farms of more than 2,300 acres.

Although an increasing amount of work is being done by the tractor on both farms, horses also are used in practically all field work except, of course, where belt power is needed. Tractors do such jobs as plowing, ordering ground, planting, cultivating, mowing, threshing, baling hay and running ensilage cutters, water pumps, and saws in sawing fireplace wood and lumber. The tractor handles also such special tasks as hauling trees and moving trains of wagons loaded with hay.

* * *

Despite the increased use of the tractor and gasoline engines in Illinois, there is a great demand this spring for both horses and mules. R. I. Shaw of the department of engineering, University of Illinois, reports there are approximately 85,000 tractors in Illinois. He points out that with their income showing some improvement, farmers of the state are buying tractors and equipping their farms with much needed machinery.

Mr. Shaw finds that there is more interest this winter in the latest designs and in the most efficient operation of tractors than there has been for many years. This is revealed to him through his work in training farm boys how to operate tractors.

During the recent winter short course given to farm boys at the university, Mr. Shaw used fifteen tractors of the latest designs and of various types. In addition to the tractors the equipment for the short courses included ten tractors; engines mounted on frames, and twenty-five farm gasoline engines and a representative assortment of magnetos, carburetors, air cleaners and engine parts. The farm boy students learned how to take a tractor to pieces and put it back together again.

* * *

On the Tribune farms it is a practice to overhaul the tractors at least once a year. Each tractor is put in first class condition in advance of the plowing and planting season. The four tractors at the Tribune farm near Plano and Yorkville already have been tuned and cleaned up ready for the rush in field work in the spring. These tractors were overhauled last fall after they were brought in out of the harvest fields. Each important part of the engines was examined carefully.

* * *

Mule names continue to come in with every bag of mail. The mare mule at the Wheaton farm is still tugging away at her daily tasks without a name. Members of the mule naming committee announced today that the "best mule name" must be selected soon. What's the best mule name you ever knew? Send it to the Agricultural Editor, Chicago Tribune.

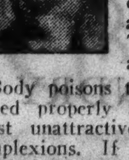
You Don't Need a BEAUTIFUL FACE



Beautiful features are not necessary. Real beauty comes from the inside, a healthy body, a lovely complexion and lots of pep. That is what men admire.

Body poisons that are not eliminated properly are the cause of most unattractive, sallow, pimply complexions. If your blood is poisoned by wastes from constipated bowels, your skin often breaks out or looks dull and muddy.

Adlerka quickly and pleasantly removes these wastes from both bowels. Adlerika brings out foul matter that may have poisoned you for months, ruining your complexion and upsetting your system.

Miss E. S., Converse, Tex., says: "I have used Adlerika for just two weeks and I am amazed at how it has cleared up my complexion."

Mrs. W. T. M., Louisville, Ky.: "My eyes were dull and my complexion poor. After trying Adlerika almost everyone commented on my complexion. It has lost its sallowness and my eyes have a new sparkle."

Let Adlerika help YOU to clear up your complexion and make it smooth, clear and admirably lovely. Try Adlerika for just one week and see what an amazing difference it makes in how you look and feel. Sold by all druggists and drug departments.

MILITARY DRIVE ON MONGOLIANS BEGUN BY JAPS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TOKIO, Jan 30 [Thursday].—Military operations have been started by Manchukuo against the Outer Mongolians, according to a Domei [Japanese] news agency report from Hsinking, capital of Manchukuo.

The dispatch stated that Manchukuan troops will recover Helumoto and Olahodoga, which had been seized by the Mongolians, following which the troops will remain along the border. [The two towns could not be located on maps.]

The operations, it was indicated, may presage the launching of a military campaign by Japanese-led troops against soviet controled Outer Mongolia, which may lead to a Russo-Japanese war. There have been frequent border clashes in recent weeks.

Situation Tense.

The situation is growing more tense daily. According to Japanese sources the Mongolians have a national defense force of 150,000. Fifty thousand of the standing army are permanently stationed at Urga [Ulan Bator], capital of Outer Mongolia. These include two air corps with fifty planes, two automobile corps with 2,000 cars, and one heavy gun corps.

Japanese sources suspect Moscow is supplying up-to-date arms, including tanks. The chief of the air corps is a soviet officer, it is said. Ninety per cent of the airmen and 70 per cent of the chauffeurs are soviets and the remainder Mongolians and Chinese, it is claimed.

Report Manchu Revolt.

MOSCOW, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The official soviet news agency, Tass, reported from Khabarovsk tonight that a detachment of 109 Manchukuan soldiers, rebelling against Japanese occupation of Manchuria, crossed into soviet territory after killing four Japanese officers.

The Manchukuans, headed by Lieut. Ho Gin Sha, asked for refuge and were interned, the dispatch added.

The account did not give the name of the place where the reported rebellion occurred, but said there was a battle in the barracks, during which the Japanese were slain. The detachment crossed the border in the Grodekov region, the exact location of which was not stated.

Tourists See Armies Clash.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TIENTSIN, China, Jan. 30.—[Thursday.]—Tourists visiting the famous Nankow pass in the Great Wall near Changping, north of Peiping, yesterday witnessed a clash of the forces of three Chinese generals, all concerned with puppet régimes.

Li Shou-hsin, leader of the Manchu Mongol régime in Chahar province, gradually is enveloping Kalgan where Sung Cheh-yuan, head of the Hopei-Chahar régime still has a division of troops.

Yin Ju-keng, head of the East Hopei autonomous régime, who is apparently coöperating with Li Shou-hsin against Sung, yesterday threatened to cut the Peiping-Suiyuan railway near Changping. This caused Sung to invide the East Hopei area and to occupy Changping himself despite the presence of a small detachment of Japanese troops coöperating with Yin Ju-keng.

Hit Recognition of Manchukuo.

PEIPING, China, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Bitter opposition to a Japanese statement that China's recognition of Manchukuo is necessary was expressed tonight by North China intellectuals.

In a circular telegram sent throughout China, the Peiping Cultural National Salvation association, composed of university professors and literary leaders, attacked the demand as "nothing but a plan aimed at reducing China to the status of a colony."

JAP OFFICIAL HITS HITLER'S 'WHITE SUPREMACY' IDEA

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

TOKIO, Jan. 29.—Eiji Amau, Japanese foreign office spokesman, asked to comment on Reichsfuehrer Hitler's reference recently to "white supremacy," took Hitler to task today for criticizing non-European peoples."

"I do not know what Hitler's motive was, but before the world war ex-Kaiser Wilhelm II. raised a 'yellow peril' scare and incited Japanese animosity," Amau said. "I wonder whether Hitler's purpose is to raise the racial issue."

Amau expressed surprise at the statement particularly as the German embassy in Tokio has requested the foreign office to curb publication of caricatures of Hitler in the Japanese press. He added:

"When the ruler of a nation indulges in politics, it is difficult to distinguish whether his action was conducted in the capacity of a ruler or a politician, hence we will have great difficulty in complying with the German embassy's request."

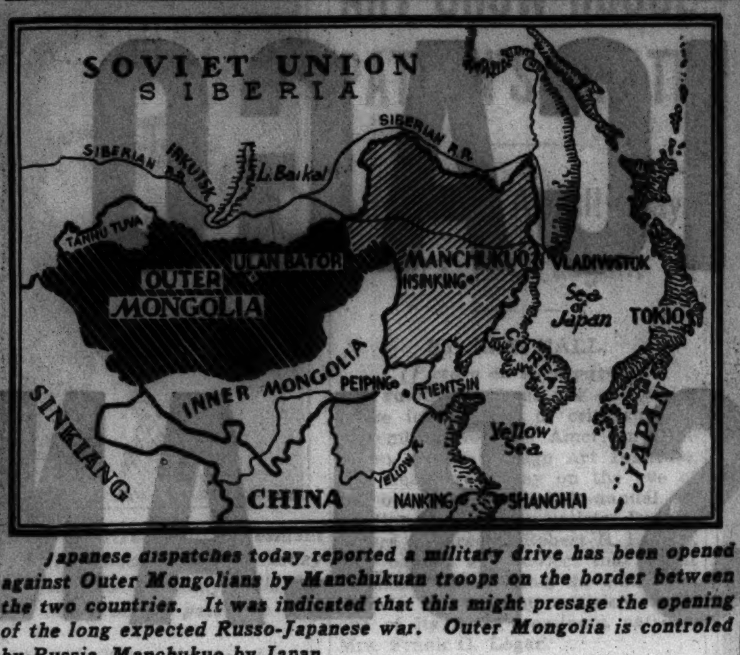
'MERCY SLAYER' OF SON TO DIE AFTER MARCH 16

Newburgh, N. Y., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Mrs. Dorothy Sherwood, 27, was sentenced today to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing the week of March 16 for the drowning of her 2 year old son Jimmy.

Mrs. Sherwood, blonde young widow, received the death sentence with no show of emotion.

The former Salvation Army lassie and burlesque dancer was convicted of first degree murder, with a recommendation of mercy. The death sentence is mandatory, but the jury's recommendation will be sent to Gov. Herbert H. Lehman along with the sentence.

LAUNCH DRIVE AGAINST MONGOLIANS



Japanese dispatches today reported a military drive has been opened against Outer Mongolians by Manchukuan troops on the border between the two countries. It was indicated that this might presage the opening of the long expected Russo-Japanese war. Outer Mongolia is controled by Russia, Manchukuo by Japan.

HOSPITALS UNITE TO HELP PUBLIC GET BETTER CARE

21 in Council Hope for Lower Costs.

BY THE REV. JOHN EVANS.

Twenty-one hospitals with a total capitalization of approximately $90,000,000 have become members of the newly organized Chicago Hospital council, according to an announcement by Charles H. Schweppe, president, after a meeting of the council in the Chicago club yesterday.

The council, a coöperative organization, has on its extensive program a plan for group hospital insurance which is expected to make hospital care more widely available to the public. The council also hopes to reduce the general cost of hospitalization through coöperation among the hospitals. A committee was announced yesterday for the development of this plan. The members are J. Dewey Lutes, superintendent of Ravenswood hospital; Dr. A. C. Bachmeyer, director of the University of Chicago hospitals and clinics; the Rev. John W. Barrett, diocesan director of Catholic hospitals; Chauncey B. Borland, E. I. Erickson, Alfred C. Meyer, Sterling Morton, Dr. Rufus Rorem and Taylor Strawn, and one member appointed by the Chicago Medical society.

Others Expected to Join.

The twenty-one hospitals which have become members of the council are:

Augustana, Berwyn Community, Bethany, Grant, Henrotin, Holy Cross, Home for Destitute Crippled Children, St. Anthony de Padua, Little Company of Mary, Lutheran Deaconess, Michael Reese, Mount Sinai, Passavant, Ravenswood, St. Annes, St. Bernard's, St. Joseph, St. Luke's, University of Chicago clinics, including Billings Memorial, Bobs Roberts Memorial, and the Max Epstein clinics; Women's and Children's hospital and Woodlawn. Mr. Schweppe did not make public the names of the hospitals contemplating membership. Eleven other hospitals are expected to become members.

Guard Interests of All.

"For the first time in Chicago," said Mr. Schweppe, "we have a coöperative movement among our hospitals which represents equally the interests of managements, of the medical profession, and of the laymen. Each hospital will be represented in the council by the hospital superintendent, the chief or member of the medical staf, and a member of the board of trustees.

"In addition there will be representatives from the public at large and from various consumer groups, each with equal voting power.

SUES TO ANNUL ELOPEMENT OF MARJORIE EWING

Suit to annul the marriage of Mrs. Marjorie Ewing Wightman, 6922 Jeffery avenue, to John Wightman was begun in the Superior court yesterday. The bill, filed on Mrs. Wightman's behalf by her stepfather, George R. Johnstone, alleged that she was only 17 years old and her husband was 20 when they were married in Nogales, Ariz., on Jan. 20, 1935, but both gave their ages as older. The marriage was performed without the consent of Mrs. Wightman's parents and the couple never lived together, the bill says.

ROBBER IS DENIED PROBATION; SENT TO PENITENTIARY

CRIMINAL COURT.

William Jackson and Odell Lovings, robbery, each sentenced to 1 year to life in the penitentiary; Alonzo Hutton, robbery, sentenced to 1 to 20 years in the penitentiary; Sherman Hicks and Robert Williams, robbery, sentenced to 1 year to life each in the penitentiary; Virgil Waters, larceny, sentenced to 1 to 10 years in the penitentiary by Judge Denis J. Normoyle.

Chief Justice Denis J. Normoyle of the Criminal court denied a motion for probation yesterday for Virgil Waters, 23 years old, of Ottawa, La Salle county, who on Jan. 17 was permitted to plead guilty to larceny rather than stand trial on the more serious charge of robbery with a gun. In sentencing Waters to from one to ten years in the penitentiary Judge Normoyle warned armed robbers they could expect no leniency from his court.

Waters and Wallace Jaka, 36 years old, also of Ottawa, robbed Philip Andy, owner of a radio store at 1019 North State street on Dec. 22.

PILOT IS KILLED, FIVE INJURED AS PLANE HITS TREE

Crashes in Forced Landing in Snowstorm.

Denton, Tex., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Ted Kincannon, American Air Lines pilot, was fatally injured near here today when he brought his plane down in a forced landing in a snowstorm.

His five passengers were slightly cut and bruised as the plane, southbound from Chicago, struck a clump of trees in coming down.

List of Passengers.

John Schultz, New York.
M. P. Youker, Dallas, Tex.
T. P. Malloy, Shreveport, La.
George Rice, San Antonio, Tex.
William Littlewood, chief engineer of American Air Lines, Chicago.

Kincannon, who suffered a head injury and a fracture of the right leg, died in an ambulance taking him to Frisco, Tex.

W. T. Byrum, in whose ambulance the pilot died, said the plane was smashed, with one wing tangled in trees at the edge of a plowed field near Little Elm, 18 miles southeast of here.

3 Injured in Plane.

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Three passengers in a transport plane flying here from New York were injured today when a small piece of metal broke loose from the cowling of the left motor and shattered the glass in two cabin windows.

The passengers were C. H. McAleer and Edward D. McAleer of Detroit, and John Z. Fletcher of Jacksonville, Fla. Their injuries were superficial cuts suffered just before the ship landed at Municipal airport.

FALLS TO DEATH IN COKE BIN.

Lyle Martin, 28 years old, of Gurnee, Lake county, was killed yesterday when he fell into a bin of coke screening while at work at the North Shore Coke and Chemical company, Waukegan.

For Bad Winter Coughs, Mix This Remedy Yourself

Saves Good Money! No Cooking!

If you want the best cough remedy that money can buy, mix it at home. It costs very little, yet it's the most reliable, quick-acting medicine you ever used. The way it takes hold of distressing coughs, giving immediate relief, is astonishing.

Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle, and add granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. To make syrup, use 2 cups of sugar and one cup of water, and stir a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed. It's no trouble at all, and gives you four times as much cough medicine for your money—a real family supply. Keeps perfectly and tastes fine.

It is surprising how quickly this loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, helps clear the air passages, and thus ends a bad cough in a hurry.

Pinex is a compound of Norway Pine, in concentrated form, famous for its effect in stopping coughs quickly. Money refunded if it does not please you in every way.

MODERN COLLEGE EDUCATION AT LOW COST

To HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

AFTER high school—college. This is the trend today. Achievement in this modern, complex world demands a college education . . . . At Central College, 2000 young men and women are enjoying a unique college experience. They are facing present-day problems and attempting solutions for them as part of their classroom work—learning to think for themselves—to become effective, useful citizens . . . . These students enjoy other advantages, too. They have a wide choice of programs taught by an outstanding faculty. They participate in a variety of extra-class activities—social, musical, dramatic and athletic. And their tuition rates are low—$76.00 covers a full college program, including laboratory subjects. Many pay out of income as they attend. Furthermore, they live at home, thus greatly reducing the cost of their college course.

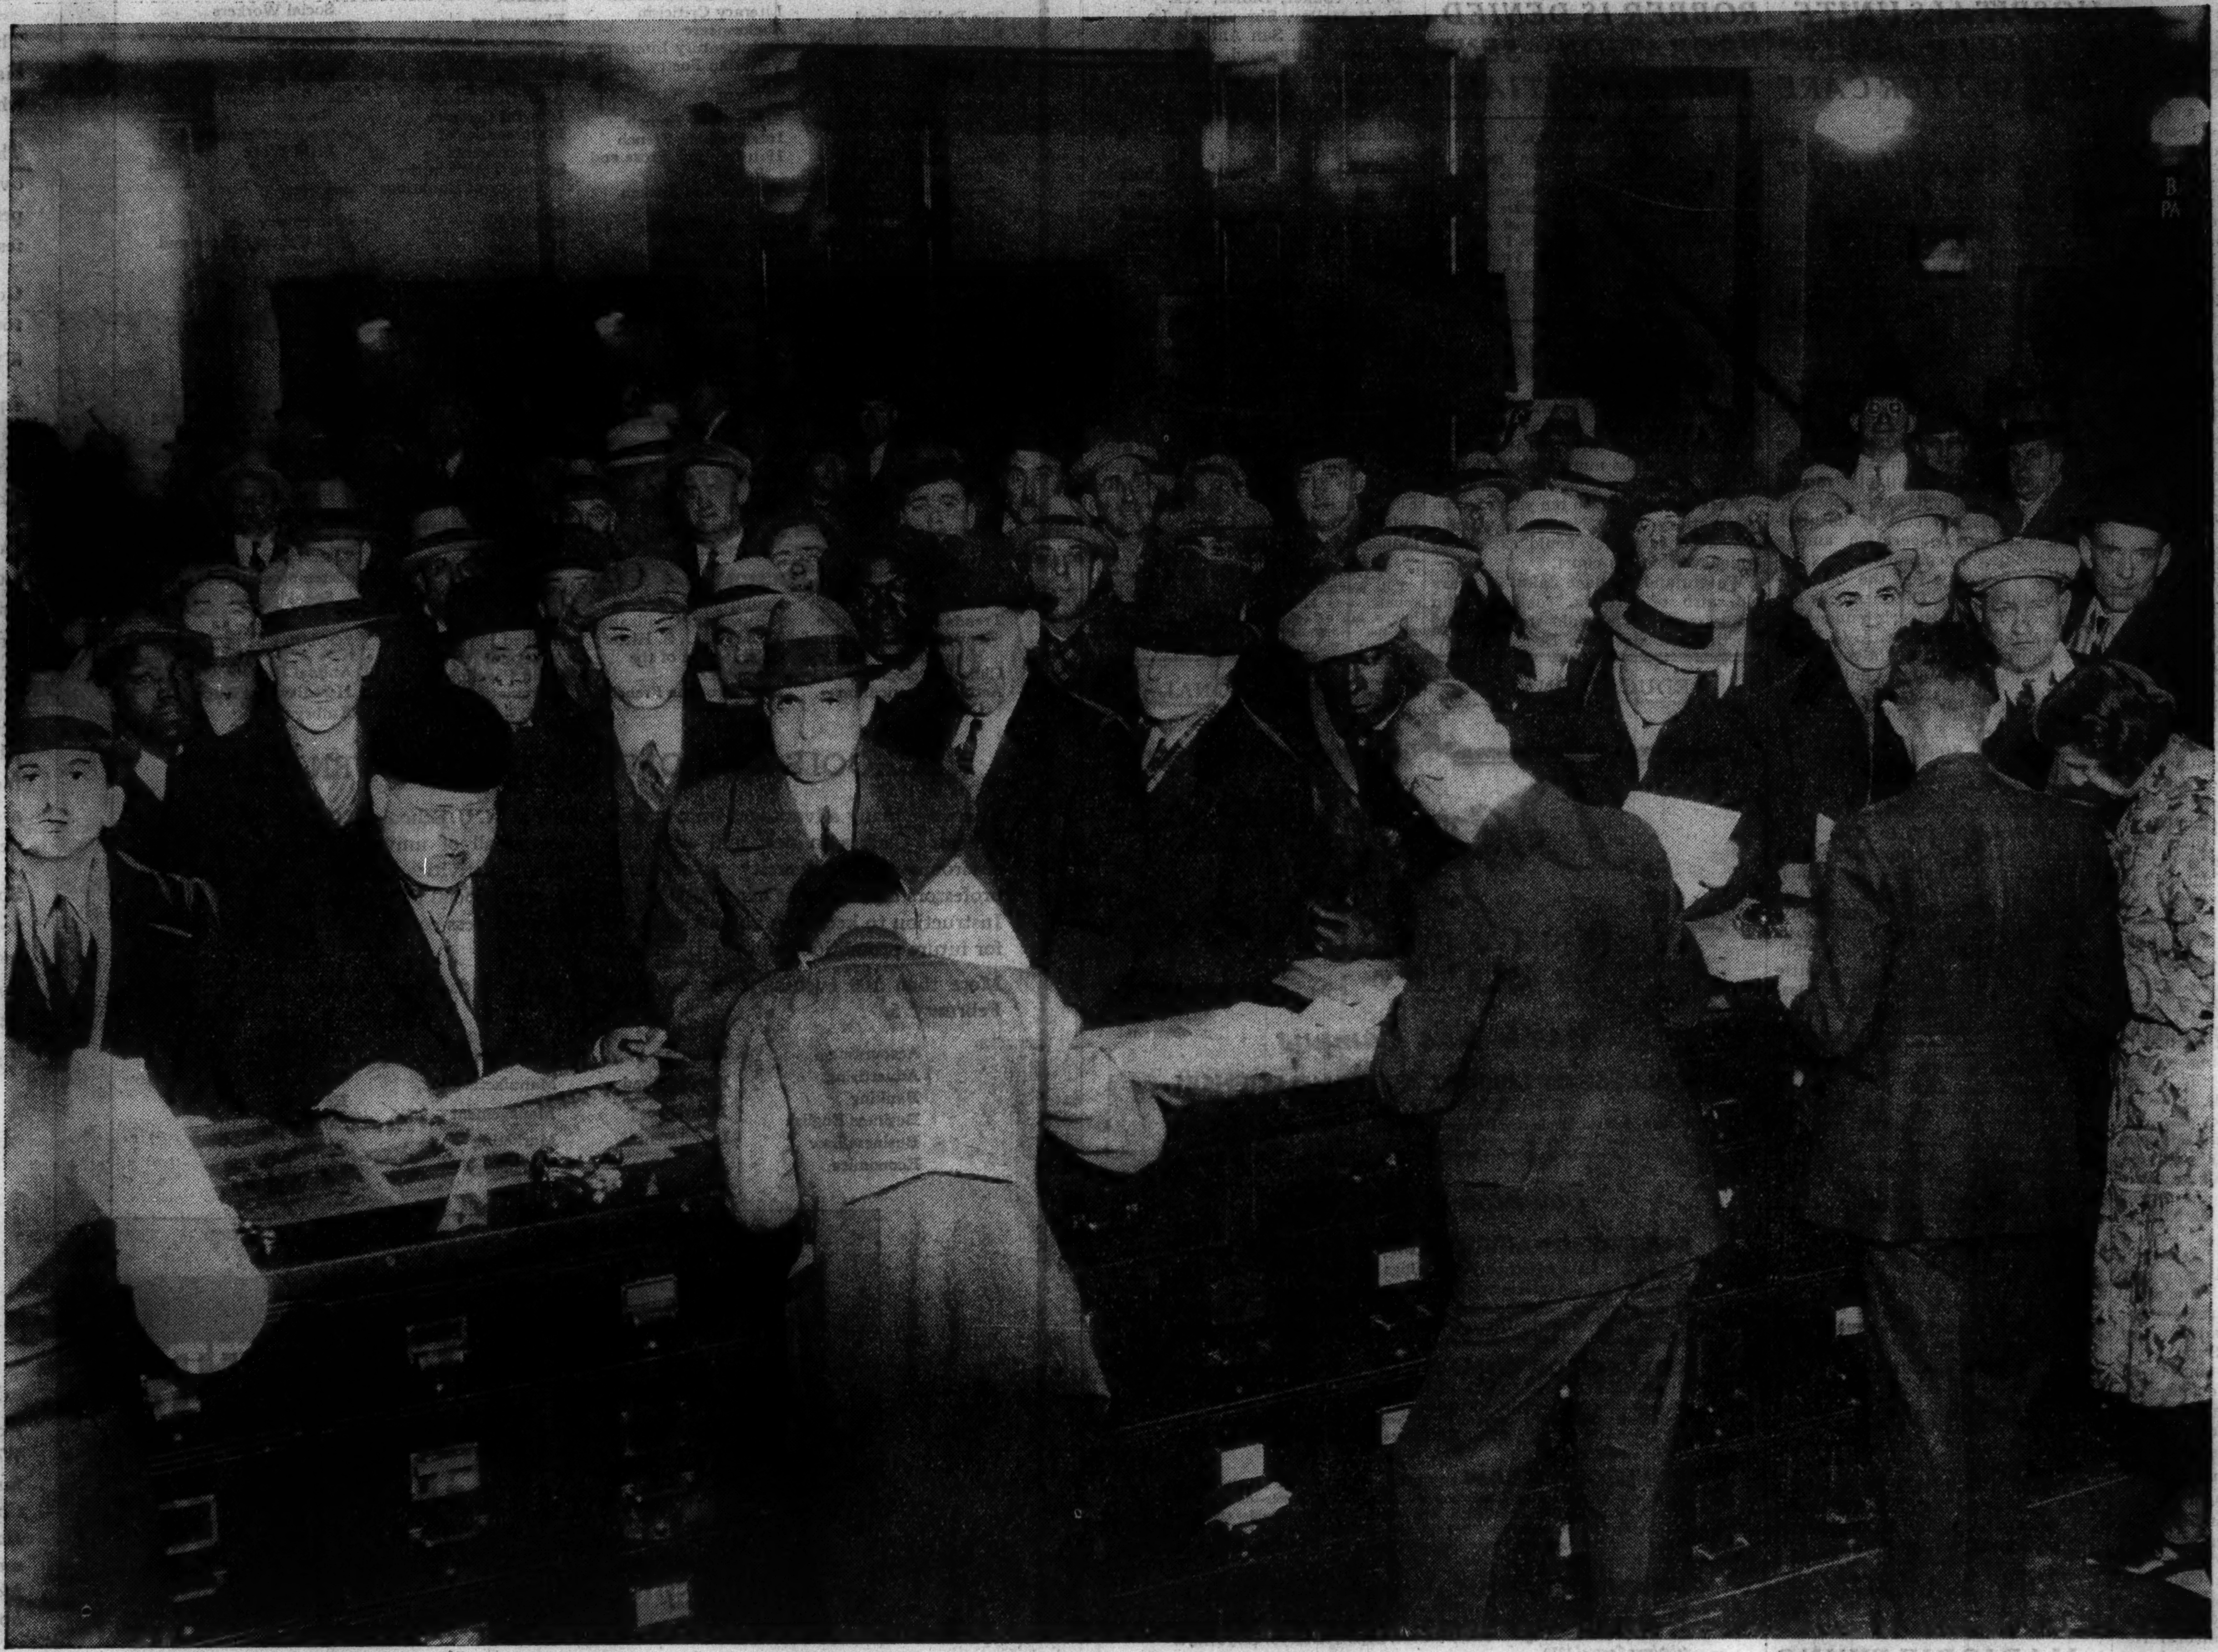
FIRST IN CHICAGO WITH THE BONUS BLANKS



FIRST STEP TO THE BONUS—Scene at the Tribune Public Service Office at One South Dearborn street yesterday afternoon as veterans crowded to get their bonus application blanks, first made available in Chicago by the Tribune which began distributing them at 7:00 o'clock Tuesday night.

ON Tuesday night, January 28, at 7:00 o'clock, the first veterans' bonus application blanks available through any agency in Chicago were distributed over the counters of the Chicago Tribune Public Service Offices at One South Dearborn Street and Tribune Tower, 435 N. Michigan Avenue.

Long before blanks were obtainable from any government department or from any other Chicago newspaper, the Chicago Tribune not only was distributing the blanks, but in addition was providing free of charge complete service in helping veterans to make their applications.

Up to six o'clock yesterday, application blanks had been distributed to more than 20,000 veterans who came to the Tribune Public Service Offices.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

TWO WILL NAME CANN MURDERER, STATE DECLARES

Open Trial in Slaying of Walter Liggett.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Before a packed courtroom and with crowds filling corridors outside, Isadore [Kid Cann] Blumenfeld, a former bootleg king, today heard the state point him out as the machine gunner who poured a volley into the back of Walter W. Liggett the night of Dec. 9.

"Cann is the man who did it," said Frederic A. Pike, assistant attorney general, as he outlined the state's case to the four women and eight men composing the jury, completed yesterday, eight days after Cann's trial on a first degree murder charge was called.

"Cann did it—and we will produce two actual eye witnesses who will identify him as the murderer," Pike declared.

Sits and Chews Gum.

The defendant, who since repeal has turned his talents into legal liquor channels as sales manager of a wholesale firm, sat unmoved as he heard himself accused. Smartly dressed and chewing gum, he sat between two deputy sherifs at the counsel table with his attorney, Thomas McMeekin, and C. W. Dannenberg, Chicago private detective, who made a lengthy investigation for the defense.

Pike's outline of the case was the high point of today's proceedings. The rest of the day was taken up by preliminary groundwork as the state hastened toward its major testimony, that of the two eye witnesses to the shooting of the crusading weekly newspaper publisher.

Laying the foundation for the eyewitness testimony, the state introduced photographs of the scene and other necessary technical details.

Meanwhile, the star witnesses, Mrs. Edith Liggett, 35, the publisher's widow who saw him slain, and Wesley Andersch, 36, salesman, waited in the district attorney's office adjoining the courtroom for the calls that will send them to the witness stand to identify Cann as the murderer.

Victim's Brother with Her.

Wan, tired, dressed in deep black, Mrs. Liggett was accompanied by Robert Liggett of St. Paul, brother of her late husband.

The two key witnesses were brought to the county attorney's office as the afternoon session began. They were sequestered to protect them from the curious.

As they waited, in the courtroom some 20 feet away preliminary witnesses for the state, the coroner, morgue keeper, photographers, police, an apartment building janitor, gave the evidence building up to the climax of their testimony.

Indications late today were that Andersch, who was in the alley at the rear of an apartment opposite the murder scene, would be called ahead of the widow.

It was clearly evident at the morning session, in Pike's opening statement, that the state's entire case will rest on the testimony of Mrs. Liggett and Andersch.

Called Premeditated Crime.

"We will introduce evidence showing this was a premeditated, powerful and brutal murder," Pike said. "We will show there was an automobile occupied by at least two persons, one driving and the other operating an instrument of death, a machine gun.

"The identity of one man has been established sufficiently to warant the grand jury's naming him in an indictment," he went on, but the statement was ordered stricken from the record on objection of Thomas W. McMeekin, Blumenfeld's attorney. "We shall not be able to offer evidence as to the identity of the other man."

After describing events of the evening that Liggett was killed, Pike went on with: "Mrs. Liggett will show that the shooting was done by Blumenfeld."

Coroner First on Stand.

Coroner Gilbert Seashore, the first to testify, described how he arrived at the scene between 5:45 and 6 p. m. and found the body in a driveway alongside the apartment house where Liggett lived. He found five bullet holes, four of which might have caused death, he testified.

Pictures of the publisher's body and his bullet-pierced overcoat were offered in evidence. Four of the bullets had passed entirely through the body.

Testimony concerning the bullets was given by Morguekeeper John Anderson. Police testified to the time they had received notice of the murder.

W. H. Hartman, janitor of the building opposite the shooting scene, was put on the stand to describe the doorway through which Andersch stepped a moment before the slaying.

Birthday Today

[Associated Press Wirephoto.]

The third annual President's birthday ball will be held tonight in the International amphitheater, 43d and Halsted streets. In addition, 100 smaller parties will be held in various parts of the city by clubs and political organizations. Thirty per cent of the proceeds will be given to the Warm Springs, Ga., foundation for national research work in infantile paralysis while 70 per cent will be retained locally for distribution to hospitals engaged in infantile paralysis work.

The amphitheater program will begin at 8:30 p. m., with dancing to the music of several orchestras in the central hall. Stars of the radio and stage will be presented. Actors from the WLS barn dance program will entertain in the north wing and in the south hall a program of Catholic Youth organization boxing matches will be offered. Admission to the ball is $1. Tickets will be on sale at the amphitheater.

The day's festivities will begin in the city hall, when a huge cake will be auctioned by Corporation Counsel Barnet Hodes and Mayor Kelly will cut the first slice.

An estimate that $35,000 may be raised in Chicago this year was made by Col. A. A. Sprague, co-chairman of the ball committee. The sum last year was $23,000.

JUDGES DISCUSS COURT BUILDING TO SAVE SPACE

Judges representing the Circuit and Superior courts met yesterday and discussed the feasibility of construction of a downtown "hall of justice," which would house all of the county and Municipal courts, including the Criminal and Appellate benches, thus centralizing the judiciary and relieving overcrowded conditions in public buildings.

After the meeting, in the chambers of Circuit Judge Harry M. Fisher, it was announced that data will be collected on the proposal for study by the judges at another meeting to be held shortly. Judge Fisher said a survey will be made to find out how much rented space is being used by various governmental units in loop buildings not publicly owned, and what is the aggregate rental cost.

PAINTINGS AT NEW ART SHOW ROUSE PATRON'S WRATH

Atrocious! Awful! Says Mrs. F. G. Logan.

BY KAY HALL.

A rumble, such as the one which broke into a roar of criticism last November over the American exhibition at the Chicago Art Institute, was heard yesterday on the eve of the opening of the 40th annual exhibition by Chicago artists. Despite orders of Director Robert B. Harshe, who banned any subject that might be considered obscene, the exhibition already has drawn criticism from one of its most prominent patrons, Mrs. Frank G. Logan.

"Russian Dancer," by Constantine Pougialis, winner of the $500 chief prize, donated by Mrs. Logan and her husband, was called a "deformed female figure" by Mrs. Logan when she first viewed it several days ago. Yesterday when she shook hands with the artist, Mrs. Logan refrained from further criticism, but stated afterward:

"I am sorry that I can't feel very happy about the award."

Another Painting Assailed.

Besides "Russian Dancer," at least one other painting, "Colored Dance," seemed to be classed in Mrs. Logan's mind with "Lovers on a Stoop," "Beach," and "Three Attitudes of a Neurotic Man"—three works that figured prominently in last November's blast of criticism.

"Colored Dance," two highly daubed nudes dancing above the vague outlines of a sleeping dog, she termed "one of the atrocities of the show."

"With a few exceptions, the show is no better than the last one," said Mrs. Logan. "Most of these artists shown here are mentally incompetent, although there are a few lovely pictures.

"I'll give any one 5 cents if he can go in there and find a good picture," she added, indicating gallery G-56.

To this offer some one replied he didn't care to work so hard for a nickel.

"Crude" and "Awful."

Viewing the paintings, Mrs. Logan made frequent notations in her guidebook of "crude" an "awful," although a few brought the comment "splendid." Among those that found favor were "Along the Sandy Way," by Frank V. Dudley; "Past and Present," by Rudolph F. Ingerle, and "Fishermen," by Robert von Neuman, which won the $300 prize offered by Mr. and Mrs. Jule F. Brower.

Mrs. Logan said she had received hundreds of letters from all over the country supporting her protests against the type of art shown in the American exhibition last fall.

"Through such art I have learned more adjectives to depict lunacy, pathology, insanity, and moronism than have ever come to my attention before," she stated.

Hopes for Real Action.

"Some of us are trying to crystalize this protest into action so that once more there will be real encouragement for the artist who wants to be sincere and true. Not a single one of the 235 pictures of the American show found a purchaser and I wonder if any of these will. These pictures don't sell. Nobody wants them, but still they are hung."

It happened yesterday that the famous painting, "Song of the Lark," which was voted the most popular on exhibit at the Art institute during the World's Fair exhibition and which has been locked away from the public since that time, is to be still further relegated from public view.

Mr. Harshe refused THE TRIBUNE permission to photograph the painting for reproduction in color. A photographer who joined with Mrs. Logan in asking that it be brought up during her visit to the institute was likewise denied. "It is put away too securely," said a spokesman for Mr. Harshe.

[Eleanor Jewett's review of the Chicago artists' exhibition will be found in the feature section of this morning's Tribune.]

SUPREME COURT HAILED REFUGE AGAINST TYRANTS

Ex-NRA Official Lauds Tribunal.

Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Dr. Edward A. Fitzpatrick, former NRA director in Wisconsin and president of Mount Mary college, told the students in assembly today that the constitution safeguards political and individual liberty, forcing Americans to return often to fundamental principles.

"From Caesar Augustus to Mussolini, the essence of dictatorial power has developed from the concentration in one person of many offices. This has meant the concentration of legislative, executive and judicial powers of government.

Court Protects Minority.

"For minorities in politics and religion the Supreme court has always given a strong protection to their rights against a dominant majority.

"It was to the great credit of the framers of the constitution that they developed a system of government in which action was possible, but in which the independence of the legislative, executive and judicial branches was maintained. By checks and balances, their orderly consideration of public questions was provided. It also provided for self-criticism by the government.

Finds Results Good.

"For more than a hundred years now this plan has worked effectively. There always has been an age in which the Supreme court has been attacked. The Supreme court maintains within the government a happy situation. It is not involved in the partisan conflicts which beset the congress and the President. Its term of office is for life.

"Unfortunately congress often passes laws and sometimes executives urge congress to pass laws which are questionable from the standpoint of the constitution, in order that the 'buck' may be passed to the Supreme court.

"There always is a way to remedy a situation resulting from the unconstitutionality of an act, and that is either by providing a better method of doing it, or by amending the constitution."

'BIG NAVY' PLAN PUSHED BEFORE LONDON PARLEY

35,000 Ton Warships Get British Approval.

LONDON, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The four-power naval conference made definite progress toward an agreement on the sizes of ships and calibers of guns today when the Americans, French, and Italians accepted a new British compromise plan as a basis for discussion.

The plan proposes battleships with a maximum of 35,000 tons, the existing limits; 14 inch guns instead of the present 16 inch ones, which would be eliminated; and an entirely separate category for destroyers, placing them in a classification with small cruisers.

Major reductions in naval tonnage saving the taxpayers real money, which the powers have talked about for several years, are now regarded by them as impossible because of the unsettled condition of world affairs and Japan's recent withdrawal from the conference.

The British said they hoped the conference, which resumed sessions today for the first time since the death of their King George, would decide to shave down some of the proposed maximum figures. But naval experts believed any alteration probably will be slight.

Reduce Aircraft Carriers.

The British proposal is understood to correspond roughly with limitations under the expiring Washington and London treaties. In addition to those on capital ships, these limitations were said to be:

Aircraft carriers—Maximum tonnage 22,000 with 6.1 inch guns, compared with the present maximum of 27,000 tons and 8 inch guns:

Category A, cruisers—No further construction during the term of the agreement but consideration for replacements to present ships.

Category B, cruisers and armed destroyers—Continuation of present limitation to maximum of 7,500 to 8,000 tons with 6.1 inch guns.

Destroyers were eliminated as a separate type ship because the French and Italians, who are not bound by some of the existing treaty limitations, built destroyers above the treaty maximum of 1,850 tons.

U. S. Wants Age Limit Raised.

Abolition of submarines not only was dropped but even a reduction in their size seems to have been abandoned, for they were listed as unchanged from present limitations.

Norman H. Davis, head of the American delegation, urged the conference to consider extending the official life of battleships from the present 20 years to 26 years.

He said the United States had wanted to reduce the numbers of battleships and other types by 20 per cent, but, taken as a whole, the British plan was acceptable to it as a basis for discussion, although some individual items would "require further study."

Viscount Monsell, first lord of the British admiralty, said he felt the plan was such as would attract outside powers, meaning Japan, Germany and Russia.

Two Japanese attended the session as observers for the first time since the Tokio delegation withdrew because its demand for parity was not met.

ST. PAUL ORDERS ALL FELONS TO 'SIGN IN' UPON THEIR ARRIVAL

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 29.—(AP)—The city council today passed an ordinance requiring all persons who have been convicted of felonies in the last ten years to register and be finger printed at police headquarters upon arrival here.

H. E. Warren, public safety commissioner, explained this would make it possible to keep closer check on known criminals.

Penalty for failure to comply is 90 days in jail or a fine of $100 with each day's delay considered a separate offense.

Expect 20,000 to Take Test for Patrolmen Vacancies

John P. Harding, president of the city civil service commission, said yesterday that examinations for police patrolmen will be held within a few weeks. Mr. Harding expects 40,000 men will apply for the tests, of whom about 20,000 will take them. The number of patrolmen vacancies has not yet been determined. Police Matron Margaret M. Wiltz and Policeman John O'Meara, assigned to the trafic division, retired yesterday, having reached the age limit of 63 years.

The 8th WOMAN
... her advantage over others

THERE used to be eight million sufferers every month. Today, a million women escape this regular martyrdom to pain. So why be miserable—or even uncomfortable? Be that eighth woman who lets Midol carry her serenely through those difficult days!

Midol is a tiny tablet, white and tasteless. A merciful medicine which specialists recommend for this very purpose. It is not a narcotic.

Must you favor yourself, and save yourself, certain days of every month? Nature doesn't keep the woman who uses Midol off the links—or from all the other strenuous activities. It means freedom!

This truly remarkable medicine is taken any time, preferably just before the expected pain. This precaution often avoids the pain altogether. But Midol is effective even when the pain has caught you unaware and has reached its height. It is effective for hours, so two tablets should carry you through your worst day.

Remember, the smallest degree of relief you might get from Midol means a great deal to your comfort.

You get these tablets in a trim little aluminum case. All druggists have them—they're usually right out on the toilet goods counter. If you are now a periodic sufferer, why not become that eighth woman who escapes this recurring pain and discomfort? Address a card, now, to Midol, 170 Varick St., New York, and receive a trial box postpaid.

Alkalize Your Stomach This Way in a Few Minutes

I ADVISE ALL MY PATIENTS TO "ALKALIZE" EXCESS STOMACH ACIDS WITH PHILLIPS' MILK OF MAGNESIA—(IT'S WONDERFULLY EFFECTIVE.)

You can relieve even the most annoying symptoms of acid stomach in almost as little time as it takes to tell.

Take—2 teaspoonfuls of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia 30 minutes after meals. OR—take 2 Phillips' Milk of Magnesia Tablets, the exact equivalent.

That's all you do! Relief comes in a few minutes. Your stomach is alkalized—soothed. Nausea, and upset distress quickly disappear . . . It's amazing.

Results come so fast because Phillips' Milk of Magnesia is a potent natural alkalizer. Everywhere people—urged to keep their stomach alkalized—are finding this out.

Try it. Get a bottle of the liquid Phillips' for home use. Only 25¢ for a big box of Phillips' Tablets to carry with you. Watch out that any box or bottle you accept is clearly marked "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia."

SIGNS WHICH OFTEN INDICATE "ACID STOMACH"

Pain after eating	Frequent Headaches
Indigestion	Feeling of Weakness
Nausea	Sleeplessness
Loss of Appetite	Mouth Acidity
Auto-Intoxication	Sour Stomach

PHILLIPS' MILK OF MAGNESIA • In Liquid or Tablet Form

REQUIEM MASS FOR MOTHER SUNG BY BISHOP SHEIL

Mayor Kelly Heads Officials at Funeral.

Public officials, headed by Mayor Kelly, and representatives of every parish and religious order of the Catholic archdiocese of Chicago yesterday attended the funeral of Mrs. Rosella Bartley Sheil, mother of the Most Rev. Bernard J. Sheil, senior auxiliary bishop of the archdiocese.

The services were conducted by Bishop Sheil at St. Columbkille church, 1646 West Grand avenue, at the same altar before which his parents were wed and where he offered his first mass after ordination. The bishop, who was his mother's only son, celebrated solemn requiem mass and pronounced the final benediction.

Cathedral Choir Sings.

The funeral sermon was preached by the Very Rev. J. P. O'Mahoney, provincial of the Viatorian order of Priests in the United States. Under the direction of the Rev. Edwin V. Hoover, archdiocesan director of church music and choirs, the Holy Name Cathedral choir and the choir of priests of the archdiocese sang during the services.

The body of Mrs. Sheil, who died Sunday morning, at the age of 71, was taken to St. Columbkill's from her home at 1420 Lake Shore drive. Interment was in All Saints cemetery. The services at the grave were conducted by the Rev. George McCarthy, pastor of St. Margaret Mary church.

Many Other Services.

In addition to the services conducted over the casket, requiem masses were offered in many other churches, chapels, and institutions of the archdiocese.

Among these attending the funeral were delegations of the Associated Catholic charities, the Holy Name society, the Catholic Youth organization, the Knights of Columbus, the Catholic Circle, the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and the St. Vincent De Paul society.

Cardinal Mundelein, who was unable to be in Chicago for the services, sent a personal message of condolence to Bishop Sheil.

DELAY DECISION ON SCHOOL HEAD'S $9,954 SHORTAGE

The school board, sitting as a civil service trial committee, yesterday heard charges against Charles S. Winslow, suspended principal of the Lake View Evening school, who has been found $9,954 short in the evening school tuition collections. A decision on whether or not he will be dismissed was deferred until next week. Winslow is under Criminal court indictment in an embezzlement charge.

Frank R. Schneberger, attorney for the board, read a confession signed at the time the shortage was disclosed. Attorney D. A. Covelli, appearing for Winslow, objected to the confession on the ground that the tuition collections belonged to students and not to the board, but he was overruled. In response to a question from James B. McCahey, president of the board, Attorney Covelli said the shortage would be repaid next Tuesday from contributions of fellow teachers.

If Winslow is discharged from school board employment, where he has served for 29 years, he will still be eligible for an annual pension of $1,200.

The board discharged Mrs. Mary Conroy, 36 years old, from her position as a school stenographer. She was suspended last November after pleading guilty in Municipal court to charges of obtaining money under false pretenses. A church organist, J. Edward Gordon, 4441 Lowe avenue, testified at a Municipal court hearing that he paid Mrs. Conroy $1,000 on her promise to get him a job as music supervisor in the schools.

C.E.FRANKENTHAL WIDOW IS DEAD; CHARITY LEADER

Mrs. Tillie S. Frankenthal, 67 years old, a leader in Chicago women's clubs and charitable movements for many years, died yesterday in the Michael Reese hospital after a long illness. She was the widow of Charles E. Frankenthal, a broker, who was the son of Emanuel Frankenthal, a Chicago pioneer. Her home was at 3800 Lake Shore drive.

During the world war Mrs. Frankenthal was a member of the National League for Women's Service and was chairman of the finance committee of the woman's committee of the state council of defense. At that time she was called "the tag day lady" of Chicago.

Surviving is her daughter, Mrs. Irma Shaw. Funeral services will be held at 10 a. m. tomorrow from the chapel at 936 East 47th street. Burial will be in Rosehill cemetery.

Erie, Modern Man of War, Is Launched at Brooklyn

New York, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The U. S. S. Erie, one of the first modern gunboats to be built by the navy, was launched at the navy yard in Brooklyn today. The new craft is intended for use in West Indian and Asiatic waters. Built at a cost of $2,000,000, it is 328.5 feet long [somewhat larger than a destroyer] and capable of developing a speed of 20 knots. It is armed with four 6-inch guns and carries a crew of 145 enlisted men, 45 marines, 11 officers, and a paymaster. The master will be Commander Edward W. Hanson.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: Something On His Mind

OH, GEORGE! IT'S ALL LIKE A DREAM— A TRIP AROUND THE WORLD FOR OUR HONEYMOON— NOW I KNOW HOW CINDERELLA MUST HAVE FELT—
EH?
OH— THE HONEYMOON— THE TRIP AROUND THE WORLD— WHY, THE BEST ISN'T HALF FINE ENOUGH FOR YOU, DARLING----
GEORGE, YOU'RE SO PALE— AND YOU SEEM SO ABSTRACTED— DON'T YOU FEEL WELL? ARE YOU WORRIED ABOUT SOMETHING?
ME? WORRIED? HA! HA! OF COURSE NOT, JANEY— WHAT COULD I POSSIBLY HAVE TO WORRY ABOUT NOW?
TO THE OFFICE, AND STEP ON IT— I'LL SQUARE ANY PINCHES FOR LIGHTS OR SPEEDING LATER—
YES SIR, MR. GAMBLE—

Alfred Conway Peyton, 56 years old, former Chicago artist, died Tuesday at his home in Gloucester, Mass., according to dispatches yesterday. Born in India, he studied art there and in England. Surviving is his widow, Mrs. Bertha Menzler Peyton, well known Chicago and New York painter.

FIVE PAY FINES FOR FAILURE TO BUY AUTO TAGS

Ten cases before Municipal Judge J. M. Braude yesterday charged failure to have 1936 city license stickers on their automobile windshields. Five defendants paid fines of $1 plus $1 costs. They are John Keller, 3309 North Kildare avenue; Ernest Jarson, 3237 North Kilbourn avenue; Berton Newburger, 6719 Clyde avenue; Edward Schran, 1016 North Fulton street, and Earl Schultz, 227 West Harrison street. All bought stickers after their arrests.

One defendant, William Poggi, 1047 North Oakley boulevard, failed to appear in response to a summons and a warant was issued for his arrest.

The tenth defendant was freed because he showed he possessed a city sticker but had postponed attaching it until a cracked windshield was replaced.

After a conference with Robert B. Upham, city controler, Police Commissioner James P. Allman yesterday instructed his men to intensify their campaign against motorists who lack city or state licenses. Since Jan. 21, when the campaign opened, the police have been arresting about 100 offenders a day.

GEORGIA CHAIN GANG FUGITIVE BEGS FOR MERCY

Charles Thomas, alias Jack Williams, 22 years old, a fugitive from a Georgia chain gang, was arrested by Chicago detectives last Monday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Thelma Brennan, 1220 North Clark street. Yesterday he appeared before Judge Matthew D. Hartigan in Felony court to fight extradition and told the court he faced "certain death" if he is sent back to Georgia.

Thomas, who was represented by Attorney Arnold Harris, gave the court a vivid picture of life on a chain gang. He said he was forced to work in the burning sun with a 75 pound steel ball shackled to his legs. He charged that 12 men were herded together in a steel cage so small that when officials placed a 13th man in it they were forced to stand on the only bed in the cage.

The fugitive said he was railroaded to prison on a charge of robbery after a drunken brawl. Judge Hartigan continued the hearing until Feb. 14 when Attorney Harris told the court he intended to petition Gov. Horner to refuse extradition.

FUNERAL TODAY FOR E. C. LOTT, 89, VETERAN OF '65

Funeral services for Edward C. Lott, 89 years old, who died Monday at the Edward Hines Jr. hospital, Maywood, will be held this afternoon in De Kalb, Ill. Mr. Lott, a civil war veteran, was born in Wyoming county, Pa. He engaged in gold mining for a number of years in Montana, then in 1876 started in business at De Kalb as general manager of the I. L. Ellwood Manufacturing company. When the company merged with the American Steel and Wire company Mr. Lott came to Chicago as district manager. He was at one time president of the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence Transportation company. Later he became chairman of the board of trustees of the Black Diamond Oil company, which failed in 1919 for $44,000,000.

News of the Radio Stations

BY LARRY WOLTERS.

The folks down in Waters, Ark., an Ozark village of 250 which is in reality the scene of Lum and Abner's mythical "Pine Ridge," have petitioned postal authorities to have the name officially changed to Pine Ridge. Since there is no other post office by that name in the postal directory for the state they expect the request to be granted.

Waters is in the western part of the state, 20 miles from Mena, the home town of Chester Lauck and Norris Goff, who play Lum and Abner. Goff was once a grocery salesman. One of his customers was a chap by the name of Dick Huddleston in Waters. Dick Huddleston is one of their characters in their serial adventures revolving about their Pine Ridge "Jot 'Em Down" store. Huddleston and his fellow villagers have followed Lum and Abner through the years in their rise to fame and fortune. And now they have decided they want to do them honor by changing the name of their home town.

Morrison Wood, W-G-N production man, was casting about for a satisfactory actor to play the part of an Italian restaurateur who had been written into the serial "Rich Man's Darling." He tried out several prospects, but none was satisfactory. Then he remembered that Richard Ricardo, the proprietor of an eating establishment on Rush street, had once told him that he had been an actor back in Italy. He sent out a call for him and thus Ricardo made his bow as a radio actor yesterday.

Tulsa will be listening in to the "Listen to This" broadcast over W-G-N and MBS at 8:30 tonight. Deon Craddock, songstress on the show, comes from Tulsa; Ken Griffen, the announcer, used to claim it as home, and tonight the harmonists "Judy and Her Jesters," who are Bob and Scott Hunt and Dorothy Matson, also from the Oklahoma metropolis, will be guests on the show.

Now that Mrs. Phil Baker has joined the practice of radio comedians' wives of appearing with her husband on the air Mrs. Eddie Cantor remains the major holdout. "Ida," Eddie has explained, "is looking around for a commercial show of her own." Jack Benny and Mary Livingstone, George Burns and Gracie Allen, Fred Allen and Portland Hoffa, Jane and Goodman Ace all have clicked together. Nevertheless Mrs. Baker has decided that she won't go in for radio regularly.

"Working for my husband," she explained, "I wouldn't get any money for it!"

A broadcast of the Yale-Fort Sheridan polo match from the 124th Field Artillery armory is to be made by WIND beginning at 10 o'clock tonight. . . . The new Olsen-Shutta series will start Feb. 24 instead of Feb. 1, as stated yesterday.

A new show designed to attract eavesdroppers is the "For Women Only" series to be started over WCFL at 12:45 p. m. next Monday. With microphone under his arm Don Norman will take a position on Randolph street in front of the Old Heidelberg at this same hour, except Saturday and Sunday, stopping women shoppers and putting to them informal questions submitted by radio listeners.

Throng to See Yale in Polo Match Tonight

Many Will Entertain at Box Parties.

BY JUDITH CASS.

NOT only Yale alumni, but polo fans as well, will find their way to the 124th Field Artillery armory tonight to watch a game between the Yale polo team and a team from Fort Sheridan. Families who have sons, or have had sons at the Culver Military academy also will find the evening's program of interest for there are to be two periods of polo between Culver's team and a team from the 124th. And for those who like polo, but who are more interested in other phases of skilled horsemanship there will be a thrilling exhibition of fancy riding including an exhibition of mounted drill with 75 mm. guns. In this last drill all the lights will be turned out for intricate maneuvers through flares at high speed.

The Yale-Fort Sheridan game is not scheduled to start until after 9 o'clock, allowing plenty of time for all dinner hosts and their guests to see every minute of play. Unfortunately the young men coming from New Haven will not be able to accept any hospitality here for they do not arrive until after 5 o'clock this afternoon and they are leaving tonight after the game for Cleveland where they are to play tomorrow. During the hours that intervene between their arrival and the game they will be at the armory for practice and to become acquainted with their mounts.

It is not practicable for a team to bring its own ponies that distance for only one game, but when the national East-West championships are played here from March 28 to April 4 Winston Guest, "Mike" Phipps, "Jimmy" Mills, and others on the eastern team will bring their own ponies for the three games, of course.

Experienced Team to Play for Yale.

Playing for Yale tonight will be Robert E. Lee Wilson, at No. 1, captain of the team who lives in Wilson, Ark. Now in his senior year, he was prepared at Aiken and St. Paul's, and has been playing polo since 1924. Peter H. and Bayard Dominick II., who entered Yale together three years ago after graduating from St. Marks, will play at No. 2 and defense, respectively. "Pete" was captain of Yale's freshman team, and he and his brother play at Ox Ridge, Conn., in the summer. William B. Rrand Jr., a senior, plays either at No. 1 or defense position. He comes from Salisbury, Conn., and has played two summers with the Lebanon Valley Polo club in New York, and for one summer with the Greenbrier team at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

The Fort Sheridan players do not need much introduction to Chicagoans for they are well known here. Playing will be Maj. Richard G. Hunter, Lieut. Col. Harry D. Chamberlin, and Capt. Larry G. Smith.

Yale graduates will be especially well represented among the boxholders, led by Frederick L. McNally, president of the Yale Scholarship trust which will benefit by the polo game. Mr. and Mrs. McNally will entertain at dinner at the University club before driving out to the armory at 51st street and Cottage Grove avenue.

Others who are entertaining at box parties include Edison Dick, William B. Derby, Kent S. Clow, Albert F. Madlener Jr., Edward C. Sumner Jr., M. Paul Noyes, William P. Martin Jr., Ernest S. Ballard, Anthony Haines, Gilbert Scribner III., Col. Charles C. Haffner, who, with Mrs. Haffner, will give a large dinner first in the officers' club at the armory; Henry A. Gardner, William T. Bacon, Robert A. Gardner, John R. Winterbotham, Edmund B. Bartlett, Robert Stevenson, Lucius B. Manning, Nelson L. Barnes, Louis T. Jaques, Huntington Eldridge, Mrs. Frank J. Bersbach, John V. Farwell III., John C. Sturtevant, Thomas E. Donnelley, Gaylord Donnelley, J. Beach Clow, Stanley G. Harris, Robert E. Spiel, Mrs. Robert T. Devitt, and Harry A. Knott Jr.

Plush Horse Party to Last All Evening.

One of the largest parties to be given before the game will be a plush horse party sponsored by the Chicago Equestrian association, an organization responsible for many of the bridle paths in Chicago, and which has been rather quiet lately. The party, to be given at the Hotel Sherman, will continue all evening, so those who leave dinner to watch the polo game may return later to

Bouquet Hats Help You Defy Cold Weather

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Adventurous souls don flowered hats as a defiant gesture toward weather reports and wintry blasts and seem to have a grand time.

We found a midwinter assortment of such glories, and assure the most skeptical shopper that it's a good way to get your mind off chapped hands and feet. These flowering tops are everything they sound. Color and flowers and much of both!

For instance, one cerise-red felt has violets and roses tied on with a carmine velvet bow. Another hat of deep blue has a corsage of blue violets deftly placed at the tip of the crown to give height, and a coy little bouquet of the same flowers nestling under your chin. Another small topper has a bouquet of red roses centered at the crown.

All of them are the smallest sized bits of headgear you've ever spent your money to own, sort of the bonnet type like Granny used to wear. These models are minus the bonnet strings, but have all the feminine allure tiny hats always achieve. If you are sick of brims, felts, and plain pluggy chunks of millinery, you'll find these flowered trimmed models just as fascinating as we did.

Note for the gadget collector . . . In the same shop that boasts the above mentioned hats will be found the newest pin to wear on your chest pocket, both as a decoration and as a telling device for weather conditions. It is called the thermosport, and it registers the temperature. It's even guaranteed to take a plunge in the pool and come out still registering the weather.

Likewise, it goes north for winter sports, and assures the already shivering owner that the best way to stay warm is to get into action.

A tiny scarlet spot in the center of the case makes it a decorative idea. In size it is about the area of a quarter and about a quarter of an inch thick. It really works, so you should have a good time with the spectators.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt N. Crouk of Catskill, N. Y., formerly of Hinsdale, Ill., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Theodore L. Van Loan of East Orange, N. J., son of Charles L. Van Loan of Catskill and Mrs. Cole Van Loan of Albany.

Gowns Make Jaques Nuptials Unusual Event

Bride Is Attired in Ice Blue Satin.

It is a pity that because of Louis T. Jaques' illness more of the Jaques' friends could not have been present last night to witness the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Jaques' daughter, Lois Thurley, to Peter Gyala Sandor Mero of Budapest, Hungary, for the bride and her two sisters, Miss Anna Ri and Miss Abbie Jane, wore such unusual and lovely gowns.

The ceremony was read at 8:30 o'clock by the Rev. Alfred N. Newbery of the Church of the Atonement in the living room of the Jaques residence in Kenmore avenue, in the presence of the immediate family, and a dozen or so close friends of the family came in afterwards to wish Mr. Mero and his bride happiness.

The bride wore a gown of ice blue satin, made in the simplest manner possible with a collar that stood up and rolled back rather like a calla lily blossom. The cuffs on the dress were treated similarly, and the long rose point lace veil which fell nearly to the end of the long train was fastened to a little crown of the same lace. She carried white orchids and lilies of the valley.

The two attendants, who are slightly taller than their dark haired sister, wore slim gowns of soft green made with the same calla lily treatment of the collars and with the skirts caught up into three soft folds. Two streamers of soirose red started at the point of the neckline in front of each gown and swept around the bodice to tie in back and fall to the floor in a little train. They wore hats of ostrich feathers to match the streamers, and carried bouquets of talisman roses.

Mr. Mero and his bride are remaining in Chicago until they sail for Europe on Feb. 12 on the Washington to make their home in Budapest where they met last summer.

Miss Marice Murphy is giving a party for them Saturday afternoon at the opening tea-dance at the Key club, and on Sunday the new Mrs. Mero will assist her sister, Miss Anna Ri, at a cocktail party Miss Jaques is giving for Miss Mary Wood of England who is visiting Miss Murphy.

It is expected that business will bring Mr. Mero to this country at least once a year, so although the bride will be living abroad she will not lose touch completely with her Chicago friends.

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

Women who are plagued with the problem of supersensitive skins and who find their troubles multiplied tenfold during the winter time should try a cream that was designed especially for them. If the ravages of wind and cold have brought untoward signs of flakiness, newly acquired fine lines, and that harsh, drawn feeling, this cream is a top-notch softener.

It is not greasy, yet it is rich in ingredients that lubricate and soothe. The parched epidermis is softened and refined as they are absorbed, and when the cream has been gently and thoroughly massaged into the skin the surface is left supple, petal-soft, and a whole lot closer to normal than it has been in a long time.

Not only is it a softener, but it is marvelously healing to the tender or irritated skin, and it's a grand ally against chapping, whether used as preventive or as cure.

Another distinct virtue of this product is the fact that it makes an ideal powder base and one that definitly combats any tendency toward dryness. If a faint film of the cream is left on the skin the addition of powder produces a serene and matlike surface that is most flattering.

This cream is not scented, since many skins are irritated by perfumes, yet there is a very faint but delightful odor that we can only describe as something of a cross between vanilla and almond. The scent, however, comes from the fine ingredients themselves and has not been artificially added. As to color, it's a faint beige — reminiscent of maple ice cream. We think you'll like it.

LEARNING, from the University of Chicago's pink Tower Topics, that Mr. Raney, director of libraries, refused to deviate from his custom of walking to the Quadrangle club for luncheon without hat or earmuffs during the subzero weather brought to mind the bus rider who sat opposite a girl named Katha White on the trip downtown from Lincoln park. Wearing woolens and fur lined galoshes, her chin tucked into her coat collar, Miss White pushed a dime into the box with tingling fingers and sat down. Across the aile was a man in a brown suit, without hat, overcoat, galoshes, muffler, or gloves. He grasped a cane firmly in one hand, and just as firmly, in the other, a transfer. There was on his face a look of pity for the blue nosed and shivering mortals about him.

REMEMBER the story about the dinner napkin that had been used by the late Emperor Franz Josef of Austria, now in the possession of Mrs. Philip Maher? The napkin used by King Edward VIII. when he, as prince of Wales, was a luncheon guest at Hutchinson commons at the University of Chicago, is framed under glass in a serving tray, and is a souvenir of the royal visit belonging to one of the two experts who planned the luncheon that October day in 1934, Miss Sawin and Miss Pope. The other one chose as her souvenir the salad fork he had used, since that was the only course he really ate, having preferred to smoke and visit with his hosts through most of the luncheon. [One hundred and twenty-two alligator pears ($49.80) were used in the salad.]

HUMOR at an unexpected moment is doubly admirable. We never have forgotten the first comment of a friend upon returning to consciousness after a major operation following a critical illness. A man who never took exercise, he kept late hours, drank overmuch, and was, on the whole, considered a dissipated fellow. As he opened his eyes his wife, leaning over him, murmured: "Well, you've come through that beautifully." He smiled feebly and answered: "Clean living will tell."

THIS incident brought to mind a grimmer witticism encountered in reading Claude Bowers' "The Tragic Era." Thaddeus Stevens, implacable enemy of President Andrew Johnson, was on his deathbed. A visitor made an observation on his appearance, and the old man commented that it was not his appearance but his disappearance that was troubling him.

Journalist Asserts English Are Pinning Peace Hope on League

Great Britain today intends to throw the full weight of her influence behind the league of nations in order to keep peace in Europe, Sir Arthur Willert, British journalist and former member of the foreign office, told 250 members of the English-Speaking union at a dinner last evening at the Blackstone hotel.

Self-preservation governs this comparatively new pro-league policy, which has displaced two foreign secretaries and placed a third in power since 12,000,000 Englishmen expressed their sentiments in the so-called peace ballot last spring, Sir Arthur observed. Public opinion, as expressed in that ballot, holds that unless Britain acts to prevent war she either will be drawn into war or economically ruined by war.

Great Britain already has joined the sherif's posse to the extent of urging sanctions to keep the peace, Sir Arthur pointed out. The next step may be to offer economic redress to the "have-nots" who suffer from the tarif boundaries and the diminished markets resulting from the Versailles treaty.

"The eyes of all Europe are on two countries, England and Germany. The question mark over Germany is, 'When will she fight?'"

Institute Show Soft Pedals the Moderns

Critic Sees Lesson Taught by Public Protest.

BY ELEANOR JEWETT.

Apparently the Art institute has profited by the lesson it received last fall when the American show was snowed under by public disapproval, for the soft pedal has been put upon modernism in the Fortieth Annual Artists' of Chicago and Vicinity exhibition which opens today in the temporary galleries of the museum.

It is rumored that Director Robert B. Harshe warned the jury that some of the paintings submitted would not do and they were unanimously rejected on the grounds of keeping the show clean.

Whoever directed the affair, the result speaks for itself. There is practically no vulgarity among the paintings and the exhibition is fairly well divided between the modern and nonmodern artists. What modern pictures are present are not objectionable. Two typical modernist compositions, "The Old Mansion Is No Longer Vacant," by A. Kenneth Ness, and "The River," by Francis Chapin, are so absurd that they are funny. Paul Trebilcock, academic, has gone frightfully soft, and Ivan Le Lorraine Albright and Zsissly [brothers] have arrived at some stunning painting in still life.

A large list of well known nonmodern names is found in the present show. Among them are Oskar Gross, Walter Krawiec, Frank V. Dudley, Pauline Palmer, Frank Gavencky, Rudolph Ingerle, Frederic Tellander, Cora Bliss Taylor, Nina K. Griffin, Louis Grell, Joseph Allworthy, J. Jeffery Grant, Holger W. Jensen, Karl A. Buehr, Richard A. Chase, Edgar Cameron, Frances Foy, and Edithe Jane Cassidy.

The prizes were announced at the artists' dinner last night in the Art institute. The most conspicuous award to modern painting was that of the Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Logan Art institute medal and $500 to Constantine Pougialis for "Russian Dancer." It is a dark canvas, mannered, labored, unpleasant and runs directly contrary to Mrs. Logan's expressed preference in painting. On the other hand, Pougialis is considered well in modern art circles and has had considerable success in New York. This painting is among those invited to the Texas Centennial by Director Harshe.

The Mr. and Mrs. Jule F. Brower prize of $300 went to "Fisherman" by Robert von Neumann, a strong canvas. The prize of the Chicago Artists' Annual ball of $200 was given to "Young Chorus Girl" by Lester O. Schwartz [modernist type and weak].

The Joseph N. Eisendrath prize of $100 was awarded to Gertrude Abercrombie [modern] for "There on the Table." The Clyde M. Carr prize of $100 went to William S. Schwartz [modern] for "Dancing the Blues Away." The Chicago Woman's Aid prize of $100 went to Edith Boynton Harmon for "Guernsey Cows," a bas-relief in plaster [conservative].

The Municipal Art league prize of $100 went to Louis Grell for "Portrait of the Artist, Moessel" [conservative]. The Robert Rice Jenkins Memorial prize of $50 was awarded to John F. Stenvall for "Home Sweet Home" [WPA American scene modern].

The exhibition will continue to March 1.

Ancient Stone Reveals Oldest Known Psalm

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 29.—(AP)—The discovery of the earliest known written psalm was announced tonight by Dr. Julian J. Obermann, professor of Semitic languages at Yale.

Dr. Obermann revealed that a cuneiform inscription of about 1500 B. C., which had puzzled scientists since its discovery several years ago at Ras Shamra in northern Syria, was the earliest known written psalm.

The Yale authority added that through the discovery it now was possible to establish the source of Hebrew psalmody of some thousand years later.

Dr. Obermann said that he now had established that the literary expressions of prayer came from a center "next door" to Palestine.

He added: "The language of the tablet is that of the Canaanites, who possessed a flourishing literature during the middle of the second pre-Christian millennium, about 1500 B. C. This was about the time when, according to tradition, Moses is said to have first molded into being the national religion of the Hebrews.

"Roughly speaking, the psalm on the tablet as a whole falls into three sections—ritual, supplicatory, and hymnal. The liturgy begins with lines unmistakably pertaining to a ritual in which two animals are being offered for sacrifice, 'a bull for the king, a sheep for the people.'

"The next section is one of prayer and supplication, plain and simple; lines of impatient invocation to El [Deity]. The priest and community both pray for El's blessing and aid.

"Finally, there comes the third section, comparable to the hallelujah litanies in the annals of our own church."

Pike Re-Elected President of Historical Society

Reuter Gives Piano Recital at Goodman

Barry Praises Poetic Style and Deep Feeling.

BY EDWARD BARRY.

Rudolph Reuter, Chicago pianist, played a recital at the Goodman theater last night under the auspices of Gamma chapter of Phi Beta. His program ranged from early Beethoven to the works of living men.

Mr. Reuter has an excellent ear for tonal effects and a naturally poetic style. In interpreting music in which he feels that he has a clear historical right to make full use of these endowments, he plays with finish and deep feeling. An example is the Schumann Lento, a still better one the richly textured A Flat Ballade of Chopin.

In the rarely performed C Major Sonata [from Beethoven's first set of three] the pianist strives conscientiously to maintain the traditional tempos even at the sacrifice of some clarity and beauty of tone.

There is much to be said in favor of his view of the matter, but another school of thought would argue that the modern piano is not suited to light 18th century passage work in the original tempos and that a slight concession to the present instrument's character in the shape of a slackening of the time will pay enough dividends in increased tonal attractiveness to more than balance the historical inaccuracy that may result.

Mr. Reuter has a fine feeling for melodic dignity and distinction. The middle section of the Schumann Novelette was splendidly romantic and thoroughly in the idiom of the composer. He keeps his mechanical dexterity in the background, even in those tempting C sharp minor pages of the Chopin Ballade, and makes it subservient at all times to his interpretative ideas.

Ruth De Young Tells Press Women Ability and Not Sex Counts

Topeka, Kas., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Typewriters are sexless and women who hope to succeed in newspaper work must strive to write better than the men in their offices, Miss Ruth De Young, woman's editor of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, told members of the Kansas Press Women's club at their annual breakfast here today.

Admitting that the women described by Stanley Walker in "City Editor" as "sloppy in their style, unwilling to take the time to look up names and initials and depending upon a man about the office for information," do exist, Miss De Young maintained that more women than ever before are being accepted by metropolitan newspapers and assigned to cover not only women's activities, but general news.

I'll Never Tell

By Roy Vickers

SYNOPSIS.

Torrance Esdale, young Englishwoman, asks her American employer, Hartlandt Massiter, to give Gerald Saranack, her childhood sweetheart, an engineering job in Mexico. Then Torrance learns that Gerald has married an English girl in Spain. She secretly gains entrance to Hillfoot, the home of Gerald's Uncle Julius, to retrieve a letter. She hears voices, hides, and watches as a girl secretes some jewels behind a brick in the fireplace. When the girl and her companion leave Torrance calls the police, then leaves, not wishing to explain her presence. When Gerald brings his bride to see her next day she recognizes Annabelle, his wife, as the same girl she had seen in Uncle Julius' house and at the hour it was later discovered Uncle Julius was murdered, though Annabelle and Gerald were supposed to have been in Paris. Gerald confesses to Torrance he still loves her, but he thinks Annabelle needs his protection. Torrance confides in Massiter, who unearths a motive for the crime. In his youth Julius Saranack befriended John Ellister. Later Ellister grew enormously wealthy through Mexican mines and made a will leaving everything to Uncle Julius. Massister and Torrance fly to Paris, where Ellister resides. There Torrance is followed by a rat-faced man with a falsetto voice and huge hands. They discover Ellister has also been murdered. Torrance rushes back to warn Gerald, who is next in line to inherit the fortune. She accepts an invitation to stay at Hillfoot. Annabelle had been employed as governess by the Vanderlems. Torrance calls on them and recognizes Vanderlem as the man who had followed her in Paris. In vain Torrance tries to convince Gerald of his danger.

INSTALMENT XXII.

THE MISSING DIAMONDS.

It was Torrance now who was affecting Gerald. His hand trembled as he led a card.

Torrance deliberated long, struggled against the dread lest he would not trust her. She laid down a card and then:

"How much do you trust me?"

"Absolutely. All the way. But it doesn't mean I always accept your conclusions."

"I trust you all the way, too. I'm just going to do it. . . . That mystery woman who rang up the police——"

It was the catch in her voice that told him.

"My God—you!"

"Go on pretending to play or I shall go mad. Listen. I was in the house while Uncle Julius was being murdered. Or at least within a few minutes of it. I don't know. I didn't know he was murdered until you told me yourself.

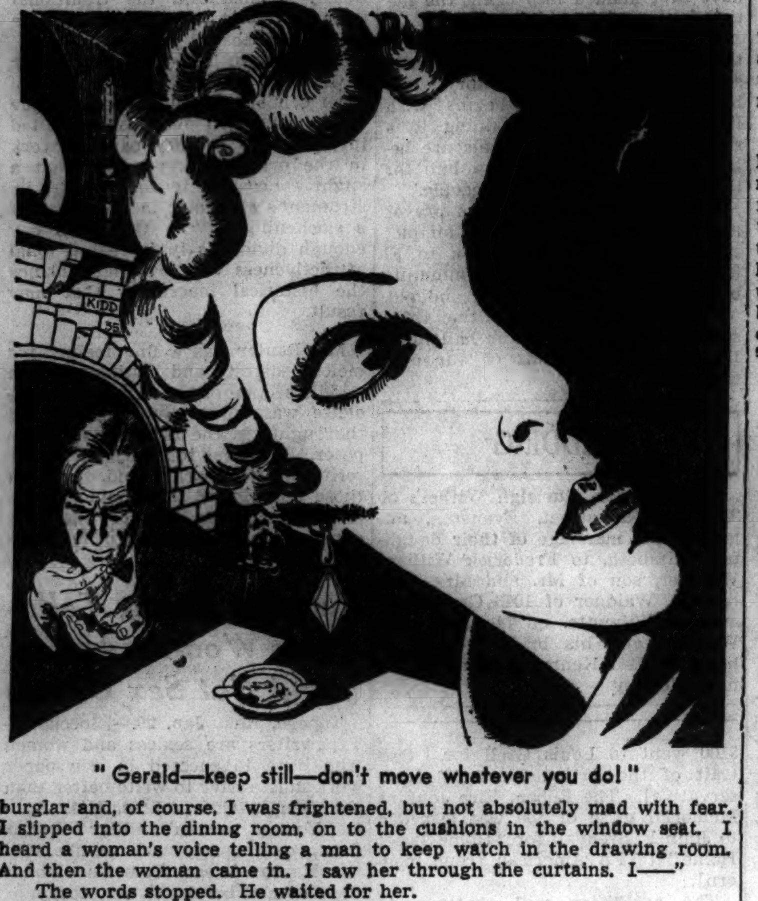
"I came into the house—quietly—as the clock was striking 9—through the pantry window."

"Why?"

"It doesn't matter. I'll never tell you. But at least you'll never persuade yourself that I came to murder Uncle Julius."

"Well?"

"I heard some one moving upstairs. I thought it was an ordinary burglar and, of course, I was frightened, but not absolutely mad with fear. I slipped into the dining room, on to the cushions in the window seat. I heard a woman's voice telling a man to keep watch in the drawing room. And then the woman came in. I saw her through the curtains. I——"



"Gerald—keep still—don't move whatever you do!"

The words stopped. He waited for her.

"Go on. Who was the woman?"

Their eyes met and words were unnecessary.

"Sheer rot!" he exclaimed. "I told you Annabelle was in Paris."

"Yes, I know. If she was in Paris with you—that settles it. When I saw Annabelle next day I was sure she was the woman. And I've been sure of it and unsure of it ever since. Seeing Vanderlem this afternoon switched me 'round again."

Gerald was collecting the cards, cramming them back into the box. Presently he asked:

"What did the woman do?"

"Pulled a loose brick out of the fireplace in the dining room, put the eight uncut stones behind it, then cemented it up again. On the right wing. The sixth brick from the bottom."

"What! And they're there now?"

"They must be, unless she has taken them out in the meantime. What are you going to do, Gerald?"

He did not answer, but left the room. She wanted to cry out to him to stay—that the rat-faced man was lurking in the shadows of the staircase. Fear gripped her of a kind she had never known.

She was out of breath when he came back to the room.

"Annabelle's in her room."

"What are you going to do?" she repeated.

"Dig out those stones, of course! Come and show me whereabouts it was."

He hesitated, his eyes on hers.

"Don't pull your own leg, Torrance! You aren't afraid of tampering with the evidence. You're afraid there won't be any evidence to tamper with."

"O, very well!" She sighed and gave way against her better judgment. "I'll come with you."

She saw that he was carrying a tool curved and pointed at the end.

"A reamer," he explained. "It'll only take a few minutes to settle the question, one way or the other."

Though she followed close upon his heels, Torrance had the sensation of being dragged into the dining room.

She was feeling nervy—had felt so ever since Annabelle went to bed. As she switched on the light she half expected some one to jump out from behind the sideboard.

"It was this one, Gerald—if you must!" She indicated the brick, then moved away as he set to work with the reamer.

"This stuff has been put in pretty recently." There was both surprise and apology in his voice. "It isn't the same cement as the rest—in fact, it isn't cement at all."

The nervy feeling was growing stronger. She was, she supposed, afraid that Annabelle would burst in on them. She went over to the door and locked it.

Gerald was energetically scraping, making little enough noise, though it seemed to her the sound must fill the house. From time to time he spoke to her, but she made no answer. Somewhere at the back of her thoughts was resentment that she was in some small degree being put to the test.

"By God, you're right! . . . Here they are!" He was on his knees counting the uncut stones. "Eight of 'em!"

The next moment she was calling to him in a whispered shout.

"Gerald—keep still—don't move whatever you do!"

"What's the matter?"

"Keep still! Some one is watching us through a chink in the curtains. Some one in the garden."

She was standing on the farther side of the table. The table, she hoped, would shield them from a bullet, but she was not sure.

There was no sense of fear now—only the need for action. She walked steadily to the window, pulled the curtains closely together.

"Did you see any one?" he demanded. "If you did, what the hell do you mean by exposing yourself like that?"

"I didn't see any one, but I could feel we were being watched. And he —or she—was watching us while we were in the other room."

"Or she!" His voice told her that he did not believe she had any grounds for her fear. "We're going to settle this thing."

She perceived his intention, wanted to fling her arms 'round his neck and prevent him. But panic had left her and she could reflect that to shoot him now with herself virtually an eyewitness would be too dangerous for those level headed cut-throats.

He unlocked the door and slipped out of the room. A moment later, dimly, she heard his voice and another's. But it was not the falsetto voice of Vanderlem. She breathed freely.

A minute passed—two minutes. Then he came back to the dining room.

"Sorry!" He spoke and looked like a shamefaced schoolboy.

Beauty Answers

Swimming Is Excellent Exercise.

F. L.: Swimming is an excellent exercise because it brings into action almost every muscle in the body. Walking, too, is an excellent exercise and one available to every one. But you must walk briskly, and it is a splendid idea to practice deep breathing while you walk.

Use Shadow Lightly During Day.

J. P.: Use eye shadow sparingly, if at all, during the daytime. It is most effective in the evening. Blue is popular because it is flattering, and considered the most youthful shade. My suggestion would be to try several shades until you find the one most flattering to your eyes.

Disciplining Child Not Like Giving a Pill

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS

To some people, apparently, character is something good for a child that can be fed to him—like cod liver oil. This would be easy and convenient—but it can't be done.

The growth of character is on the whole something that takes place automatically— like breating. It has to be in the atmosphere that surrounds a child.

It would be difficult to inculcate religion in a child if the parents were not religious. It would be more difficult for a child to be honest, to think straight, to be unprejudiced, to be fair and just, if he saw in those he should love and respect and look up to dishonesty, muddled thinking, biased opinions, and unfairness. Of course, seeing these unworthy qualities in his associates will not necessarily make him take on these character colorations. But it stands to reason that if those who preside over his life have character, he will absorb it painlessly.

Of course it often helps children or young people to have certain ideals or principles put into concrete form for them. And this we can do for them, if precept is too much taken for granted. For example: if the occasion arises we can point out the importance of keeping a promise, of thinking straight, or admitting a fault. This can be done without "preaching" and children do take it with a good grace, if you ordinarily live in peace and understanding with them.

Of course this is hard advice to give parents. It would be much easier for them to read a book on character building and then try to put certain principles into practice, just as it is easier to take a pill than to go on a régime of right living. But there is no such easy way out. In fact being a parent isn't easy at all—it's darn hard—and like housework it's never finished.

"Lying—Its Causes and Cures" is the name of a leaflet by Mrs. Bevans which is sent out on receipt of a large, stamped, self addressed evelope.

Many Will Entertain at Box Parties.

Harry A. Knott Jr. is in charge of the Chicago Yale club's annual meeting and dinner to be held tomorrow night at the Blackstone. President James R. Angell of Yale will be the only speaker. He is not expected to arrive in time to see the game tonight, however.

The Yale-Fort Sheridan game tonight is but the first of a series of polo matches of interest outside of Chicago, for the western championships will be played at the armory during the third week in March. It is likely that in the future Chicago will see a greater percentage of national championships than ever before because the eastern players like the armory, the largest one in the world.

Also plans for holding the nationals at Chicago and Cleveland on alternate years have been considered. The championships are being held early this year because the eastern players are going to compete in England in June, and they want to have two months in that country before they start playing matches.

Nelson Offutt Will Wed Eastern Girl.

Word comes from Mrs. Ellwood Offutt, who lives in Oakland, Md., of the engagement of her son, Nelson Thomasson Offutt, to Miss Agnes Edelen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Edelen of Baltimore. No date for the wedding is set, but it is planned to have it some time in the spring. Miss Edelen made her debut at the bachelors' cotillion in Baltimore several years ago.

Mr. Offutt went to the Boys' Latin school here and then to the Gilman Country school in Baltimore, after which he attended the University of Virginia. His older brother, Douglas Seymour Offutt, and his wife, the former Emily Battelle of Chicago, live here, and his sister, Miss Nelle Offutt, is in Washington, D. C., this winter. Mrs. Ellwood Offutt is the sister of Nelson Thomasson Jr. of Astor street.

This morning at 11 o'clock members of the Woman's Athletic club and their guests will enjoy a program of chamber music by Mrs. William S. Hay, Herman Felber Jr., Armand Roth, Theodore du Moulin, and Mrs. Raymond Cook. Mrs. Hay, who will play the first violin, is a member of the club. She and the others of the quintet will be entertained at luncheon after the music by Mrs. Alfred C. Tyler, president, and Mrs. Bruce MacLeish.

Among those who will have large luncheon parties in the club dining room after the program are Mrs. Walter C. Peacock, Mrs. George A. Mason, Mrs. Ralph C. Brown, Mrs. Albert F. Madlener, Mrs. James R. Offield, Mrs. William Parkes, Mrs. Jefferson Jackson, Mrs. Bruce Scott and Mrs. Irwin Rew.

Miss Peggy Hambleton is giving a supper party next Tuesday night after the third of the four concerts in Orchestra hall foyer arranged by the Chicago Chamber Music association. Miss Hambleton's special guest will be Jacques Gordon, first violin of the Gordon String quartet, which will give the program that night. Mr. Gordon, who lives in the east now, formerly lived in Chicago and was concert master of the Chicago Symphony orchestra.

Women Consolidate Two Church Groups.

The Woman's Parish league of St. James' church and the Woman's auxiliary of the same church have consolidated and henceforth will be known as the League and Auxiliary of St. James' church. Mrs. Robert Peck and Mrs. Charles Street are the new co-chairmen of the league and the other officers are: first vice chairman, Mrs. Dudley Buck; second vice chairman, Mrs. Fremont Chandler; recording secretary, Mrs. Karlton King; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Clarence McCarthy; treasurer, Mrs. Herman Klahr; assistant treasurer, Mrs. Edward L. Ryerson Jr.; executive committee, Mrs. Robert Hall, Mrs. Duncan Browne, Mrs. Edward Blair, Mrs. Samuel Willson, Mrs. Samuel Adams, Mrs. F. W. Balknap, Mrs. Royal Holden, Miss Lila Woodruff, Mrs. Joseph T. Ryerson, Mrs. Albert Morrell, Mrs. Orville J. Taylor and Mrs. Alan C. Dixon.

Miss Myra Little is leaving tomorrow for Louisville to visit Mrs. Francis McHeldin Gettys. Miss Little's engagement to Briggs Gettys, Mrs. Getty's son, was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Little, in October. Mrs. Little is spending a fortnight in New York.

Mrs. William W. Darrow of Winnetka is spending three months in Pasadena.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Defrees have returned from three weeks spent at Miami Beach.

The former Helen Johnson and her bridegroom, William Mansfield Pearce, are in New York, where they will remain until April or May when he will be sent to Panama, which will be their home for three years.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Beatty are spending a month at a ranch in Arizona where they are joining their son who has been at the ranch since the holidays.

Anshe Emet Board Votes Memorial to Phillipson

The board of trustees of Congregation Anshe Emet, 3760 North Pine Grove avenue, met yesterday and resolved to create a memorial in honor of Samuel Phillipson, former treasurer of the synagogue and well known philanthropist, who died last Monday. Funeral services were held yesterday at the synagogue. Benjamin J. Schiff was named chairman of the memorial committee.

Applique Lotus Block.

BY NANCY CABOT.

"Applique Lotus Block" is one of the newest of applique designs dedicated to the fragile beauty of the lotus flower. The leaves, flower, and buds of this design are a most accurate replica of the original. The yellow ivory of the flower and the orange center and green leaves carry out the natural color scheme to perfection. The foundation material of this quilt is a pale sea green. A 10½ inch border surrounds the 21 applique and 21 plain blocks, which are set together in an alternate arrangement.

Sprightly Print for Spring

WOMAN'S AND MISS' DRESS.

Several features of this sprightly frock recommend it for spring days, when the weather itself demands life and color in one's clothes. This dress is exceptionally feminine and dainty. Its shirred sleeves and soft bodice lines are decidedly youthful, while its two piece style and buttoned closing make it adaptable to young and heavier figures alike. Gay prints are, of course, the forte of this frock, but in case you want to make it of sheer woolen or plain crêpe silk it will be most attractive.

Style No. 3439 is designed for sizes 14, 16, and 18 years, and 36, 38, and 40 inches bust measurement. Size 16 requires 3½ yards of 39 inch material, with ¾ yard of 39 inch contrasting.

Varied Methods Create Lemon Meringue Pie

BY MARY MEADE.

Sunday we wrote about men's preferences in food. Since then we've had several volunteered additions to the list—and among them, lemon meringue pie! Well, how we slipped up on that traditional favorite among men is beyond us. Besides, it's something we really think you should be reminded of every once in a while—right? A tarty-sweet lemon filling, shimmering in a flaky crust, and topped with swirls of tender golden meringue, has few equals on the dessert list, winter or summer.

You may have your pet recipe for lemon filling. If so, don't let us tamper with it. But if it has to be made in a double boiler and takes lots of puttering around, maybe you will be interested in a quick and simple filling that can be stirred up right over the direct heat, with the resulting saving in time.

To make it, first heat one and one-third cups sugar, an equal amount of water, and one-third cup of lemon juice in a saucepan. Soften a half cup of cornstarch in two-thirds cup cold water. When the first mixture is almost boiling, stir in the softened cornstarch gradually, stirring constantly. Stir rapidly until the mixture is thickened and transparent. Then add the grated rind of one and one-half lemons, two tablespoons of butter, and three slightly beaten egg yolks. Stir vigorously for a few seconds and remove from the heat. When partly cool turn into a baked pie shell. Cover with a meringue made from whipping the egg whites and blending with five tablespoons of sugar. Return to a moderate oven to brown the meringue. Serve cold.

Of course, even that simple recipe sounds complicated compared with one of those jiffy ones using sweetened condensed milk. A truly delicious, rich, fruity filling can be made from that wonder working product like this: Blend together one and one-third cups sweetened condensed milk, one-half cup lemon juice, the grated rind of one lemon, and two egg yolks. Pour into a baked pie shell. [There's no cooking at all—the lemon juice thickens the milk.] Cover with a meringue made from the two egg whites and three tablespoons of sugar. Brown in a moderate oven and chill before serving.

Another lemon pie we know and like is one using a lemon flavored gelatin dessert, along with fresh lemon juice and rind for added zest and egg yolks for richness. It's topped with a fluffy unbaked meringue you'll want to know about, not only for this but for all sorts of pies and desserts.

To make this pie combine a package of lemon flavored gelatin with three-quarters cup sugar, a few grains of salt, the grated rind of two lemons, and three tablespoons of cold water. Add two egg yolks and stir well. Combine with one and three-quarters cups boiling water, stirring until the gelatin is dissolved. Add the juice of two lemons. Chill and when slightly thickened turn into a baked pie shell. Chill until firm and cover with unbaked meringue.

Unbaked Meringue.

2 egg whites
2 tablespoons water
½ cup sugar
Few grains salt
¼ teaspoon almond extract

Combine all the ingredients in the top of a double boiler. Beat with a rotary beater over boiling water for one minute. Remove from heat and continue beating for two minutes or until the mixture will stand in peaks.

According to CULBERTSON

Write your bridge troubles and problems to Ely Culbertson, care of this paper, inclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

ON TO GAME.

It is an important part of my bridge philosophy that few hands should be played at contracts one trick short of game.

The value of part scores always has been perhaps the most bitterly debated point in contract. There are two distinct schools of thought. One argues that no hand should be stretched to game because of the probable loss of a part score; the other scoffs and sneers at the part score when compared to game possibility. Naturally, there are merits to both arguments.

No amount of calculation, however expert, can succeed in placing an arbitrary point value on a part score. The fifty point bonus used in duplicate has no relation whatsoever to rubber bridge.

But the part score is not the whole story. It must be examined hand in hand with the stopping short of or going to game. My philosophy is this: If my partner and myself, of our own volition approach to within one trick of game on fitting hands, I go the rest of the way! I refuse to "hang" one short step from my goal! My sense of logic tells me, and my experience endorses, that this reasoning is sound.

Not one hand, nor a thousand, can adequately prove what must, of its nature, be only theory, but the following hand happens to fall within the category mentioned.

North, dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
1 Club	1 Heart	2 Clubs	2 Hearts
3 Clubs	Pass	4 Clubs	Pass
5 Clubs	Double [final bid].

North was not justified on his actual holding in bidding game. But he "saw no percentage" in stopping one trick short. He knew that South must have a good hand for his two raises and thought the final outcome must be either four or five-odd—probably the former. But game bonuses usually are not the reward of timidity!

East opened the king of hearts and followed with the ace, declarer ruffing the second. With two losing spades, there was only one chance for success and declarer promptly grasped it. His first play [to disguise his strip play as much as possible, in case either opponent held the king of spades singly guarded] was to the ace of spades. Two rounds of trumps and three rounds of diamonds set the stage for another spade lead. East had to win and, having no more spades, was forced to lead a red card, which the dummy ruffed while North discarded his losing spade, fulfilling his doubled contract.

TODAY'S QUESTION.

Question: Some of my bridge crowd think that any time two games are made in succession, the 700 bonus is earned. Is this true?

Answer: No. The bonus depends on whether or not the other team has become vulnerable. Thus, if both sides have won a game, regardless of the order of their winning, only a 500 point bonus for rubber is applicable. Seven hundred points goes to a team only when the other side has not won a game.

Stiff Mannerisms Detract from Loveliness.

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

Hand products, I learn from reliable sources, are quickly mounting topward in cosmetic sales records. This includes polishes, nail and cuticle creams and lotions, hand skin lotions, etc. All of which means that hands are under analytical observation as never before. When a large body of people becomes interested in any particular item, be it reducing, or be it hands, that feature is under scrutiny.

For today, let's leave the products to those who are using them and talk about hand beauty from the angle of graceful use. Women with good hands are almost bound to use them well. Perhaps their only fault is overgesticulation to show them off. The many whose hands aren't white and shapely, however, are not so fortunate in revealing graceful gestures. Some women, in an effort to make the hands less conspicuous, defeat the purpose by indulging in some gross clumsiness.

If you become conscious of the hand gesture and study women generally you'll be surprised how many women do odd things with their hands. One peculiarity observed is the hand with stiffened fingers that spread fanwise. The thumb will be a digit far apart from the rest of the finger family and held stiff as a poker. Or, perhaps, it is the little finger that is held rigid and aloof. This spreading wide of the other fingers increases the size of the hand to a great degree.

The lack of flexibility observed, the rigid, taut wrist and fingers, and the consequent ugliness of hands is no more necessary than making grotesque faces and letting the muscles set that way. You can relax all that tension and retrain hands to fall loosely from the wrist. You can make fingers close in together to lessen the breadth of the hand. A tightly shut fist with knuckles squared makes an ugly hand.

Short Skirts Star in Spring Style Showing

PARIS, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Shorter skirts with hemlines 11 to 14 inches from the ground and accentuated slender lines starred in spring fashion showings today.

Even afternoon skirts were fairly short while many ankle length dinner frocks are shorter and fuller in front. Shoulders generally were widened by full sleeve tops.

Marcel Rochas launched spring clothes sounding a slogan of youth built with a slim, high necked silhouette. Black, navy, and blues with cobalt or sapphire cast were outstanding colors lightened by such vivid hues as rose, green, yellow, mauve, and violet.

There were many black suits with loose backed hipbone length or fitted jackets lightened with such striking accents as rows of colored buttons, placques of colored smoking pipes, and rows of bright wool chains appliqued across the front.

The afternoon mode featured short, loose flowered printed jackets over black crêpe frocks or ensembles of black and white silhouette prints.

Colored and patent lether belts had fantastic clasps such as white plaster swans and mermaids, silver drawer handles and candelabra and jeweled finger rings embedded in lether.

Tea Time Sets Social Scale in Hollywood

BY GEORGE SHAFFER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Hollywood, Cal., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Tea on the set at 4 o'clock is one of the little privileges which sets apart the featured players and their directors from the extras, the bit players and subordinates. Two hundred such rank and file players were working in a theater set for "One Rainy Afternoon," Mary Pickford's first venture as a big time producer, when we visited the United Artists' set.

The 200 extras and one featured player—the latter being blonde Garbolsh looking Countess Liev de Malgret, recently of Paris—looked on somewhat wistfully as a little cart arrived loaded with afternoon refreshment for Director Rowland V. Lee, Francis Lederer, and Ida Lupino.

Miss Lupino, it was noted, wears utterly informal red and gray furred bedroom slippers, too large for her tiny feet and the gray fur a bit dusty about her ankles when she emotes. Lederer, on the other hand, takes his scenes thoughtfully and does them painstakingly, even in such farcical situations as entering a crowded theater with another man's wife [the countess], getting separated from her and kissing the wrong girl [Ida Lupino] by mistake. Imagine looking solemn about kissing good looking Ida! But in Mr. Lederer's view there are right and wrong ways to kiss, and it is a matter that must be thought over carefully in advance.

An item of miscellaneous information from Miss Lupino's tea is that mince pie to an English girl means a bakery confection that is half cookie and half tart, and slightly bigger than an American silver dollar; has powdered sugar on top and a tasty filling of raisins, currants, nuts, and preserved fruit. They are served hot. Miss Lupino thinks the ordinary Thanksgiving variety of American mince pie is a large and probably clumsy size. She was quite proud of the little mince pies she passed to those on her set.

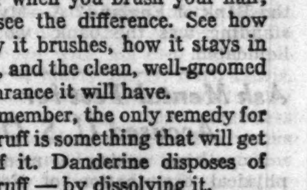
SELF-ACTING HAIR TONIC APPEALS TO LAZY MEN!



Get Rid of Dandruff. Keep Hair and Scalp in Condition. Without Any Work.

No wonder it's so popular! This way of caring for the hair requires no time and no effort. Danderine does a complete job — and all by itself. All you do, is put it on — the action is in the formula.

This active solution dissolves the dandruff you cannot brush away, or rub away.

It keeps your hair just as sleek and nice, and free from all greasy accumulations.

All without any effort. Simply use a dash of Danderine instead of water when you brush your hair, and see the difference. See how nicely it brushes, how it stays in place, and the clean, well-groomed appearance it will have.

Remember, the only remedy for dandruff is something that will get rid of it. Danderine disposes of dandruff — by dissolving it.

Have Color in Cheeks

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should try Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 20 years of study.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause.

$40 WEEK DRAKE AID TELLS HOW HE HANDLED RICHES

BY VIRGINIA GARDNER.

A defendant in the Drake estate mail fraud case who used correct English, wore correctly tailored clothes and boasted a suggestion of a mustache on his long upper lip, took the witness stand in his own defense yesterday before a jury in Federal Judge Philip L. Sullivan's court.

Twenty-one defendants are on trial charged with using the mails to defraud in the most recent promotion of the fabulous Sir Francis Drake estate swindle—a mythical estate pictured to hopeful share investors as "worth billions"—which has continued to enlist victims despite the fact that it has repeatedly been proved to be non-existent.

At Last—a Doubter!

Compared to testimony of most of the defendants, that of yesterday's immaculate witness was singularly lacking in even a pretense of a burning faith in the power of Oscar Hartzell, promoter of the mythical estate, and chief defendant in this trial, to wrest from the Bank of England and other financial strongholds some 40 billion dollars to be divided among "donators."

The witness, Otto G. Yant of the Croydon hotel, 616 Rush street, who still maintains a home in Manson, Ia., was questioned by Attorney Edward J. Hess who, with Attorney George M. Crane, is defense counsel. A little man with a soft voice and deliberate manner, Yant testified he was cashier of a bank in Mallard, Ia., for 10 years before his connection with "this proposition" in 1932.

Tells of $75,000 Donations.

From June 16, 1933, to the time of Hartzell's conviction and sentence to federal prison in a previous trial on mail fraud charges at Sioux City, Ia., in November, 1933, Yant issued receipts for a total of $75,000 to $76,000 to Drake donators as attorney in fact for Hartzell, he testified on direct examination.

After that, he testified, he issued receipts under his own name, "with the understanding that these notes would be paid out of the money from the deal, as Hartzell told me to go on, his contract could be completed without him," he said.

Yant was in charge of the "estate" office at Des Moines, later at Boone, Ia., and in March, 1934, moved the headquarters to the America Fore building, 844 Rush street, in Chicago, at Hartzell's request, he said. When court adjourned he was under cross-examination by Prosecutor Austin Hall.

Handles Fortune at $40 a Week.

His salary, Yant testified apologetically, was $25 a week in Iowa, then $35 and $40 a week in Chicago, while he signed his name to notes and handled thousands of dollars.

Charles A. Storla, 49 years old, of Mitchell, S. D., who with his wife and six children invested $684 in "the deal," and J. Verne Carlson of Boone, Ia., former farmer and farm machinery salesman, were other defendants who took the witness stand earlier in the day.

Carlson said he invested $700 in "the deal," but the prosecution brought out that virtually all of that was invested before Hartzell's conviction.

Evangelism's Reward.

Storla, in traveling over South Dakota to spread the gospel of donating to Hartzell for shares in the alluring bubble of billions received expense money of $25 a week for his family and $19 for himself, he admitted on cross-examination.

Carlson, who last contributed to the "estate" in 1930, said he received $885 in salary and $277 in expense money from Feb. 10, 1934, to April 3, 1935, as "errand boy" for the Boone office, and later as a sort of traveling evangelist.

THE COURT—How were you going to get that trust fund [Drake] out of the Bank of England? A.—My understanding was the bank would be liquidated.

Ask Mental Test for Accused U. S. Official

A petition asking a mental and physical examination of Ferdinand W. Scherer, former acting chief deputy in the office of the United States district clerk, charged with the embezzlement of $15,000, was filed yesterday before Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson by Attorney Edward A. Fisher. Attorney Fisher said his conversations with his client in the county jail convinced him Scherer was mentally deranged.

STRIP LEGAL ROBES FROM EX-MEMBER OF FRENCH CABINET

PARIS, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Former Minister of the Interior Eugene Frot was suspended from the Paris bar for six months today for an undisclosed courtroom irregularity as mobile guardsmen dispersed crowds of hooting lawyers.

Frot, who was in charge of Paris police during the riots of February, 1934, has been the subject of numerous attacks and denunciations for the disturbances, in which twenty were killed and hundreds injured.

GETS 4 MONTHS FOR THEFT.

Joseph Moresco, 53 years old, was sentenced to four months in the Bridewell yesterday by Judge Matthew D. Hartigan on a charge of petit larceny. Moresco refused to give his address.

WATER IN FIRE EXTINGUISHERS BRINGS ARREST

Robert Hurni, manager of a hat manufacturing company at 128 North Union avenue, called police yesterday when an "inspector" came to his office and offered to refill the company's fire extinguishers at $1.50 a quart. The "inspector," Hurni complained, was the same man who sold him three quarts of water for his fire extinguishers last June, charging $4.50.

Taken to the Des Plaines street station, the inspector, Neal Race, 40 years old, 822 Leland avenue, denied the charge and insisted he sold only carbon tetrachloride. The police also arrested Richard Killoren, 35 years old, 934 Leland avenue, whom they found sitting in Race's automobile. He said he was a carpenter employed yesterday by Race.

George E. Graves, chief of the fire prevention bureau, said his office has received a dozen recent complaints of fraud from owners of fire extinguishers.

HAWKS PLAY DETROIT TONIGHT; LEAD AT STAKE

DETROIT SEEKS MORE GOLDEN GLOVES TITLES

Louis' Home Town Boxers Are Strong.

BY FRENCH LANE.

No group of Golden Glovers will get a closer scrutiny when it gets off the train this year than the one that will represent the Detroit Free Press in the Tribune's Tournament of Champions.

And no group will come off that train with higher hopes. Deny it as they may, deep in the heart of each of them is a feeling that he has no less than Joe Louis did when he got off that same train scarcely more than two years ago.

A year after that first trip of Joe's, traveling on the same train from Detroit were such outstanding champions as Lorenzo Pack, Clinton Bridges, Dave Clark and Al Nettlow. Thus it is natural that every one is speculating even at this early date on "What's Detroit got this year?"

Coach 's Confident.

One thing is definite—they haven't got those four champions they sent to Chicago last year—Pack, Bridges, Clark and Nettlow—but they've got something nevertheless and Duke Ellis, weazened peppery tempered coach at the Brewster street center in Detroit, out of which came Louis, Pack, Bridges, and Clark, says, "We got plenty."

Seventy colored boys coached by the Duke are among the 962 boys who already have started fighting their way on toward the eight Detroit championships and the trip to the Tournament of Champions.

Watch Bob Smith.

The Duke is proud of them all, but the lad who seems to be the particular apple of his eye is Bob Smith, a shifty, shuffling colored boy who is endeavoring to take up where Louis and Pack left off in the Golden Gloves heavyweight division.

"Big Bobby" as the Duke calls him, is a tall, rangy, sad faced Negro who can hit and hit hard with either hand. The Duke believes he is a better all around performer than Louis was at the same stage in his career. That's not good news to the scores of other heavyweights who are pointing toward the Tournament of Champions.

The Detroit entry list indicates that those Urso boys—Patsy and Jimmy—have been doing a lot of joining up this year. Their names appear in the Detroit Free Press entry list as well as in the entry list for the Grand Rapids Press sectional tournament at Ann Arbor.

Kilpatrick vs. Rubin.

Both Grand Rapids and Detroit expect Patsy to be the bantamweight member of their team. Somebody may have to do some coin flipping or straw drawing before the situation can be cleared up.

Lightweight honors on the Detroit team appear to rest between Al Kilpatrick, a fighting Irishman, and Art Rubin, a busy little colored fighter. George Burnette, also a colored boy, probably is the best in the Detroit welterweight class.

Milton Chevis and Herman West are leading the field to replace Middleweight Champion Clark and Light Heavyweight Champion Bridges. Authorities on the power of a punch contend that West is a harder hitter than Bridges, who was the knockout king of last year's Tournament of Champions.

Predicts Strong Team.

The finals in the Detroit tournament will be fought in the Olympia ring on Feb. 19. W. W. Edgar, sports editor of the Detroit Free Press, in no jumbled words says the team that beats Detroit this year will win the Tournament of Champions trophy.

KEN O'DEA, CUB CATCHER, WILL WED SATURDAY

Lima, N. Y., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—James Kenneth O'Dea, the Lima boy who stepped into the baseball limelight as a catcher with the Chicago Cubs in the world series, will be married in St. Agnes church at Avon, Saturday.

The 25 year old major leaguer, coaching the basketball team of his alma mater, Genesee Wesleyan seminary, during the off season, is engaged to Miss June Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Davis of Avon.

They will be married by the Rev. Charles E. Muckle, pastor of St. Agnes church, at 9 a. m.

Dig Into Snowdrift; Quail, Imprisoned 11 Days, FlyOut

Washington, Pa., Jan. 29.—(AP)—A sudden "whir-r-r-r" startled state highway workers today as they dug into a snowdrift on a road between McMurray and Finleyville. Out of the 42 inch "igloo," result of a snowfall eleven days ago, flew more than a dozen quail. The workers carried fifteen more that were exhausted to a farmhouse, warmed them and released them.

RING THAT BELL! TIME UMPIRES WENT TO SCHOOL

Spring Training Lessons Scheduled for Guessers

BY EDWARD BURNS.

President Will Harridge of the American league and Ford Frick, president of the National league, right now are busily engaged in figuring out assignments for the first annual School for Umpires.

We think you are going to be interested in the School for Umpires, even if you haven't known or wouldn't associate with a baseball umpire socially. The idea of sharpening up the umpires in the spring was conceived and adopted at the joint meetings of the leagues in Chicago this winter. It is strange that nothing ever was done about it before.

At the time the leagues decided upon the School for Umpires it all seemed like a whimsical dream Now, however, spring is nigh, and Mr. Harridge and Mr. Frick must soon decide which umpires they are going to send where.

Where to Send Whom? That's a Puzzle!

Except for a few veterans like Bill Dinneen and Bill Klem, who know almost everything anyhow, the big league umpires will be assigned to training camps and will start umpiring as soon as intrateam or regularly scheduled exhibition games are played.

Naturally the two league prexies will want to send each umpire to a team suited to his temperament. And they are not likely to send a green or dumb umpire to a team like, say, the Brooklyn Dodgers. Nor would it serve the best purpose of the plan to send a high strung, sensitive fellow to a team that uses coarse language, like the Cubs. You can see that Mr. Harridge and Mr. Frick have a lot of things to figure out, even at the outset. And they are sure to become vexed much more as the plan swings into reality.

Currently, when a Chicagoan thinks of an umpire he thinks of George Moriarty, the George Moriarty of the 1935 world series. Personally we are too broad minded to harp on the case of Mr. Moriarty. We mention George's name only because we are thinking of a cruel joke Mr. Harridge can play on the Chicago Cubs. The American league prexy can [and it would be popular enough with the Tigers] assign Moriarty to get in shape with the world champs at Lakeland. The wicked humor in such an assignment would be found in the fact that on March 27 the Cubs will play the Tigers in what has been termed the seventh game of the world series. Even though it will be only an exhibition game, the presence of Moriarty behind the plate that day would make the remainder of spring the bleakest of seasons. It would be at least July 4 before the Cubs could hear the birdies singing in the trees, and the flowers of May would rate no welcome whatsoever.

Brighten Up Those Orbs, Gents!

Mr. Harridge told us the other day that the principal purpose is to have the umpires sharpen up their sight

Culver Academy Matched with Artillery Team.

Yale vs. Fort Sheridan's Army team will be the polo headliner tonight at the 124th Field Artillery armory, Cottage Grove avenue and 52d street, where military and civic celebrities will mingle with polo fans.

The Yale squad is on its way to the scene of battle, traveling over the New York Central and arriving at the Park Row station here this afternoon at 5:20 o'clock. Plans call for the players to go immediately to the armory for a light workout. They will leave immediately after tonight's game to play the Cleveland Riding club at Cleveland tomorrow.

Lineups Are Named.

The easterners will depend upon the combination of Robert E. Lee Wilson, captain; Peter Dominick and Bayard [Bud] Dominick, with William B. Rand Jr. as alternate.

The Fort Sheridan team, riding in the order named, will be Maj. Richard G. Hunter, Lieut. Col. Harry D. Chamberlin and Capt. Larry Smith.

Fort Sheridan will put a 10 goal team on the field, with Maj. Hunter rated at 3, Lieut. Col. Chamberlin at 2, and Capt. Smith at 5. Wilson of Yale rates 3 goals, Pete Dominick 2, and Bud Dominick 3, making a total of 8.

Yale Sends Strong Team.

All of the Yale players have had considerable experience. Wilson, a senior, first played polo at Aiken preparatory school in South Carolina. He was a member of Yale's freshman team in 1934, both indoors and outdoors. He has played at the Memphis Polo club, Aiken Polo club and Greenbriar club. He played on Yale's national intercollegiate championship team in 1935.

The Dominick brothers are juniors, and both have come to the front fast. They prepped at St. Mark's and were members of Yale's freshman team. Pete captained both the indoor and outdoor freshman teams, leading them through an undefeated season. The brothers made the varsity in their sophomore year.

Culver vs. Artillery Juniors.

Tonight's curtain raiser will pit the Culver Military academy against the 124th Field Artillery Juniors. This game will go on at 8:30 o'clock. It will be preceded a half hour earlier by a concert by the 124th Field Artillery band. Other features include exhibitions by a fancy riding team and a mounted drill with 77 mm. guns, with the artillerymen riding at breakneck speed through flares in the darkened arena and performing other daring maneuvers.

Tonight's lineups:

YALE.		FORT SHERIDAN.
R. Wilson [C.]	No. 1	Maj. R. G. Hunter

A Rolling Pin

Gathers no moss, to be sure, but it does make a handsome dent on papa's head when he comes home late. Mama thinks she has a real punch, but she should see the Golden Gloves boxers in action!

Mama's chance, as well as yours, will come on Feb. 24, 25 and 26 when the Golden Gloves Tournament of Champions is held at the Chicago Stadium. And then, of course, you will want to see the finals March 6 at the same arena.

The early bird gets the best tickets, just as the late papa gets the rolling pin. Prices for the Tournament of Champions are 40 cents, 66 cents, and $1.10. For the finals they are 55 cents, $1.10, $1.65, $2.20, and $3.30.

SHOW 'EM THE ICE—THEY'RE READY

Skating stars who have been entertaining Minneapolis and St. Paul crowds arrived last night for the ice carnival tomorrow and Saturday nights at the Stadium. Seated, left to right, are Bobby Maxson, Ruby Maxson, Dorothy Lewis, Shirley Bowman, and Jeanne Ryberg. Standing, left to right: Florence Thompson, Mrs. E. Eilar, Peggy Foster, Ed Eilar, president of Twin City Skating club; Julie Keloson, Alice Eilar, Irving Lewis, Betty Eilar, Jule Finkelson, Al Bowman, E. Shipstead, Alice Shipstead, Rose Bowman, Roy Shipstead, and Mrs. Irving Lewis.

Bobby McLean Will Skate in Stadium Show

McLean in recent years has been an exhibition star, with acrobatic stunts on the ice. Bobby lines up twelve chairs or a dozen barrels and leaps over them while skating at full speed. But the most remarkable part of the feat is that Bobby "stops on a dime" when making his landing after the perilous broad jump.

They're Young, but Good.

Among the young stars on the Stadium program is Bobby Maxson. Bobby is 14 years old and teams with his sister, Ruby, who is only 12 years of age. These Duluth youngsters have been the sensation of every carnival at which they have appeared in the northwest this winter.

The Stadium staf went to work yesterday as soon as the boxing ring was taken down to prepare the rink for the ballet numbers. The finale, which includes the entire cast of skaters, will be the most elaborate ice tableau ever attempted in Chicago. From the roof of the Stadium drapes, ribbons, and pennants will be lowered and one group of skaters will circle in a Maypole dance through the colored ribbons, while another group will skate in a pinwheel formation in the center. This novelty will be skated in darkness, except for three foot sparklers carried by the skaters and spotlights which will play through the maze of ribbons.

Ticket Sale Picks Up.

For Saturday night a sellout is in sight and for the opening show tomorrow night, which is called Chicago night, there was marked pickup in the advance sale with the disappearance of the subzero weather.

Almost all the members of the Exmoor Country club have purchased big blocks of seats to watch 10 year old Nancy Meyer, daughter of Dr. Karl Meyer, chief surgeon at the county hospital, in her arctic ballet supported by twenty Exmoor Country club children.

Mrs. Williams, Mother of Mrs. Jack Dempsey, Dies

New York, Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Mrs. Martha Hughes Williams, 47, mother of Mrs. Hanna Williams Dempsey, wife of the former heavyweight champion, died today at her West 64th street home. She had been ill of pneumonia after contracting a cold two weeks ago. Dempsey, en route east, was notified in Chicago, and left by plane to land at Newark airport tomorrow morning.

ACE HUDKINS GIVEN 90 DAYS IN COAST JAIL

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Ace Hudkins, leading fighter a few years ago, was sentenced to 90 days in jail today on a charge of driving while intoxicated. Hudkins was arrested ten days ago when his automobile struck another machine. When he appeared in court today, Hudkins asked a jury trial but after waiting all day he suddenly pleaded guilty. His plea for probation was met with a retort that his record was against him.

LOUIS' MANAGER DENIES DODGING BRADDOCK BOUT

Ready to Sign Any Time There's a Demand.

Miami Beach, Fla., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Disturbed over reports Joe Louis was not interested in fighting for Jimmy Braddock's heavyweight title this year, Joe Gould, Braddock's manager, almost wrote the Brown Bomber off the list of contenders today.

A heated statement Gould issued, which hinted Louis might be afraid of Braddock, lost much of its point, however, after Julian Black, one of Louis' managers, said in New York the reports were all wrong.

"It's true we are not pointedly concerned over gaining the title," Black said, in pointing out Louis was doing pretty well by himself without it, "but we are ready for Braddock any time there's a demand."

Consider Louis Off List.

Gould's statement said there was an inkling "Joe Louis may be afraid to step into the ring with the heavyweight champion of the world" in the report he would not challenge in 1936.

"If the report is true," he added, "we consider Louis stricken from the list of contenders. . . . Now that he is apparently unwilling to challenge he has eliminated himself.

"We are sure that the boxing commissions of the country will not recognize Louis as the outstanding contender if he does not want to fight for the title. We and they are interested only in real contenders."

Suggests a Tourney.

Gould said he had his eye on several young fighters—ex-champions and has beens are not being considered—and suggested an elimination tournament to pick the outstanding contender. He said Braddock would defend his title in September.

With Mike Jacobs, expected to promote the next championship fight, on his way to Miami, the whole thing sounded to some like the beginnings of the buildup for the Louis-Braddock match.

ROSS WOULD STEP UP

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 29.—(AP)—The ambition to crack all records for the fight game by reaching championship heights in four weight divisions sent Barney Ross in quest of the middleweight title today.

Through his manager the welterweight king agreed to terms offered by Promoters Herman Taylor and Bobby Gunnis for a middleweight title battle with Eddie [Babe] Risko, the 160 pound ruler.

Announcing the Chicagoan's agreement, Taylor and Gunnis said they are after Babe Genovese, Risko's pilot, to get his signature to the articles.

The proposed bout would be held in March, probably over the 15 round route, since Pennsylvania's new athletic law permits that distance for championship engagements.

Should the bout take place, and should Barney trounce Risko, it will mark the first time in history that one fighter has topped four divisions. In addition to leading the 145 pounders, Ross also has held the lightweight and junior welterweight championships.

His previously announced desire to collect $100,000 during 1936 probably actuated Ross to agree, as much as did the chance to take the middleweight title. He has already started his $100,000 campaign, stopping Lou Halper of Newark, N. J., here Monday night.

There is talk also that a sizable portion of his financial ambition may be attained in a welterweight championship bout in New York this summer with Jimmy McLarnin.

U. S. Olympic Skiers Lose Hunter, Star; Is Injured

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

GARMISCH-PARTENKIRCHEN, Bavaria, Jan. 29. — The American Olympic team lost one of its best skiers today when Edgar Hunter of Hanover, N. H., ran into a rock when practicing, cutting his leg open between the knee and the ankle. Doctors hope the wound will be completely healed in four weeks.

CHICAGO SEXTET HALF A GAME BEHIND WINGS

Teams Even So Far This Season.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 29.—The sports loving citizens of this town today were undergoing an attack of the jitters as their National Hocky league entry, the Red Wings, returned for their battle with the Chicago Blackhawks tomorrow night at the Olympia arena.

Already bolstered by the Tigers, the Lions, and Joe Louis in their claims to be the capital of professional sport, local fans have been concentrating on the Wings to add the hocky title to their collection of championships, but their aims in that direction have been considerably shaken within the last week, and may undergo another crash tomorrow night.

The feud between the Hawks and Wings, both Chicago owned, has never been a dainty one, and tomorrow night's battle is expected to prove no exception to the tradition. The Wings have until late been the one team in the league which has not encountered a slump, but they now seem to have run smack into one, enough at least to make the game tomorrow a fight for the league leadership.

Wings Lead by Half Game.

The Wings now lead the league with 32 points, a half game ahead of the Hawks. Last Saturday night the first indication of a slump came when they absorbed a sound 6 to 1 thumping from the Toronto Maple Leafs. Last night, Tiny Thompson and Eddie Shore of Boston shut them out, 2 to 0.

Tomorrow they meet the Hawks, a team which has not been beaten in its last five games, scoring four victories and one tie to climb out of the cellar and within half a game of the top. Victory for the Hawks will put them a half game ahead, and set them for their two week-end arguments with the Leafs, one at Toronto Saturday and one at Chicago Sunday.

Aside from the fact that they are in excellent condition, the Hawks were favored with another advantage when their game with the Montreal Maroons, scheduled for Montreal last night, was postponed until March 21 because of the funeral of King George. This enabled the Chicago team to get in two hours of practice at the Olympia yesterday, a session which was repeated today.

New Hawk Combinations.

Manager Clem Loughlin, whose trading activities of the last few days have made him the David Harum of hocky, was thus given an opportunity to weld new combinations, notably that involving young Glenn Brydson, who was received from the New York Rangers in a trade for Howie Morenz last Sunday night. Brydson, a natural right wing, will be in that corner tomorrow night on a line with the veteran Johnny Gottselig at left wing and Freshman Eddie Ouellette.

This trio, however, will not be the first to face the Wings tomorrow. The opening forward line, according to Loughlin, will consist of Doc Romnes at center, with Paul Thompson and Mush March at the wings. Romnes and Thompson are now runnersup for the American section scoring lead.

Detailing the Romnes line to the starting job was Loughlin's answer to Manager Jack Adams of the Wings. On his return today, Adams said he would open with his own high scoring line of Marty Barry, Herb Lewis, and Laurie Aurie, with orders to play wide open hocky. This doubtless amused the Hawks, who a few weeks ago were named among the five teams accused by Adams of stalling. After Adams had thus pointed the finger, the Hawks "stalled" enough to whip his team, 4 to 1.

Even for Season.

The Hawks and Wings have met five times this season, with each winning two games, and the opener at Detroit resulting in a scoreless tie. The aforementioned 4 to 1 victory over Detroit was the beginning of the Hawks' winning streak.

HITCHCOCK OUT; PICK PEDLEY ON U. S. POLO TEAM

Californian Only Western Player on Squad.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Tommy Hitchcock, polo's only ten goal player, announced today that he would not be a member of the American team which will go to England this spring for a series of international matches.

Simultaneously with Hitchcock's refusal the United States Polo association announced that Eric Pedley, California 7 goal player, had been invited to replace him on the squad. The selection of Pedley gave the west its only representative on the team. Previously there had been some criticism of the squad's makeup because the west had been ignored entirely.

Hitchcock's decision to pass up the matches was officially attributed to business reasons. It was pointed out that he would have to remain away from his work for two months. He is a member of the firm of Lehman Brothers, a Wall street brokerage house.

Wanted West Recognized.

Robert E. Strawbridge, newly elected chairman of the United States Polo association and manager of the invading team, said today that the association had been aware of Hitchcock's intention for some time.

Despite the fact that Hitchcock's refusal to make the trip was officially attributed to business reasons, it was pointed out in polo circles that friction has existed between the player and the association.

It is known that Hitchcock took a stand against too strong a centralization of control in the east. He believed that the game could be developed by giving the central states and the far west a stronger voice in the formation of the association's policy.

West Dissatisfied with System.

It has been the custom for the association's committee to name the captain and also select the personnel of teams for international competition. Western delegates to the recent meeting of the association expressed dissatisfaction with this system and asked that the committee should confine itself to the appointment of the captain and let him pick the team. It is known that Hitchcock was in sympathy with this proposal.

The differences between Hitchcock and the association were minimized in some polo circles. It was pointed out that these differences were scarcely strong enough to prompt Hitchcock's outright withdrawal from the squad. However, it was said that these considerations may have influenced his action.

Pass Up Smith, Boeseke.

The selection committee passed over two eight goal players, Cecil Smith of Austin, Tex., and Elmer J. Boeseke Jr., of Santa Barbara, Cal., in seeking Pedley. Boeseke has been out of competition for a year, due to an injury. Smith was not impressive last season in tournament play, in addition to which the Texan's size makes him difficult to mount.

Pedley, the first and only westerner ever named for international cup play, was a sensation at No. 1 on the American side that last defended the trophy against England in 1930. The Californian set a record by scoring nine goals in the second and deciding match at Meadow Brook.

If he accepts the invitation to go abroad, Pedley will rejoin Guest in the cup battle, along with Mike Phipps, Elbridge Gerry, and Stewart Iglehart, a group of eight goal easterners. The likely lineup, totaling 31 goals, will be Pedley at No. 1, Phipps No. 2, Iglehart No. 3, in place of Hitchcock, and Guest at back.

Sportsmen to See Equipment at Show Today

BY BOB BECKER.

Sportsmen interested in camping, clothing for outdoor sports, fishing rods, lures, trick hooks for catching fish, baseball equipment, reels and hundreds of other equipment items can see them on parade starting this morning at the Sherman hotel. The occasion is the annual show sponsored by the American Sporting Goods association. The three day show, which is open to the public, starts at 10 o'clock this morning and continues through Saturday.

A fisherman visiting the show has plenty of opportunities to try out a rod and reel in a casting pool which has been constructed in the exhibition hall. Tonight members of the Illinois Casting club will put on an exhibition starting at 7:30 o'clock.

Reel Attracts Attention.

We found several new and interesting gadgets for outdoorsmen at the show when we looked over some of the exhibits yesterday. One of the first things that caught our eye was a drawn steel, tubular rod ideal for trolling for muskies or for small salt water game fish such as the sea trout, redfish, snook, bonefish, mackerel, jacks or bluefish. This steel rod has a detachable butt and a one-piece tip five feet long although the tip length can be varied.

The reel seat [offset] will take either a regular fresh water reel or a small salt water reel. This rod should be ideal for the fisherman who likes to troll for a big pike or muskies in the north country.

An Adjustable Type.

Another new gadget noted was a fresh water reel which you adjust to different types of casting lures. When you cast a plug you turn a little knob and the reel is set for the wooden lures so that there is no backlash. When you attach a pork rind lure you can make another adjustment to handle that type of lure.

Other novelties included a new kind of hook for the live bait fisherman, a special rod and reel for the lake trout fisherman who expects to go down deep with copper wire for the lakers, and therefore needs hundreds of feet of "wire line."

Parkas weighing only three pounds for the winter sports enthusiast, shooting jackets for the skeet enthusiast, skis, outboard motors, and scores of other sports articles are also on display.

PARITY	117	5	3	6^{3}	$6^{1\frac12}$	12	12	M.Garner	78.35-1

Time, 1:51 3-5. Two dollar mutuels paid: Chatterfol, $60.40 straight, $18.50 place, $14.30 show; Sparkdale, $4.70 place, $4.20 show; Capablanca, $9.40 show. Winner, ch. g., 6, by Chatterton-Pola Negri. Owner, J. U. Gratton. Trainer, W. Irvine.

CHATTERFOL, showing improvement, was rushed into lead, showed good speed and held on gamely. SPARKDALE well up, made a bid around turn but faltered. CAPABLANCA finished fast. INTEGRITY ran an even race. BELLE FILLE could not get up.

Cavalcade to Get First Test in Race Today

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Cavalcade, 3 year old champion of 1934, which has been training sensationally for the $100,000 handicap to be run Feb. 22 at the Santa Anita track, will make his first start of the year here tomorrow in a handicap at one mile for a purse of $1,200.

Will Carry 127 Pounds.

Cavalcade, which hasn't gone to the post since the Suburban handicap at Belmont park last summer, in which he threw his rider, Johnny Gilbert, will be asked to carry 127 pounds. West Main is in with 108, Tick On will pack 109, Scotch Bun, 107, and Regardless, 100.

George Woolf, who rode Azucar to victory in last year's Santa Anita handicap, will be up on Cavalcade. Charley Corbett will ride West Main, and Charley Stevenson will be aboard Regardless.

Has Speed in Workout.

Cavalcade's last training move was a mile in 1:36 2-5. Trainer Bob Smith believes he has the big son of Lancegaye back in his 3 year old form, but there was some question among turf fans tonight whether Cavalcade could do his best at a mile. He prefers longer routes.

ROGERS DEFEATS SHOEMAKER FOR U. S. CUE CROWN

New York, Jan. 29.—(AP)—Edward Charles Rogers, 24 year old Glen Cove, N. Y., player, competing in his first major tournament, dethroned J. Howard Shoemaker, New York veteran, as national amateur pocket billiard champion tonight. Rogers defeated the 21 time winner of the title, 125 to 42, in the final match of the tournament here tonight.

Celebron Bout Is for Title—Well, Almost

"Harry Dublinsky and Billy Celebron will fight for the welterweight boxing championship of Illinois at Cicero stadium tomorrow night."

Thus is Promoter Billy Cepak advertising their 12 round bout which heads his show. There appears to be one thing wrong with the advertisment. Barney Ross, world champion in that division, resides in Chicago and has been a resident in this state since his arrival from his birthplace, New York City, about 25 years ago.

Except for that important oversight on the part of the promoter, an item which no doubt slipped his mind at the time, the bill posters advertising the show are in good order.

They're Leading Challengers.

They bring out the fact that Celebron, Rockford protégé of Sammy Mandell, the old lightweight titleholder, and Dublinsky, who has been clamoring for a return bout with Ross since 1930 when they fought to a draw, are two of the champion's strongest chanllengers.

The state boxing commission will recognize the winner as Illinois' No. 1 contender, ahead of Jimmy McLarnin, generally called Ross' leading challenger. Barney won the title by beating McLarnin in 15 rounds at New York last May 28.

Boxes Six Rounds.

Dublinsky ended hard training yesterday by boxing six rounds with two partners at Madison Square gymnasium. He will do light loosening up exercises this afternoon and then await the call to battle. Celebron will check in today in time to work out at Trafton's gymnasium.

Danno O'Mahoney, heavyweight wrestling champion, yesterday was signed to head a mat card at the Stadium Feb. 12. Co-Matchmaker James C. Mullen is seeking Jim McMillen as the champion's foe. . . . Promoter Emil Vander Leenden has arranged five matches for presentation at Marigold Gardens tomorrow. Al George will meet Cowboy Ackley, Rudy Hoffman is matched with Jack Zeravich, Thor Stockholm will meet Phil Gruber, Bud Atlas tackles Tiger Nelson, and Bill Goels encounters Ed Schon.

244 C.Y.O. BOYS PASS TESTS FOR GOLDEN GLOVES

Last Chance to Enter Tourney Tonight.

BY WILFRID SMITH.

The Golden Gloves physical examination last night at the Catholic Youth organization center, 31 East Congress street, qualified 244 boxers for the Chicago tournaments which open Feb. 10. Only four boys failed to pass the examinations.

Tonight the second examination of this week will be held at Trafton's gymnasium, 180 West Randolph street. Eight hundred letters have been sent out. However, any applicant who has received a letter and parental consent card is eligible to report between 6 and 8 p. m. unless he definitly has been assigned to one of the examinations next week. Next Tuesday and Wednesday night the final examinations will be held.

Mail 'em Before Midnight.

Today is the last opportunity to enter this year's Golden Gloves tournaments. All applications must be mailed before midnight. Those entering today will receive official notification to report for examinations next week.

Many of the C. Y. O. boxers will compete in the open division competition from which thirty-two boys will qualify for the Tournament of Champions at the Stadium Feb. 24, 25, and 26. In addition, the eight C. Y. O. champions are eligible to compete against Golden Gloves teams from thirteen states.

Chan in Novice Meet.

Bob Chan, a Chinese boxer, who finished his high school course at Harrison Tech this last term and runner-up for the C. Y. O. novice lightweight title, is outstanding in the list of entries in the Golden Gloves novice tournament.

Frank McHugh, 1935 novice champion, and Eddie Garvey, runner-up to Chester Rutecki in the open division, are welterweight nominations for the Golden Gloves open division.

Last night's physical examinations were conducted by Dr. J. V. Russell, Dr. William Rothman, Dr. George W. Andrew, and Dr. Harold Marsh. Paddy Kane and Dick Fitzpatrick of the C. Y. O. staf assisted officials of THE TRIBUNE A. A. in registering contestants and giving them instructions.

STARK'S HOLDOUT ACT FAILS TO IRK NATIONAL LEAGUE

12 Umpires--3 to a Game --Ready to Call 'Em.

New York, Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Even if Dolly Stark tosses his whiskbroom away for keeps, the National league has a dozen umpires lined up for 1936, or enough to assign three to a game and keep everything moving.

Klem, Quigley, Moran, Pfirman, Magerkurth, Reardon, Sears, Barr, Stewart, Pinelli, Parker, and Ballanfant will be the lineup. President Ford Frick has not named any supervisor of umpires to take the place of the late Charles Rigler, and is not sure that he will.

Two Recruits on List.

George L. [Tiny] Parker and Lee Ballanfant will be starting their first season in the league. Parker's home is in Miami. He has been umpiring the last few years in the International league, and last spring handled the Cardinals' exhibition games in Dixie. Ballanfant's home is Dallas, and he is up from the Texas league, highly recommended as a fast, alert arbiter of the Stark type. He was a ball player once, a fancy fielding shortstop, but never enough of a batter to get to the majors. He started his umpiring in the East Texas league in 1925.

Frick says that Stark has not returned his contract with any formal written complaint about terms offered, but that Dolly late last season talked to him about the disparity between umpires' salaries and those of star players. Stark was offered a $1,000 boost for this year, it is understood. Bill Klem and Stark already were the best paid in the National league.

Average $150 a Week.

According to Frick, umpires in his league are well paid, the average salary being $7,800, which amounts to $150 a week for the whole year around, or more than twice that a week for the time they actually put in. An umpire gives the league five and a half months a year. The rest of his time he can augment his income in other lines, as Stark has been doing by coaching basketball at Dartmouth, and as Cy Pfirman does by running a meat market in New Orleans.

Frick, who highly esteems the ability of Dolly Stark, would like to have him on the job this season and may be able to persuade him to reconsider. But it is not any salary difference of $300 or $400 that is balking Dolly. It involves what Frick calls a "considerable sum."

Job Will Be Waiting.

"I'd like to see Dolly get along and advance himself," says Frick, "and if he would like to take a year off and try some other line I want him to know that he can always come back here and have his job. It will be here for him in 1937 just as it is now."

BLANTON GETS RAISE

Shawnee, Okla., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—The Pittsburgh Pirates may be wondering about the reluctance of Arky Vaughan, their No. 1 slugger, to sign his 1936 contract, but they need have no such worries about terms with Darrel [Cy] Blanton, their sensational rookie pitcher.

Young Mr. Blanton made that plain today when he revealed to friends and neighbors here that he had signed his 1936 contract, and that it was on the way to the Pirate front office. And why not, he asked, when he said that it called for a raise in salary of more than 100 per cent.

Blanton, one of the stars of last year's major league freshmen crop, refused to reveal the exact amount of the 1936 terms, but if the doubling of his checks is true, he will receive more than $10,000, as it was generally known that he was paid about $5,000 last season.

CARDS SIGN JUDY

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Lyle Judy, on whom the St. Louis Cardinals rely to play second base when Manager Frank Frisch retires from active service, signed his 1936 contract today.

The 23 year old Springfield, Mo., rookie reported he was entirely recovered from a head injury suffered in an automobile accident at Louisville last fall. He came to the Cardinals late last season after he had broken the Western association record by stealing 107 bases.

GIANTS TAKE 32

New York, Jan. 29.—(AP)—One of the biggest delegations of rookies in recent years will be looked over by Manager Bill Terry of the New York Giants at the Pensacola training base this season.

The Giant spring roster, which came out today, lists 32 players. Fourteen are freshmen. Terry will put 13 pitchers and four catchers to work at Pensacola Feb. 24. Nine infielders and seven outfielders will begin drills a week later.

Among the pitching newcomers is Harry Gumbert, who won 19 and lost 10 games for Baltimore in the International league before joining the Giants in the last few weeks of the 1935 season.

FLORALS DEFEAT DETROIT, 29 TO 27, IN LAST MINUTE

The Duffy Florals basketball team defeated the Detroit Hed-Aids, 29 to 27, in a Midwest Professional conference game at St. Rita High school gymnasium last night. A field goal by Joe Reiff decided the game in the last 30 seconds of play. The Florals led at the half, 18 to 13. Detroit is leading the league. Lineup:

Ring the Bell! Time Umpires Went to School

by working in the exhibition games. "Managers and players complain especially in the early weeks of the season that the umpires are missing balls and strikes," said the American league prexy. "It has been observed that their sight improves as the season advances. Thus the need of getting spring training right along with the players becomes apparent."

Mr. Harridge said that it was assumed that the umpires would take advantage of the camp facilities for getting into physical condition. They will be paid salaries and expenses while getting in shape. Ball players receive only expenses in spring training.

We submitted to Mr. Harridge a curriculum for the School of Umpires, a sort of round the clock routine. Maybe he admires umpires more than we do. At any rate, he didn't seem very enthusiastic about our plan. So we told him he could take it or leave it.

Sing "Solitude" in Shower.

But here is our plan, in case any umpire wants to follow it independently:

6 to 6:59 a. m.—Arise, dress, and take a ten mile run; bathe.

7 to 7:15 a. m.—Eat breakfast and retire to room.

7:15 a. m. to 12 m.—Sit alone in room and get in shape for summer isolation.

12:01 to 12:15 p. m.—Order a sandwich and bill league for six course luncheon.

12:15 to 12:45 p. m.—Go down to beach and listen to what the wild waves are saying. Become insulted and practice profane repartee. If Manager Neptune rises out of the surf send him to the clubhouse and recommend a fine.

12:45 to 1 p. m.—Read a rule book.

1 to 2:30 p. m.—Sit alone in room for further recluse practice. Have uniform pressed in meantime.

Get Rough with Rookies.

3 to 5—Umpire a ball game. Bulldoze any one who speaks above a whisper, especially rookies. Tell all rookies they are batting 100 points over their heads and never will cross the Mason and Dixon line going north.

5 p. m.—Ride back to hotel in livery rig supplied gratis by town undertaker.

6 p. m.—Eat a good dinner. If American and National league teams have played there will be two umpires there and it will be jolly if they eat together.

7 to 8:30 p. m. [or less]—Mingle with hotel guests until impulse to brag about never having made a mistake is felt coming on. Then go to room and sit alone until time to retire.

Some of our best pals are umpires. One of these times when we are out with Beans Reardon we want to have him tell you about that time he wired to Judge Landis.

WEISSMULLER'S MOTHER'S RENT TROUBLE BARED

It was revealed yesterday that a $254 judgment for unpaid rent was entered three months ago in Municipal court against Mrs. Elizabeth Weissmuller, mother of Johnny Weissmuller, screen actor and former swimming champion. The rent was for an apartment at 833 Crescent place, where Mrs. Weissmuller lived several years ago.

Mrs. Weissmuller, who is employed as cook at a weekly salary of $16 in a restaurant at 31 West Adams street, refused to comment on the matter. Los Angeles dispatches yesterday quoted D. C. Roos, Johnny Weissmuller's business manager, as stating that Mrs. Weissmuller had not paid the claim "for some reason that she considered good." The movie actor, he said, has been sending his mother "around $150 and $175 every month for an extended period.

Joe Delehanty of Famous Baseball Family Is Dead

Cleveland, O., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Joe Delehanty, a member of one of baseball's most famous families, died of a cerebral hemorrhage today at the age of 60. Delehanty, who played the outfield for the St. Louis Nationals, Montreal, Buffalo, and Toronto, was one of six brothers who starred in baseball, one being the late Ed. He is survived by the others, James, Frank, Willie, and Tom.

In the WAKE of the NEWS

QUINIELAS.

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., Jan. 29.—Quinielas are back at the Florida dog tracks. Perhaps that does not mean much to the readers, if any, of these experiences, but it does to The Wake. Quinielas are our favorite, almost sole, method of expressing speculative interest in dog races, which we assume are held to improve the breed of greyhounds. That, in part, is because we have a system which reduces mental perplexity on the winners to a minimum.

When here three years ago there were quinielas and we did very well with them, thank you, by our system. Two years ago they had been ruled out as gambling. This estimate was not surprising in view of the fact that dog races, as a sport, are even more uncertain than horse races. Moreover, dog race tracks, by state law, are allowed 15 per cent take in the mutuels, which, with the "breaks," amounts to about 17 per cent, compared to only 10 per cent and "breaks" for the horse tracks, which are operated at much greater expense.

Just who or what reviewed the estimates and decided that quinielas are not gambling we know not, but we welcome the decision.

Perhaps you are not familiar with the habits and love life of quinielas which would be an excellent subject for boondoggling. We never were able to ascertain the exact meaning of the term, although it is supposed to have been derived from the Latin game of jai alai.

But here's how it works. Suppose it was a horse race and you wanted to play a horse straight and place. You'd have to make two wagers. In quinielas, however, you pick two of eight dogs to run one-two or two-one. That is, their order of finish does not matter just so they take the first two places. As fields are limited to eight, it is surprising what liberal prices are paid, which strengthens our observation that dog races are more uncertain than horse races.

In our previous experience we just chose dogs numbered 2 and 4, so numbered from their post positions. No mental worry—except when you lost. Just stick to your system and let the law of averages do its work. Never deviate from your system by trying to pick the hounds on form.

The highest quiniela we ever cashed was $102 for $2. One night when we were not at the track the system clicked with $572 for $2. It was like being absent when your name is called on a bank night at the movie.

When quinielas first were recommended to us we protested it was hard enough to pick one dog let alone two, to which Bob Cunningham of Evanston, then here, replied, "Certainly not. You don't know anything about the dogs anyway. Therefore it's just as easy to pick two as one."

So far we haven't participated but are perfecting our system. The 2-4 combination isn't clicking. We have another combination. It has paid handsomely on eight of ten nights. If it continues and we adopt it, we'll acquaint any readers who may be coming this way. Perhaps, on the other hand, it's like those systems for beating the wheel. They work while you're an observer, but fail when you become an investor.

Chicago.

Chicago is raucous, high-powered, and slaving. Chicago has much that is vile and depraving. Chicago is cold and Chicago is hot, with life worth nothing if you're on the spot. There are murders and suicides. Bandits each day will rob some poor victim and then get away. The highways are periled with drivers who drink, and graft is too often condoned with a wink.

BUT

There are miles of smooth pavement along the lake shore and golden sand beaches for thousands and more. As for beautiful parks, they are second to none, and acres of playgrounds where children may run. There are museums, galleries, music, and zoos, with boating and tennis and golf if you choose. There's anything, everything life has to give, and I'm telling the world it's a swell place to live. Elizabeth A. Thomas.

Regents Plan Quiz of Badger Prep Official

Madison, Wis., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Reliable reports today indicated that the University of Wisconsin board of regents intends to dig to the bottom in its investigation of the university's troubled athletic affairs.

On the heels of a four hour session yesterday with Athletic Director Walter E. Meanwell and the announcement that Dr. Clarence W. Spears, head football coach, would be heard Feb. 6, it was learned from a member of the regents' committee that it plans to question Paul F. Neverman, secretary of the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic association, and Carl Drexler, regent when Spears came to Wisconsin in 1932 but whose term expires Feb. 1.

Wonder at Tourney Switch.

Neverman's name was brought into yesterday's session when the regents sought to learn why the state high school basketball tournament was this year transferred from Madison, where it had been held for many years, to Wisconsin Rapids. Meanwell testified he believed the reasons were financial.

Drexler's name was mentioned in connection with anti-Spears remarks allegedly made to him about four years ago.

Meanwhile the regents' committee will study the numerous letters, contracts, "memos," and other exhibits introduced by Dr. Meanwell in justifying his actions on various phases of the tangled controversy.

Interested in Contracts.

From the tone of questioning yesterday by Regents Daniel Grady and Harold M. Wilkie it appears the committee is most interested in the revelation of contracts Meanwell had with companies manufacturing athletic equipment purchased by the university and from which he derived a profit, and the secret written "memos" between Meanwell and two of the coaches, Harold E. [Bud] Foster in basketball, and John F. [Bobby] Poser in baseball.

Farragut High school's undefeated senior basketball team added another victory to its string yesterday by defeating Harrison Tech, 27 to 22, and remain in first place in the central division of the Chicago Public High School league. It was Farragut's fifth league triumph of the season. The sectional leaders led at the end of the first half, 16 to 11.

Two other unbeaten senior quintets, Von Steuben of the north section and Crane Tech of the west division, also triumphed. Von Steuben, with White and Busse leading the attack, defeated Sullivan, 30 to 20, while Crane Tech led by Harry Krotish, who scored six field goals, won from Foreman, 43 to 22.

Senn Wins on Byrne's Goal.

A basket by Andy Byrne, guard, in the final seconds of play gave Senn, second place holders in the north section, a 34 to 33 victory over Roosevelt. It was Roosevelt's fourth setback. Roosevelt led at the intermission, 24 to 14, and 30 to 25, at the third period.

The second place Austin team of the west division ran up the highest score of the day as it overwhelmed McKinley, 59 to 15. Anderson was the leader in Austin's attack against McKinley, which has yet to score a victory in league competition. The star forward collected nine field goals and three free throws.

Hirsch Juniors Win Again.

Hirsch's junior quintet, leader in the south section, defeated Calumet, 47 to 34, for its fourth consecutive victory. In another junior contest, Tuley handed Kelvyn Park a 36 to 26 setback. It was Tuley's third victory and Kelvyn Park's third defeat.

MISSION CLUB MAY BE MOVED TO LOS ANGELES

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Probability that the Mission club of the Pacific Coast Baseball league would be moved from San Francisco, where it has alternated with the Frisco Seals in use of the latter's ball park, to Los Angeles was made known here today.

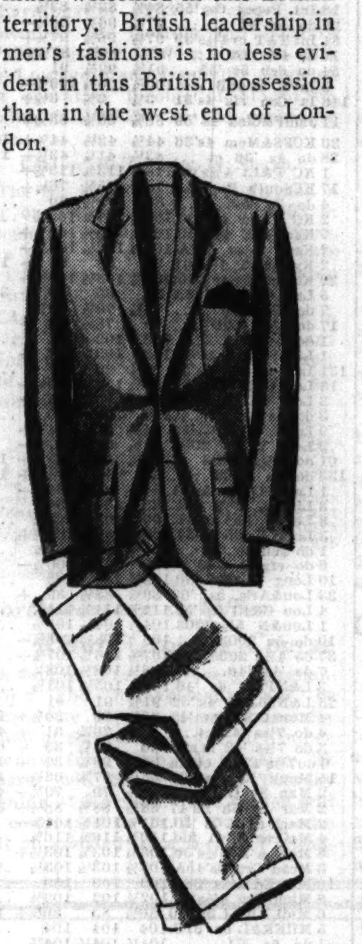
The Missions, originally the Vernon Tigers of the coast league, moved north to become San Francisco's second club in the eight club circuit after the old Salt Lake City franchise was transferred to become the club now known as Hollywood. The Hollywood franchise will be shifted to San Diego for the season opening on March 28.

FASHIONS

FOR MEN ONLY

If you would like information about modes for men, especially about articles described in this column, write to the Men's Fashion department, Chicago Tribune, Chicago, Illinois. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your letter.

WE respect the discernment shown by H. R. H., the duke of Kent, in electing to stop off at Nassau during his honeymoon cruise last winter. We're sure it wasn't just the rose tinted binoculars of the royal newlyweds that governed the choice. Fashionwise folk have long accepted Nassau as an ideal spot for winter sojourning. Even Columbus, one of the earliest of winter cruise fans, favored the Bahamas with kind words. The growth of "winter resorting" has brought about a still greater appreciation of Nassau, and the increasing American invasion has been much welcomed in this British territory. British leadership in men's fashions is no less evident in this British possession than in the west end of London.



A natural gabardine jacket, which may be part of a suit, will serve admirably on many occasions. White flannel trousers are a "must" for Nassau, with an alternate in a pair of medium gray flannels.

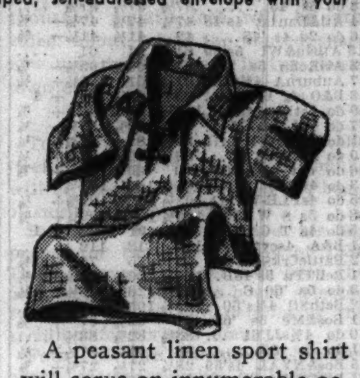
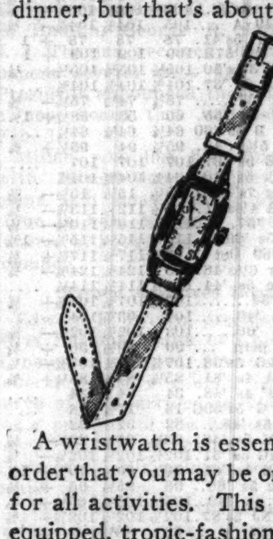
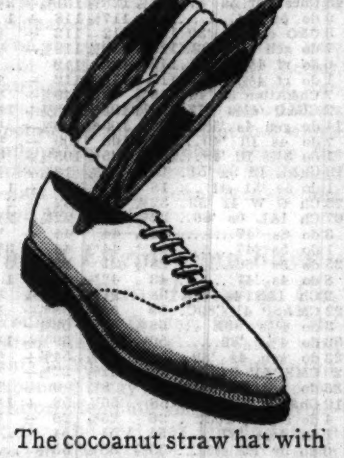
Abbreviated beach trunks will come in for proper and full use on Bahaman sands. For general lounging, golfing, or tennis, you'll want a pair of linen or gabardine shorts. Even the duke wore these.



A peasant linen sport shirt will serve on innumerable occasions. You'll change it for dinner, but that's about all.



A wristwatch is essential in order that you may be on time for all activities. This one is equipped, tropic-fashion, with a white, washable, linen strap.



The cocoanut straw hat with puggaree band is indigenous to Nassau. This type of hat is inexpensive down there. You'll want to take along a pair of all-white shoes, preferably with rubber soles.

MEN'S TROUSERS A DEVELOPMENT THROUGH AGES

First Were of Lether and Later of Silk.

BY HARRISON HOWARD.

Inasmuch as we men go to great lengths to be known as the ones who "wear the pants"—so to speak—it is interesting to note briefly how this important phase of our attire developed.

The word breeches comes simply enough from the fact that they cover in divided fashion the lower part of the body, while the term trousers is probably a colloquial offshoot of the word "trousse," meaning originally a knife case which hung from the girdle.

Previous to any historic evidence of man's use of breeches or trousers as body coverings we find the Egyptians, Babylonians, and their ilk dressing in shapeless loose fitting tunics with mere holes for arms and head. This style might have persisted more generally—as it did specifically when it took shape as the Roman toga—had not the influential Medes and Persians found it necessary, in their greater use of horses, to devise garments more suitable for riding.

Blouselike Shirts.

Thus, in 700 B. C., we discover the latter getting into blouselike shorts with sleeves and the first long hose or breeches with wide legs and fastened waistlines. They were made first of lether and later of silk and softer materials.

From these earliest of styles, in countries of more modified climate, developed the tighter fitting long hose of cloth joined at the top and tailored around the waist and loins sufficiently to assume the first real form of breeches as we know them today. By the 13th century the French were wearing this style almost exclusively, made of wool, linen, or silk and in bright colors. Likewise in Germany throughout the 14th century tailors began developing elastic seats and other features to give comfort and fit.

At the beginning and throughout the 15th century, the tight fitting stocking trouser or "tights," as we might consider them today, took on an added feature around the hips in the form of puffy or baggy silk shorts—a style adopted quite generally by the men of England as well as France and Germany. To these puffed shorts Italy and Spain in the 16th century added slashed sides held together with colored lacings, a fashion which reached a height with Henry III. of France and persisted in one form or another throughout the Elizabethan era.

Puffs Are Worn.

In the 17th century breeches with longer puffs became evident—a style shaped very much like the riding breeches of today but trimmed and pleated and made of silk and fancy dress materials. They were principally three-quarter length and tucked into cavalier boots. From this style, with considerable of the puff removed, came finally the knee length silk pants and silk stockings which were worn in our own colonial times.

From 1790 on breeches continued to become more practical, narrowing and widening slightly, shortening and lengthening at times, but embodying fundamentally the styles of today. The only radical change in the last fifty years is the slide fastener opening in front. Like most other garments worn by man, breeches had their beginning and evolution through a meeting of necessity and common sense.

New York, Jan. 29.—[Special.]—The forward movement in United States government issues continued to feature trading in the listed market today. Volume of the entire list was comparable with the previous session with sales totaling $19,646,000, against $19,321,000 Tuesday.

Longer term government obligations were specially popular. Treasury 3⅛s of 1949 advanced 9-32ds to 104.2, home owners loan 3s of 1952 were bid up 7-32ds to 101.2, and gains of nearly that much were shown by most all of the other active issues.

Buying Interest Quickens.

Although sales in federal obligation dropped to $1,649,700, compared with $2,930,900 on the previous day, dealers in governments reported a better feeling among buyers and increased inquiries, especially from out of town banks in smaller communities.

Domestic corporations were irregularly higher while second and low grade rails moved up a fraction to 3 points.

Several Issues Advance.

American Rolling Mills 4¼s advanced 2½ points and Botany Mills issues gained 2½ to 2¾ points and were the feature of the industrial section.

Investors' Guide: Please advise me as to the status of Community Power and Light 5s, due 1957.—J. E. C.

Answer: Rate reductions, increased operating expenses and higher taxes have hit Community Power & Light company rather hard. In addition, its future is clouded somewhat by threats of municipal competitive plants. The company obtained injunctions against their operation, but the issue is not yet settled.

This is a holding company, controled by American Community Power company, another holding company, in receivership. It furnishes electricity, gas, ice, and water to a scattered group of 170 communities in Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas, New registered with the Securities and Exchange commission in accordance with the public utilities act of 1935. of 1.08 times.

Operating revenues for the 12 months to Nov. 30, 1935, were about 1½ per cent less than those for the preceding 12 months. Fixed charges were earned by the narrow margin of 1.08 times, against 1.17 times in the 12 months to Nov. 30, 1934.

Operating revenues in 1934 were $3,806,000, against $3,681,000 in 1933, $3,968,000 in 1932 and $4,436,000 in 1931. In 1934 fixed charges were earned 1.17 times, against 1.22 times in 1933, 1.37 times in 1932 and 1.68 times in 1931.

Not Entitled to Dividend.

Investors' Guide: I should like your advice. On Dec. 6 my broker sold for me Armour of Delaware 7 per cent stock. I delivered the stock to him on Dec. 10. On Jan. 1 I received a check for the dividend. Now the broker has phoned me and said that I must turn the check over to him as I am not entitled to it. I was paid in full for my stock. Should I do this?—Mrs. H. O. F.

Answer: You are not entitled to the Jan. 1 dividend. The dividend belongs to the person who owned the stock on Dec. 10, the date of record. Because corporations mail dividends to stockholders whose names are listed on their books on the record date you received the dividend check.

It is apparent here, however, that the person to whom you sold the stock was unable in the short time between delivery of the stock and the record date to have the stock transferred to his name, but it is equally apparent that his name properly should have been listed as the person to whom the dividend should have been sent.

REMINGTON-RAND PLANS TO REDUCE DEBENTURE RATE

Vote Called for Feb. 21; Utility Loans Filed.

New York, Jan. 29. — [Special.] — A meeting of the holders of the $20,000,000 twenty year 5½ per cent, series A, 1947, debentures of the Remington Rand, Inc., has been called for Feb. 21, to vote on exchange these securities into 4¼ per cent debentures, dated March 2, 1936, and maturing March 1, 1956.

The new debentures will carry warrants entitling the holders to purchase the company's common stock in the ratio of fifteen shares for each $1,000 debenture over a period of eight years at prices ranging from $25 to $40 a share.

Redemption Provisions.

The new debentures will be redeemable in part on any interest date and as whole at any date on thirty days' notice at 105 per cent of principal at any time prior to March 1, 1941, or at 104 per cent after March 1, 1941 to March 1, 1946, at 103 per cent to March 1, 1951, at 102 per cent to Sept. 1, 1954, and 100½ per cent of principal after Sept. 1, 1954.

If the plan is approved at the meeting on Feb. 21, it will become effective on March 2, and interest will be adjusted on that date. The offer of exchange will expire on March 10. Any of the new debentures not absorbed through exchange will be offered at par plus a premium of 4 per cent and accrued interest.

Utilities File Issues.

The Connecticut River Power company of Littleton, N. H., has asked registration of $ 0,300,000 of first mortgage 3¾ per cent sinking fund bonds, series A, due Feb. 15, 1961, and Public Service company of Oklahoma for $16,000,000 of 4 per cent first mortgage bonds, series A, due Feb. 1, 1966, and $2,000,000 of 4 per cent serial debentures due serially Feb. 1, 1937, to Feb. 1, 1946.

Central Illinois Light company, a subsidiary of Commonwealth and Southern corporation, announced a call for redemption on April 1, of all its outstanding $7,178,500 first and refunding mortgage 5 per cent gold bonds, due April 1, 1943, at 105 and accrued interest.

UTILITIES LEAD CHICAGO STOCK PRICES HIGHER

Utilities led and advance on the Chicago Stock exchange yesterday that lifted 24 issues to new highs for the year. Among the utility shares to reach new high ground were Central and Southwest preferred, Kentucky Utility 6 per cent preferred, Central States Power, Cities Service, Interstate Power 7 per cent preferred, and Midland United preferred.

Cities Service was the most active issue in the list, advancing ¼ to close at 5⅝ on a turnover of 13,650 shares. Total turnover was 128,000 shares.

The governing committee of the Chicago Stock exchange approved the applications for listing of the following issues: 150,000 shares of W. B. Jarvis company capital stock, $1 par value; 24,761 shares of Leath & Co. $2.50 cumulative preferred stock, no par value, and 49,522 additional shares of common stock, no par value; 191,456 shares of George A. Hormel & Co. common stock additional. Due to maturity, $1,488,500 in ten year sinking fund debentures of the White Sewing Machine corporation were removed from listing.

Arrangements were completed for the sale of a membership for $5,000, unchanged from the last sale.

STRENGTH IN STOCK MART RAISES PRICES OF COTTON

Cotton made a quiet start and a strong finish yesterday, the close being around the best figures of the day on buying induced by strength in the stock market. Weakness in Liverpool was largely responsible for the early dip. Owing to the relatively light speculative trade, the market is easily influenced. Chicago showed net gains of 15 to 50 cents per bale and other markets were up 10 to 60 cents per bale.

Spot cotton closed 5 points higher with New Orleans at 11.70 cents; Houston and Galveston, 11.55 cents, and New York, 11.85 cents per pound. Prices in cents per pound:

AIRPLANE, RAIL, MOTOR SHARES RISE RAPIDLY

Business News Aids Late Upturn.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, Jan. 29.—Motor, airplane, and railroad shares came to the front with a flourish in the final hour of trading on the stock exchange today and the aviation and carrier groups both entered new high ground for the movement. Utilities showed increased activity, particularly the lower priced descriptions, and several new peaks were attained.

A miscellaneous assortment of specialties displayed rather sharp moves, most of them to improved levels, but several moved into lower territory. Volume at 2,694,235 shares was about 400,000 shares above that of the preceding session.

Business News Helpful.

The market had the benefit of a somewhat more favorable grist of general news. Among the outstanding items was the United States Steel corporation's statement for 1935, which was better than had been expected, and the action of the Westinghouse Electric board in raising that corporation's dividend. Reports of good backlog orders for the first quarter were a factor in demand for the automotive issues, and the utilities drew attention as the time approached for the Supreme court's decision on the TVA.

Inflation talk persisted on the growing belief that the bulk of the bonus funds will find its way into leading industrial channels, particularly the merchandise and automobile fields, and this was a bullish influence to the market in general.

Chrysler Shorts Cover.

Chrysler was the star performer in the motor division. The issue rose nearly three points on lively demand, much of it from shorts hastening to cover. General Motors advanced a point. Yellow Truck continued its climb, selling to a new high along with the preferred.

Douglas showed the way up for the airplanes with a rise of nearly 4 points. Oils joined the rally, Standard of Jersey climbing $3 a share and the Standards of California and Indiana bucking up a point or so each.

In the carrier department, the Van Sweringen issues were active on rumors of a higher dividend for Chesapeake and Ohio. New York Central found new friends and charged through to a new high.

REPUBLIC STEEL REPORTS $4,455,734 PROFIT FOR 1935

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—(AP)—A securities commission report today showed that Republic Steel corporation earned $4,455,734 net profit in 1935 after all charges.

The figure was given in connection with a company registration statement. No other 1935 data were reported.

$1,200,000 Expansion Approved.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 29.—(AP)—The Republic Steel corporation announced today that expenditure of $1,200,000 for improvements has been approved by directors.

Remodeling the plant at Warren, O., will be the largest project, at an expense of about $500,000. This will include enlargement of the strip steel cold rolling mill and tin plate finishing equipment.

Youngstown Mills will get expenditure of $400,000. Improvement of Electric Tube Welding mill No. 3 will take $250,000. Other plants will get the remainder, the announcement said.

NAME MARGESON TO FIELD POST HELD BY MEARS

J. P. Margeson Jr. has been appointed general sales manager of Marshall Field & Co. manufacturing division to succeed Grant S. Mears, whose resignation was accepted, the company announced yesterday.

Margeson was formerly merchandise and production manager as well as assistant general manager of the manufacturing division.

Food Price Index Turns Higher After Recent Dips

The Dun & Bradstreet food price index advanced 1 cent to $2.67 for the week ended Jan. 28. This followed three successive declines which carried the figure to the lowest level since July, 1935. The current index is even with a year ago.

N.Y. Gets First 'Free Trade' Zone in U.S.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Establishment of the first free foreign trade zone in the United States was provided for today when Secretary Roper announced that New York City had been granted the privilege of establishing, operating, and maintaining a free area at Stapleton, Staten Island, for the transshipment of goods to and from foreign countries.

Secretary Roper hailed the step as one calculated to enhance shipping on American vessels and added that trans-shipment business has been an important factor in the development of some of the world's leading ports.

Restricted to 79 Acres.

The zone was restricted to five piers and the adjacent inland territory, consisting of a total land and water area of about 79 acres. Permission was granted to construct a seven story warehouse and building with a floor area of 1,196,685 square feet.

The original application called for the use of twelve piers with a land and water area of 200 acres, but only 12 to 16, inclusive, were actually included in the free area by the foreign trade zone board, of which Secretary Roper is chairman and Secretaries Morgenthau and Dern members.

Place Cost at $4,600,000.

The entire development is expected to cost $4,600,000, with the warehouse accounting for $3,500,000 for this sum.

Under terms of the grant, construction must begin within thirty days and be completed within nine months. The secretary declared, however, that it was the intention of the city to have the necessary barrier constructed and the zone ready for limited operation within 90 to 120 days.

Federal funds cannot be expended for this purpose, and New York City will bear the entire cost of the establishment of this free trade zone.

The grant was made in accordance with the foreign trade zones act of 1934, which was sponsored in congress by Representative Celler of New York.

Roper Explains "Free Zone."

Secretary Roper explained that "the purpose of a foreign trade zone is to foster the dealing in foreign goods which are received, not for domestic consumption, but for reshipment to foreign markets and for manipulation, including combining with domestic merchandise previous to exportation."

The act under which this zone is established defines a zone as an isolated, inclosed, and policed area in or adjacent to a port of entry without resident population except the necessary administrative personnel. The zone will be operated as a public utility under federal supervision and commodities will be free from the usual customs regulations.

DOLLAR LOSES GROUND AGAINST FOREIGN MONEYS

New York, Jan. 29.—[Special.]—The irregular movement of the dollar in foreign exchange continued today with the currency declining by about as much as it had advanced Tuesday. The pound rose 1 cent to $5.00⅜, the franc gained ⅛ point to 6.66½ cents, the guilder rose 7 points to 68.59 cents, the Swiss franc rose 5 points to 32.90 cents and the belga advanced 2 points to 17.05 cents. Canadian dollars rose 3-32 cent to 100.21 cents.

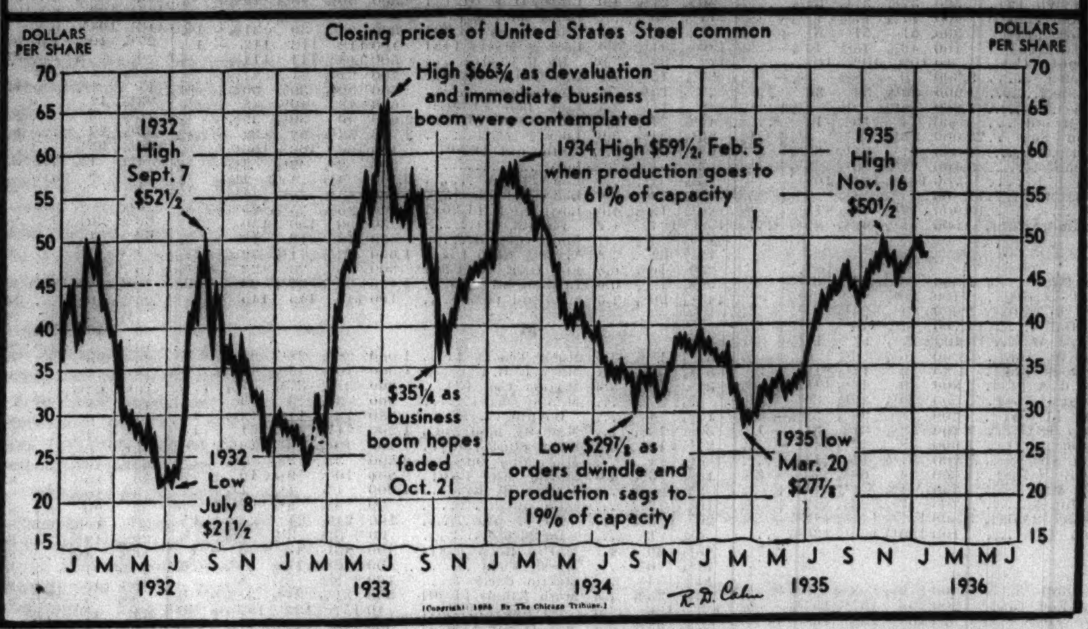
The slight rise in the franc reduced the dollar to 99.52 cents against francs from 99.54 cents yesterday, and the "59 cent" dollar was worth 58.78 cents, against 58.79 yesterday.

The London gold price was reduced one penny to 140 shillings 8 pence, equal to $35.08 an ounce. The silver price was fixed at 20 pence an ounce, or 44.93 cents, unchanged from Monday's figure. The price was also steady here at 44¾ cents.

Rasmussen, National Tea Founder, Feted at Dinner

George Rasmussen, president and founder of the National Tea company, was honored last night at a founder's day banquet attended by 150 company officials and guests in the Hotel Sherman. The company's first unit was opened in Chicago on Dec. 9, 1899, and has expanded to 1,200 stores, employing more than 6,000 persons and doing an annual business of $65,000,000. Mr. Rasmussen, who was ill and unable to attend, was represented by his son, R. V. Rasmussen.

How the Price of U. S. Steel Common Has Fluctuated During the Past Five Years



[Copyright: 1936: By The Chicago Tribune.]

Steel Output Declines Half Point to 50½%

While severe weather last week retarded the movement of iron and steel and sales of used cars, which largely determine production of new automobiles, demand for steel from railroads and miscellaneous sources continues to improve, Iron Age says in its current edition.

For the nation as a whole there has been little change in the steel operating rate. The average stood at 50½ per cent of productive capacity, or only ½ point below the average for the three preceding weeks.

One district, the south, reported a gain of 14 points to 60 per cent. Losses for other areas included ½ point to 52½ per cent at Chicago, 1 point to 36 per cent at Pittsburgh, 5 points to 30 per cent at Buffalo, 2 to 60 in the valleys, and 2 to 70 in the Wheeling district.

No Change in 4 Areas.

There was no change at Philadelphia, operating at 40 per cent, nor at Cleveland with operations at 66 per cent, the southern Ohio river area at 78 per cent, and Detroit at 100 per cent.

Besides the improvement in demand for steel from railroads, the journal cites greater activity among machinery builders, farm equipment makers, valve and fittings shops, washing machine manufacturers, and stove plants.

Steel pipe orders have risen about 5 per cent above December volume, chiefly because of heavier demand from oil producers. Construction is on an ascending scale though impeded by weather conditions at present.

Low temperatures have strengthened scrap prices, but the magazine's composite remains at $13.58 a gross ton.

Awards Heaviest Since April Steel.

Structural steel awards of 27,700 tons in the week ended Tuesday were the largest since the third week of April, 1935, and compare with 13,950 tons in the preceding week. Total awards for the month to date are 100,500 tons, compared with 76,380 tons in December, and 76,680 in November.

NORTH WESTERN WILL AWARD BIG ORDER FOR RAILS

An order for 35,000 tons of rails will be placed today by the Chicago and North Western railway with the Carnegie Illinois Steel company, officials of the road announced yesterday. This is the second rail order to be placed by the road this year.

Together with an order for fastenings, which will be placed later, the Carnegie Illinois purchase will involve an expenditure of approximately $1,750,000. Last week the road ordered 16,000 tons of rails from the Inland Steel company, which, with the necessary fastenings, will cost about $800,000.

Pressed Steel Car Reports Unfilled Orders 7½ Million

Unfilled orders of the Pressed Steel Car company total $7,500,000, according to an announcement by the company yesterday. The corporation is attempting to reorganize under section 77B of the bankruptcy act.

WESTINGHOUSE LIFTS DIVIDEND TO 75 CENTS; ANACONDA UNIT PAYS

Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company yesterday increased its dividend rate and the Anaconda Wire and Cable company, subsidiary of Anaconda Copper Mining company, resumed dividends on capital stock after a lapse since 1931.

A dividend of 75 cents declared by Westinghouse, payable Feb. 29, compares with payments of 50 cents on Nov. 30 and Aug. 30 of last year.

The Anaconda Wire payment amounts to 25 cents quarterly. The action follows by a few days the special meeting in Wilmington, Del., for approving a capital readjustment. The last previous payment was also 25 cents and was made on Aug. 10, 1931.

An extra dividend of $1 and a dividend of the same amount were declared on the capital stock of National Union Fire Insurance company. The Pacific Fire Insurance company voted an extra 25 cents.

Deere & Co. voted an accumulation dividend of 35 cents a share on the 7 per cent preferred, payable March 2. On Dec. 2, when a similar payment was made, the arrears totaled $3.35 a share.

Scotten Dillon company announced a dividend of 50 cents a share on the common stock, payable Feb. 16.

A. M. CASTLE & CO. EARNINGS EQUAL $2.90 PER SHARE

A. M. Castle & Co. had net profit of $348,407 in the year ended Dec. 31, 1935, according to the annual report issued yesterday. These earnings were equivalent to $2.90 a share on the 120,000 shares outstanding and compare with net profit of $390,349 or $3.41 a share on 114,497 shares in 1934.

William B. Simpson, chairman of the board, pointed out, however, that profits for 1934 included $86,041, equal to 75 cents a share, representing the difference between the proceeds collected on life insurance and the cash surrender value of the policies.

The balance sheet of Dec. 31 showed net working capital of $3,100,578, or an increase of $143,770 over the preceding year. Current assets at the end of 1935 were $3,328,311, against current liabilities of $227,733. A year earlier they were $3,125,931, against $169,123.

UTILITIES POWER AND LIGHT BOARD IS RE-ELECTED

Richmond, Va., Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Directors of the Utilities Power and Light corporation were reëlected at a meeting of stockholders here today. It was indicated the board will reëlect present officers headed by Harley L. Clarke of Chicago as president, within the next few days.

Directors reëlected, besides Clarke, are Ronald R. Monroe, Forrest Moulton, and Morris E. Ferrell of Chicago; Archibald L. Jackson and Harry M. Hope of New York, and Phillips B. Shaw of Summit, N. J.

The stockholders' meeting was originally scheduled for last April, but was adjourned four times before it was finally held today.

Columbia Gas Agrees to End Pipeline Rule

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—(AP)—The justice department announced today that the Columbia Gas and Electric corporation had joined the government in a "consent decree" providing the withdrawal of Columbia from "domination or control, direct or indirect" in the affairs of Panhandle Eastern Pipeline company.

The government had charged the Columbia group, with "owning, controling, and dominating the operations of more than 70 subsidiaries," contending that Columbia had "conspired to prevent the introduction of natural gas" by purchasing an interest in the pipeline of Panhandle Eastern and thereafter interfering with Panhandle's financial transactions and contracts.

Panhandle had built a pipeline from the gas producing areas of Texas and Kansas to the Indiana border.

The court's decree, entered without a trial, perpetually enjoined Columbia Gas from any interference with the Panhandle Eastern's sale or delivery of natural gas anywhere in the country and from exercising any control in the management of Panhandle Eastern.

Named as defendants with Columbia Gas in the government's suit were George H. Howard, president of United corporation; Phillip G. Gossler, a director of Columbia Gas; Charles A. Munroe, president of Columbia Gas; Burt R. Bay, president of Panhandle Eastern, and John H. Hillman Jr., Pittsburgh financier.

Panhandle Eastern was organized in 1929 as a subsidiary of Missouri-Kansas Pipe Line company ["Mokan"], now in receivership, to carry natural gas to Indianapolis, Ind., and later to Detroit, Mich.; Dayton, O., and Cincinnati, O.

LEADING RAILS REPORT SHARP GAIN IN PROFITS

Santa Fe Operating Net Tripled.

Additional evidence of the recovery in railroad earning power was presented yesterday by several roads. The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe reported the highest December and yearly net operating income since 1932. The Burlington disclosed an increase in December net. The best return in five years was shown in 1935 net income of the Norfolk and Western. The Louisville and Nashville had the best operating net last year since 1930. The St. Louis Southwestern reported 1935 operating net the highest since 1926.

The Santa Fe's December net operating income of $1,146,794 was more than triple that of a year earlier while the total of $15,703,352 for 1935 was an improvement over 1934, when the figure was $15,229,319.

December Net Equal to 27 Cents.

Burlington's net income for December was equivalent to 27 cents a share, compared with 21 cents a share in December, 1934; net for the full year was equal to $1.07, against $2.60 a share in the preceding year. During the first eleven months of 1935 the railroad sustained a loss, the profit for the year being realized through release of pension accruals amounting to $640,000 and transfer of a fund of $1,467,823 for flood damage cost from operating expenses to profit and loss.

Earnings of $17.37 a share were shown by the Norfolk and Western in 1935, against $13.76 a share in 1934, the Louisville and Nashville reported net operating income of $13,961,959, against $12,967,297 in the preceding year.

Cotton Belt Gain Is Sharp.

The St. Louis Southwestern had a net operating income of $350,493 in December, against $9,521 last year. The total for the year at $2,644,318 was the best since 1929 and compared with $1,958,654 in 1934.

Last week there was a decline in freight trafic, due to halting of many shipments because of the extremely cold weather. Individual totals announced yesterday were:

Northwestern to Offer Retail Grocery Course

A course in retail grocery merchandising and management will be offered by Northwestern university school of commerce on the McKinlock campus from Feb. 11 to May 26. Classes will be held each Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The course will be conducted by D. J. Duncan, who will be assisted by a series of speakers.

Reserve to Let Contract for New Building

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—The federal reserve board will award a contract tomorrow for its magnificent new four million dollar building. Bids were opened today and overnight will be analyzed and tabulated.

The new building, by a happenstance, will rise on the site originally set for the District of Columbia sewage disposal plant several years ago. Razing of the old federal trade commission structure on this location has already started.

Clothed with a marble exterior, the new reserve board edifice will be four stories high, topped off with a penthouse restaurant. Ninety-two thousand square feet will be provided, about triple the rented space now used by the board in two downtown office buildings.

District Banks to Pay.

To defray the costs, each of the twelve federal reserve regional banks will be assessed pro rata on the basis of capital and surplus.

President Roosevelt gave his approval for the site in July of 1934. Then followed competition over the plan, and last May the board selected Paul P. Cret of Philadelphia as the architect for its new home.

Four of the incumbent reserve board members who will vote to award the contract will never be installed officially in the new building. These men, Adolph C. Miller, Charles S. Hamlin, George R. James, and J. J. Thomas, received their walking papers several days ago when the President announced the selection of a new board that will take office Feb. 1.

Miller, who has had much to do with formulation of the building plans, said today that he would continue to help out with them in the future, although no longer a board member.

Brown Approves Board.

Edward E. Brown, president of the First National Bank of Chicago and a newly appointed member of the federal advisory council of the reserve system, arrived in Washington for a meeting of the finance committee of the United States Chamber of Commerce. His opinion on the new board was asked.

"The makeup of the new federal reserve board on the whole is very satisfactory and pleasing to the bankers of the country," he said. "It is much better than the bankers had anticipated."

The two holdovers on the new board will be Marriner S. Eccles, chairman, and M. S. Szymczak, former city controler of Chicago. Others appointed by the President and whose confirmation is pending before the senate include Joseph A. Broderick, Ronald Ransom, John McKee, and Ralph W. Morrison.

United Engineering Buys McIntosh-Hemphill Co.

Youngstown, O., Jan. 29.—(AP)—The United Engineering company, with plants in Youngstown and Pittsburgh, announced today it had purchased the McIntosh-Hemphill company of Wooster, O. The deal was said to involve between $500,000 and $600,000. United Engineering constructs heavy mill machinery.

RESERVE BANK SEEKS 'BETTER' GOLD POSITION

Explains Treasury Certificate Move.

BY HOWARD WOOD.

Action by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York in withdrawing two billion dollars of gold certificates from the treasury in Washington was prompted by a desire to obtain something as close to actual possession of gold as possible under existing laws, it was learned yesterday in a telephone conversation with a high official of the bank.

Although insisting that the move bore no especial significance and that it was merely a "bookkeeping" change, this official admitted that one compelling consideration was a desire by the nation's number one reserve bank to put itself in the strongest possible situation with respect to gold.

Possession Prohibited.

Actual possession of gold bullion by the twelve reserve banks is prohibited by law, but the banks are given the privilege of choosing whether they will take gold certificates, series of 1934, or merely a credit on the treasury's books in Washington in exchange for the gold which was commandeered from their vaults by the government in 1934. Until the New York reserve bank's demand for gold certificates was disclosed on Tuesday there was no suspicion that the reserve banks were not satisfied with treasury credit in place of the certificates.

The New York bank's respresentative yesterday said that the institution also desired the certificates for "psychological" reasons. It was regarded advantageous, he said, for the bank to be able to show the public that it had actual money in its vaults—once packed with gold—instead of merely being owed the money by the government. The bank, he said, wished to restore as nearly as possible under present laws the status that it enjoyed before the gold reserve act of 1934 became effective.

Act Is Two Years Old.

Two years ago today the gold reserve act became law. It provided, among other things, for the discontinuance of the circulation of gold, the conversion of gold into bullion, and the transfer of all monetary gold from the federal reserve banks to the treasury, the reserve banks being offered in return for their gold, new gold certificates of the 1934 series. The following day the price of gold was placed at $35 an ounce by presidential decree, as compared with its former gold standard value of $20.67 an ounce. This meant that for each gold dollar formerly held the reserve banks got the equivalent in new gold certificates, but the new dollars were 59 cent dollars and hence worth less than actual gold.

Whether, as some in the financial community believe, the reserve bank officials fear future additional currency debasement is not known, but the mere possession of the gold cer-

COLD WEATHER BOOSTS NATION'S POWER OUTPUT

Chicago Total Is Fifth Highest on Record.

The cold wave was beneficial to the electric power industry, combining with improved industrial consumption to bring a contraseasonal production increase of about 0.3 per cent last week and lift the total to a new seasonal peak.

The output of 1,955,507,000 kilowatt hours for the nation, as reported by the Edison Electric institute, compared with 1,949,676,000 kilowatt hours in the preceding week, and 1,781,666,000 in the corresponding week of 1935. The gain over last year amounted to 9.8 per cent, against an increase of 9.6 per cent in the preceding week over a year ago.

Chicago Output Large.

In the Chicago area the sub-zero temperatures boosted the total power output to the fifth highest level for any week, being surpassed only by one week last December and three weeks in December, 1929.

The Chicago total was 120,906,000 kilowatt hours, compared with 117,290,000 in the preceding week and 112,542,000 in the corresponding week of last year, according to the Commonwealth Edison company. A gain of 7.4 per cent over 1935 compared with an increase of 5.8 per cent a week earlier.

Comparative Figures.

Totals for the Chicago area in kilowatt hours and percentage comparisons with last year were [last three ciphers omitted]:

Week ended.	1936.	1935.	Per cent increase
Jan. 25	120,906	112,542	7.4
Jan. 18	117,290	110,864	5.8
Jan. 11	118,193	109,007	8.4
Jan. 4	111,644	102,730	8.7

All the major geographic regions showed gains over the same week last year. Percentage advances were: New England, 5.7; middle Atlantic, 7.5; central industrial, 8.3; west central, 11.7; southern states, 12.3; Rocky mountain, 22.4; and Pacific coast, 12.2.

RESERVE BANK SEEKS 'BETTER' GOLD POSITION

Explains Its Treasury Certificate Move.

tificates is little protection against such debasement. Under the gold reserve act of 1934 the President has the authority to reduce the value of the dollar still further to 50 per cent of its former gold value, and congress could pass legislation cutting it even more.

Might Hinder Spending.

Reserve bank possession of the gold certificates, however, might make it more difficult for the government to expropriate for its own spending purposes the gold which is held in treasury vaults as security for the certificates, which, in turn, is security for the paper money issued by the reserve banks plus the deposits held by them for commercial member banks. In Italy the financially hard pressed Fascist government has confiscated the gold reserves that formerly backed the currency and is spending them to cover its vast expenditures.

History shows that in periods of monetary uncertainty central banks attempt to safeguard their gold reserves as far as possible. During the pre-moratorium days in the United States the Bank of France, for example, made several successive moves to protect its gold holdings in this country. First, it withdrew its gold from American commercial banks and deposited it with the reserve banks. Then it placed the gold under earmark, and finally it transported the metal to Paris.

Bank Doing Best It Can.

The Federal Reserve Bank of New York is barred by law from regaining possession of its former gold reserves. In exchanging its bookkeeping credits in Washington for the gold certificates—which are warehouse receipts for gold—however, it appears to be doing the most that it can under present laws to strengthen its position with respect to gold.

This edging in the direction of gold is interpreted in financial circles as proof that, despite all the talk about the advantages of "managed" money, gold is still regarded as the undisputed measure of value and is still the thing which people want for protection in periods of monetary uncertainty.

BUTTER AND EGG FUTURES SHOW FIRMER UNDERTONE

Butter and egg futures on the Chicago Mercantile exchange showed a firmer undertone yesterday. Short covering offset bearish statistics. Butter closed ⅛ to ¼ cent higher with January at 32 cents per pound. Eggs were unchanged to ½ cent higher with January at 20 cents per dozen.

According to New York reports, about 2,000,000 pounds of New Zealand butter, which arrived there Monday, will be unloaded and 200,000 pounds will be shipped to London. Sales of butter were 64 cars and eggs 50 cars. Deliveries on January contracts were two cars of butter and 24 cars of eggs. Prices:

MODEST BOOSTS IN APARTMENT RENTS EXPECTED

Residential Occupancy in Chicago Now 97%.

BY AL CHASE.

Although Chicago's average residential occupancy is now 97 per cent only moderate increases in rents are expected to be made in scattered sections of the city.

This prediction was made last night by Chicago realty men at the first 1936 open forum and conference of Chicago renting managers held under the auspices of the Chicago Real Estate board, at 32 West Randolph street.

It was considered probable there would be a moderate advance in rentals of smaller and better class apartments and a general 10 per cent boost on the northwest side.

Carl L. Kingsbury, president of the South Side Renting Men's association, said that his area is 97 per cent rented.

Cost of Small Flats to Rise.

"Despite this higher than normal occupancy I don't foresee any general increase in rents," he said. "In the one, two and three room suites, however, the rental figure may rise slightly in the coming months."

"Only in the better grade buildings will there be any increase in rents" he predicted. "Our vacancies at present do not exceed 3 per cent."

On the northwest side, however, Louis L. Schorsch, president of the Northwest Real Estate board, predicted a general 10 per cent increase in apartment rentals. He said that occupancy is 98 per cent or better.

Five Per Cent on North Side.

"We look for a boost of about 5 per cent," he said, "in the smaller and better class of buildings. Our occupancy is about 96 per cent."

Howard E. Haynie, first vice president of the Chicago Real Estate board, told how organization and coöperation have benefited the real estate profession in Chicago.

The guest speaker of the evening was Vincent P. Bradley of Trenton, N. J., who spoke on "What the Property Manager Should Know and Do." Glen C. McBride, manager of the real estate management section of the Chicago Title and Trust company, discussed problems in management. Burt Kiely presided.

EASTMAN URGES SOME PLAN OF RAIL RETIREMENT

Washington, D. C., Jan. 29.—(AP)—Joseph B. Eastman, transportation coordinator, urged today that some alternative be provided for the 1935 railroad retirement act if the Supreme court declares it invalid. Eastman said in a report which dealt primarily with labor problems arising from coördination projects that 135 class 1 railroads are challenging the constitutionality of the law.

Designed to bring compulsory rail pensions within bounds of the constitution, enactment of this legislation followed a Supreme court invalidation of the 1934 retirement act.

"An orderly system of retirement with pensions for railroad employés is sound," Eastman's report contended. "If the present law is not sustained, a way must be found to establish a uniform system of retirement with pensions for the railroad industry."

The report said rail management and labor now are attempting to reach agreements on what will be done for employés displaced in coördination projects.

TRADE COUNCIL INCORPORATES; FARRELL IS HEAD

New York, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The incorporation of the national foreign trade council, with James A. Farrell, director of the United States Steel corporation, as chairman, was announced tonight at the council's annual dinner meeting. Lindsay Crawford, secretary, announced the incorporation was considered necessary because of the extended range of the council's activities recently, including organization of the economic mission to the far east and similar missions to Latin America now contemplated.

Others elected to the board of directors were Gerard Swope of the General Electric company and Walter C. Teagle of the Standard Oil company.

The council was formed in 1914 to expound commercial policies and to aid the government promote American foreign trade.

Devoe & Raynolds Earns Slightly More Last Year

Devoe & Raynolds, paint manufacturers and distributors, reported yesterday for the fiscal year ended Nov. 30, 1935, net income of $530,063, compared with $459,513 in the previous fiscal year. The 1935 earnings were equal to $2.88 a share on the combined class A and B common shares, against $2.36 on the same basis in the previous year.

New Yorker Named Western Manager of I. Miller & Sons

Arthur F. Martin of I. Miller & Sons, New York, has been named general manager of the company's western stores with headquarters here, it was announced yesterday. Martin was formerly engaged in merchandising work in this section and was at one time associated with Saks-Fifth avenue.

GEN. MOTORS FORMS COMPANY TO EXPAND AIR CONDITION BRANCH

Organization of a new company by the General Motors corporation to carry on a program of expansion in the air conditioning industry was announced yesterday by Alfred P. Sloan Jr., president of the corporation. The new company, which will be known as the Delco-Frigidaire Conditioning corporation, will have its headquarters at Dayton, O.

Sloan said that organization will place under one direction the marketing of summer air conditioning equipment, manufactured by Frigidaire, and of winter air conditioning and automatic heating equipment manufactured by the Delco appliance division of General Motors. Manufacturing operations will continue in Dayton and Rochester, N. Y.

"In establishing this new company," Sloan said, "General Motors is encouraged by the thought that air conditioning, in its complete phase, namely the conditioning of air the year around, is needed in virtually every type and size of residential, business, or industrial building."

F. W. WOOLWORTH SALES, PROFITS DROP SLIGHTLY

Net Income Equal to $3.20 a Share.

New York, Jan. 29.—[Special.]—Although the F. W. Woolworth company enlarged its store chain by the addition of twenty-nine new units, its sales volume and net income showed a moderate decline in 1935, the annual report made public today reveals.

Aggregate sales amounted to $268,750,483, compared with $270,684,797 the previous year, a decline of $1,934,314, or about 0.7 per cent. The figures include stores operated in the United States, Canada and Cuba.

Share Net Drops.

Net income of the company for the year was $31,247,229, equal to $3.20 a share on 9,750,000 shares of capital stock outstanding. This compares with $32,142,362, or $3.30 a share, in 1934.

The report is a consolidated statement of operations of the Canadian company as well as of the parent company, but does not include operations of subsidiaries in England and Germany.

It reflects only the investments in British and German subsidiaries, income from which amounted to $11,259,486 in 1935. That compared with income from those sources of $10,386,795 for 1934. Sterling receipts were converted at $4.8665 per pound and marks at $0.2382.

Dividends Well Covered.

Surplus of earnings over dividends was $7,958,558, which was added to earned surplus already reported.

The consolidated balance sheet showed an increase in current assets. Cash on Dec. 31, 1935, totaled $21,771,580, compared with $21,700,962 at the end of 1934; accounts receivable, $686,074, against $840,829, and merchandise inventories at cost or market, whichever was lower, were $38,675,694, compared with $38,132,077.

CLOSED AUSTRIAN BANK AGREES TO REPAY $18,700,000

LONDON, Jan. 30 [Thursday].—(AP)—An agreement between the Austrian government and foreign creditors of the Credit-Anstaldt bank for the repayment of 100,000,000 shillings [about $18,700,000] was signed yesterday at the Austrian legation, it was learned early today.

An initial payment of 60,000,000 shillings [about $11,200,000] will be followed by annual payments of 2,000,000 shillings [about $374,000] for the next 20 years, beginning March 1, 1937.

American Claims Are 20 Millions.

VIENNA, Jan. 29.—(AP)—The Credit-Anstaldt, largest Austrian bank, closed in 1931, and the government guaranteed debts and deposits. The amount of claims held by all American banks against the Credit-Anstaldt, formerly headed by Baron Louis Rothschild of the famous European banking family, have been estimated at $20,000,000.

WARD BAKING REPORTS BETTER SALES, PROFITS

J. M. Livingston, president of the Ward Baking corporation, reported to stockholders yesterday that bread sales for 1935 increased about 4 per cent while cake sales were up 19 per cent. The increases were partly due, he said, to higher selling prices, as the company's production in pounds was slightly less than during the previous year.

The company, which operates a national chain of bakeries, reported for the year ended Dec. 28, 1935, net profit of $1,015,825, after charges, equal to $3.97 a share on the par $100 7 per cent preferred stock, compared with 1934 earnings of $587,951, or $2.29 a share. Cumulative preferred dividends in arrears Dec. 28 amounted to $18.25 a share.

The company said impounded processing taxes had not been included in 1935 amounts.

Bohn Aluminum Profit Slightly Higher Last Year

Bohn Aluminum and Brass corporation and subsidiaries had an estimated net income of $4.50 to $4.55 a share in 1935, compared with $4.31 in 1934, Charles B. Bohn, president, announced yesterday. During the last quarter of the year the company had net earnings of approximately $1.40 a share, against 73 cents in the last quarter of 1934.

Estimate Gasoline Demand 16 Pct. Above Year Ago

Trade circles estimate that total demand for gasoline in the first 24 days of January was 16 per cent higher than the volume in the corresponding period of last year.

BIG GAIN IN 1936 AIR CONDITIONING WORK PREDICTED

Manufacturers Expect $750,000,000 Volume.

Manufacturers participating in the International Heating and Ventilating exposition at the International amphitheater predicted yesterday a $750,000,000 business this year for the heating, ventilating, and air conditioning industry. They based their prediction on the sales made during the show, the growing interest in air conditioning for home and industrial use, and the fact that most of the large makers of heating, ventilating, and refrigerating equipment are entering the air conditioning field.

Interest in Show Increases.

Charles F. Roth, manager of the show, said that the increasing interest in the air conditioning industry is evidenced by the marked gain in attendance. This year there has been a 40 per cent increase over the attendance at the last exposition, held in New York two years ago.

The high spot in the activities centering about the exposition was the forty-second annual banquet last night of the American Society of Heating and Ventilating Engineers.

Dr. Arthur Cutts Willard, president of the University of Illinois, was presented with the E. Paul Anderson medal for his "outstanding scientific achievements in the field of heating, ventilating, and air conditioning."

Presented by Howatt.

The presentation was made by John Howatt, Chicago, retiring president of the society in the presence of about 1,000 members and guests. Among the most noteworthy services of Dr. Willard in this field was his work as consultant on the ventilation of the Holland tunnel and the United States capitol.

Maj. John L. Griffith, athletic commissioner of the Western conference, and principal speaker, compared the sporting and political activities of the nation, declaring many of the citizens were losing the spirit of competition and determination to succeed which exists on the football field.

"Some may infer that I am directing my remarks at the New Deal," Maj. Griffith said. "I could not intelligently discuss the New Deal because I have never heard it defined by the New Dealers."

DENIES KNOWING ROSENBAUM FIRM ALTERED RECORDS

Attorney Benjamin F. Goldstein specifically denied yesterday in the court of Federal Judge William H. Holly that he knew of changes alleged to have been made in his account with the Rosenbaum Grain corporation after the firm began its reorganization proceedings last April.

Goldstein put a different construction on testimony given earlier in the hearing which represented the attorney as offering a present to an employée of the company if the records of his account were altered. The change was made without his knowledge apparently to correct an earlier clerical error, he said. He testified that he did tell Harold King, office manager of the corporation, that he would give him a present if King was able to merchandise the rye which was held in the Goldstein account.

Cross-examination of Goldstein was begun shortly before hearing adjourned by Murry Nelson, attorney for the creditors' committee. The cross-examination will be resumed this morning.

NOTICE OF MEETING OF DEBENTURE HOLDERS

TO THE HOLDERS OF
THE TWENTY-YEAR 5½% DEBENTURES,
SERIES A, OF REMINGTON RAND INC.:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that upon the request of Remington Rand Inc. (hereinafter called the "Corporation") and pursuant to the provisions of the Trust Agreement between the Corporation and The National City Bank of New York, as Trustee, dated as of May 2, 1927, under which Trust Agreement the undersigned is Successor Trustee, a meeting of the holders of the Corporation's Twenty-Year 5½% Debentures, Series A, due May 1, 1947, is hereby called to be held at the office of the Corporation at 205 East 42nd Street, in the City, County and State of New York, on February 21, 1936, at 11:00 o'clock in the forenoon for the purpose of considering and acting upon the creation of Funded Indebtedness by the Corporation in the aggregate principal amount of $20,000,000 to be known as Twenty-Year 4¼% Debentures.

The Corporation represents that the terms, conditions and provisions governing the creation of said proposed Funded Indebtedness are contained in a proposed Trust Agreement to be dated as of March 2, 1936, and to be entered into between the Corporation and The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, as Trustee, and that it proposes to attach to said Twenty-Year 4¼% Debentures Stock Purchase Warrants granting the right to purchase a limited number of shares of its Common stock at various prices for a period of eight years. The Corporation further represents that the prices, terms, conditions and provisions governing such Warrants are contained in a proposed Stock Purchase Agreement to be dated as of March 2, 1936, and to be entered into between the Corporation and The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, as Trustee. Copies of said proposed Agreements are on file with the undersigned, and copies thereof will be furnished to any holder of said Twenty-Year 5½% Debentures, Series A, upon request.

The Corporation has informed the undersigned that the purpose for which said proposed Funded Indebtedness is to be created is the refunding of its now outstanding Twenty-Year 5½% Debentures, Series A, due May 1, 1947, and for other corporate purposes.

Reference is hereby made to said proposed Agreements for the detailed terms, conditions and provisions of said proposed Funded Indebtedness.

Attention is called to the following provision contained in the Trust Agreement dated May 2, 1927, governing the issue of the Corporation's Twenty-Year 5½% Debentures, Series A.

> "The holder of any Debenture may, prior to such meeting, deliver his Debenture to the Trustee or to any agency designated by it for that purpose, and shall thereupon be entitled to receive an appropriate receipt for the Debenture so deposited, calling for the redelivery of such Debenture at any time after such meeting of the holders of Debentures. The Trustee shall prepare and deliver to the chairman of the meeting, a list of the names and addresses of the registered owners of Debentures and a list of the names and addresses of holders of Debentures who shall have so deposited their Debentures, with a statement of the denominations, series and serial numbers of the Debentures held and deposited by each, and no holder of any Debenture shall be entitled to vote at the meeting unless his name appears upon such list or unless he shall present his Debenture at the meeting or shall deliver a certificate of deposit thereof, satisfactory to the Trustee, executed by any trust company, bank, banker or other depositary, as provided in Section 60 hereof. No holder of any Debenture shall be permitted to vote upon a larger amount of Debentures than is set against his name on such list, unless he shall produce the Debentures upon which he desires to vote or a certificate of deposit thereof, as above provided."

OFFER AND PLAN OF EXCHANGE

TO THE HOLDERS OF REMINGTON RAND INC.
TWENTY-YEAR 5½% DEBENTURES,
Series A, due May 1, 1947:

Subject to consent being given in accordance with the provisions of the Trust Agreement dated as of May 2, 1927, at a meeting of the holders of the Twenty-Year 5½% Debentures, Series A, due May 1, 1947, of Remington Rand Inc. (hereinafter called "Old Debentures") to be held on the 21st day of February, 1936, or at an adjournment of said meeting, Remington Rand Inc. (hereinafter called the "Corporation") Offers to Exchange its Twenty-Year 4¼% Debentures, to be dated March 2, 1936, and to mature on March 1, 1956 (hereinafter called "New Debentures"), with Stock Purchase warrants attached entitling the holder to purchase its Common Stock in the ratio of 15 shares for each $1,000 of Debentures during a period of eight years at prices as follows:

(a) $25.00 a share on or before March 1, 1938;
(b) $27.50 a share thereafter and on or before March 1, 1939;
(c) $30.00 a share thereafter and on or before March 1, 1940;
(d) $32.50 a share thereafter and on or before March 1, 1941;
(e) $35.00 a share thereafter and on or before March 1, 1942;
(f) $37.50 a share thereafter and on or before March 1, 1943;
(g) $40.00 a share thereafter and on or before March 1, 1944;

for its now outstanding Old Debentures, par for par, in accordance with the provisions of a Deposit Agreement dated January 30, 1936 between the Corporation and holders of Old Debentures depositing thereunder.

If the requisite consent is given at the meeting called to be held on February 21, 1936, this Plan of Exchange will become effective on March 2, 1936, and interest will be adjusted as of such date. If such consent is given at an adjourned meeting, this Plan of Exchange will become effective and interest adjustment will be made as of the date of such meeting.

The Plan of Exchange will not become operative if a Registration Statement, covering the New Debentures and Common Stock reserved for the exercise of the Stock Purchase Warrants, under the Federal Securities Act of 1933, as amended, has not become effective prior to the meeting of holders of Old Debentures at which consent to the issuance of the New Debentures is given.

This Offer of Exchange expires at the close of business on March 10, 1936. Upon the Registration Statement under the Federal Securities Act, as amended, becoming effective, the New Debentures not absorbed by this Plan of Exchange will be offered at par plus a premium of 4% and accrued interest, first, to the Common stockholders of the Corporation, subject to allotment, and thereafter to the public. The proceeds from the sale of such New Debentures will be used to redeem Old Debentures not exchanged under this Plan and for other corporate purposes.

If you wish to accept this Offer of Exchange, you must deposit your Debentures with The Marine Midland Trust Company of New York, 120 Broadway, New York City, N. Y., agent and depositary of Remington Rand Inc. under said Deposit Agreement. By such deposit you authorize The Marine Midland Trust Company of New York (a) to consent, at the above mentioned meeting or an adjournment thereof, to the creation of the Funded Indebtedness represented by the New Debentures and (b) subject to such consent being given in accordance with the Trust Agreement, to make the exchange for you.

The Corporation makes the following summary of some of the provisions of the proposed Trust Agreement to be entered into between the Corporation and The Chase National Bank of the City of New York to be dated March 2, 1936, pursuant to which the New Debentures will be issued, which summary is given for the convenience of Debenture holders and is not to be construed as being a complete summary.

(a) Aggregate principal amount—$20,000,000. Debentures dated March 2, 1936, to mature March 1, 1956.
(b) Interest coupons attached. Interest at 4¼% per annum payable semi-annually on March 1 and September 1, without deduction for normal Federal Income Tax not exceeding 2%.
(c) Debentures issuable in denominations of $100., $500. and $1,000.
(d) Redeemable in part on any interest payment date and as a whole at any time on thirty days' notice at 105% of principal on or before March 1, 1941, or at 104% of principal after March 1, 1941, and on or before March 1, 1946, or at 103% of principal after March 1, 1946, and on or before March 1, 1951, or at 102% of principal after March 1, 1951, and on or before September 1, 1954, or 100½% of principal after September 1, 1954, together with accrued interest in each case.
(e) Semi-annual Sinking Fund payments to retire, by redemption at prices specified in (d) above, 3/5ths of entire issue prior to maturity beginning with $95,000.00 on March 1, 1937, and increasing periodically to $472,500.00 on September 1, 1955, to be made to Trustee by Corporation. Sinking Fund payments shall be reduced in any year by amount of Sinking Fund payments, if any, made by Corporation under Trust Agreement, dated May 2, 1927. Debentures acquired by Corporation may be used by it to make Sinking Fund payments.
(f) The Corporation will, upon the conditions, within the time and in the manner set forth in the Trust Agreement, reimburse to owners of Debentures, resident in the respective states, the amounts of the following taxes which may be paid with respect to Debentures or the income thereof: The Pennsylvania Personal Property Tax to the extent of five mills per annum; Securities Taxes in Maryland, not exceeding in the aggregate 45 cents on each $100. of the assessed value thereof in any year; any Personal Property or Exemption Tax in Connecticut, not exceeding 4/10ths of 1% on the face amount thereof in any year; any Property Tax in California, not exceeding 4/10ths of 1% of the full cash value thereof in any year; any Intangible Personal Property Tax in the District of Columbia, not exceeding 5/10ths of 1% of the assessed value thereof in any year, and any Massachusetts Income Tax, not exceeding 6% of the interest thereon in any year.
(g) Registerable as to principal only. Transferable by delivery unless registered.
(h) Principal and interest payable at principal trust office of The Chase National Bank of the City of New York.

Copies of (a) the proposed Trust Agreement to be dated March 2, 1936; (b) the proposed Stock Purchase Agreement to be dated March 2, 1936; (c) the Deposit Agreement dated January 30, 1936; (d) financial statements of the Corporation as of July 31, 1935, certified by Price, Waterhouse & Co., and as of November 30, 1935, certified by the Corporation's Comptroller; and (e) convenient transmittal forms will be furnished you on request by The Marine Midland Trust Company of New York or The Chase National Bank of the City of New York, or by the Corporation at any of its following offices:

COURT TOLD RFC BANK LOAN WAS MADE ILLEGALLY

Outline Defense in Stock Liability Suit.

The $50,000,000 loan made by the Reconstruction Finance corporation to the Central Republic Bank and Trust company did not comply with the law, Attorney Edward R. Johnston told Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson yesterday in outlining the defense some of the bank's stockholders will make in the RFC suit to collect double liability from them.

The RFC is suing some 3,000 Illinois stockholders of the Central Republic Trust company, liquidating shell for the bank, for approximately $10,000,000 on double liability. It is seeking to collect about $4,000,000 from about 2,000 other stockholders now residents of other states through federal courts having jurisdiction.

Court Questions Counsel.

Attorney Johnston made a lengthy statement with respect to the stockholders' defense when Judge Wilkerson asked O. J. Rogge and Harold Rosenwald, attorneys for the RFC, if the federal agency was bound legally to advance $50,000,000 to the bank.

Rogge replied that although the RFC was not legally bound to make the $50,000,000 advance on Oct. 5, 1932, after an initial advance of $30,000,000 on June 27 of the same year, it did make it in accordance with the provisions of the $90,000,000 loan authorized by the RFC.

"We will attempt to prove that the final advance of $50,000,000 was made contrary to the provisions of the new law of July 21, 1932," Johnston said.

Charge New Approval Needed.

"We will show that the $50,000,000 advance required a new approval by the RFC and that certain terms and conditions had been imposed by the RFC in connection with the authorization of the original loan, one of these being that the money was to be used to keep the bank open and not for liquidation purposes.

"We will also show that the new law of July prohibited the RFC from making loans or advances to an institution, an official of which was also an official of the RFC at the time of the making of the loan or for a period of one year before that. Gen. Charles G. Dawes was both chairman of the RFC and of the bank within a month of the authorization of the loan."

Attorney Rogge interrupted to say the RFC contends the new law was not retroactive and did not apply to a loan which was authorized before the new loan was passed.

Claim New Conditions Imposed.

"But we claim that eight new terms and conditions were imposed by the RFC before the $50,000,000 loan was made after the passage of the new law and after certain facts were changed," Attorney Johnston continued.

"These conditions were deliberately imposed and made so onerous by Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the RFC in the hope that they would not be met."

HOG RECEIPTS FALL BUT PRICES AGAIN DECLINE

Hog receipts dropped to 16,000 head yesterday, the smallest for a Wednesday since Nov. 27, but consumer pressure on pork prices blocked a rally of the market. Retail buying fell off again, necessitating reductions ranging up to $1 in some wholesale pork markets.

Hog buyers demanded further cuts of 10 to 25 cents in live costs. Despite the meagerness of yesterday's run there were about 3,000 hogs left after all orders had been filled.

As high as $10.25 was paid at the start, but shortly after the opening similar kinds were bought at $10.15. The average price at $10 was 10 cents a hundredweight below Tuesday.

Resenting the severe slashing of sheep and lamb prices early this week, flock owners cut yesterday's receipts at Chicago to 6,000 head, the smallest Wednesday run in more than six months. Live costs rose 25 cents.

The two extremes of the cattle price range were unchanged yesterday, poorest classes, as well as highly finished steers commanding steady prices, but most medium grades were weak. Short feds comprised the bulk of the run again, although quality was somewhat improved.

SUGAR

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—(AP)—SUGAR—Raw was quiet today and no fresh business was reported, although there were additional offerings at last paid prices of 3.38c per lb for spots and 3.40c to 3.45c for forward shipments. Futures were also quiet, reflecting the inactivity in the spot market, although after declining 2 to 3 points under scattered local and commission house selling, the market rallied on increased covering and trade buying. The early setback was just about recovered with the market closing at the best and 1 point net lower to 2 points higher. Sales were 8,050 tons.

Raw sugar prices in cents per pound:

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Prev. close.
January	$2.22	$2.22	$2.21	$2.21	$2.24
March	2.37	2.37	2.37	2.37	2.37
May	2.37	2.39	2.37	2.38	2.38
July	2.40	2.42	2.38	2.42	2.41
September	2.43	2.44	2.41	2.44	2.43

Refined was still unsettled and trading limited. For prompt shipment fine granulated was available at from 4.65c to 4.75c per lb, although one refiner was accepting thirty day business at 4.55c.

EASINESS ABROAD SENDS CHICAGO WHEAT LOWER

May Delivery Is Hardest Hit by Selling.

Scattered liquidation developed in wheat yesterday, sending the May delivery a cent lower in American markets. New crop months, however, showed a relatively firm undertone and lost only fractions.

Weakness in Liverpool and Winnipeg was the chief cause for the selling. The English market receded 1¾ to 2⅛ cents per bushel, compared with Monday, while Winnipeg declined a cent.

Buying against bids checked the decline here in wheat to some extent, but there was no enlargement in activity.

Fear Retroactive Tax.

Many brokers believe there is little likelihood of the public reëntering the market as long as there is the constant threat of congressional action placing a retroactive processing tax on flour.

Official reports on winter wheat indicate the new crop was protected to a large extent by an ample snow covering during the recent subzero weather. The only exception was found in Kansas, where the western third of the state has been in bad condition for some time due to lack of moisture.

Foreign demand for Canadian cash wheat yesterday was light. Portugal was said to be offering its surplus in the world market.

Closing Prices Compared.

	Yesterday.	Tue.	Wk. ago.
Wheat	$ .99⅛	$1.00⅝	$1.00⅝
Corn	.59⅝	.60⅛	.60⅛
Oats	.28⅛	.28⅝	.28½
Rye	.56½	.57⅛	.55⅝

Corn, oats, and rye eased fractionally in sympathy with wheat. In the last few days there has been some selling of wheat and corn against purchases of rye by spreaders. Sales of 50,000 bushels of cash rye were reported as having been made at Minneapolis. The country showed more disposition to sell cash corn for deferred shipment yesterday.

CASH GRAIN

Demand for cash oats was fair with the basis steady. No. 2 white was 4@5c over, No. 3 white 1c under to 4c over, and No. 4 white 1@4c under May.

Official receipts of grain at Chicago Wednesday: Wheat 10 cars, corn 89 cars, oats 12 cars, barley 16 cars, soy beans 9 cars. Range of cash grain prices per bushel in leading markets:

LARD CLOSES IRREGULAR AFTER SLIGHT EARLY RISE

Short covering lifted lard futures slightly in the early trading yesterday, but the weakness in grains and pressure from hedgers brought about a reaction. Buying on resting orders checked the decline with the close 2½ cents higher to 26 cents lower, firmness in cotton seed oil being a factor. Clear bellies [salt pork] closed nominally unchanged.

Cash lard closed at $11.12½ loose $10.65, leaf $10.37½ and clear bellies at $14.75 per 100 pounds. Prices in dollars per 100 pounds:

BURNHAM'S

Will Enable You to EARN MORE

The easy-to-learn Burnham System quickly enables you to become a skilled beauty operator. Plenty of living models. You learn by doing rather than by studying. Each teacher a specialist. Fewer pupils per teacher.

SEE FOR YOURSELF WHY MORE GIRLS ENROLL IN BURNHAM'S THAN IN ANY OTHER BEAUTY SCHOOL.

BURNHAM'S AWARDS TRIP TO PARIS to STUDENT. Geneve Huffman, winner of semi-annual Burnham scholarship for efficiency while in training, sailed June 19 on S. S. Manhattan with all expenses paid. Burnham's offers opportunities not found elsewhere.

DAY OR EVENING CLASSES.
Pay for MOST of your tuition after graduation. It is to your advantage to register now, even if you cannot start until later. Open every day and on Monday, Wednesday, Friday evenings until 9 p. m.

How to Become a BEAUTY EXPERT

What are your ambitions to be? An "ordinary" mediocre beauty operator trained to work only in the "cheapest" shops at minimum wages? Or—wouldn't you rather be a genuine beauty expert with sufficient training, practical experience and technical knowledge to qualify you for a good paying position in a high class shop?

Unquestionally you want to be an expert and earn more money. DeLEE trains its students to be real experts.

At DeLEE you will receive individual personal instruction, under Madame Louise. You will learn the really fine points of beauty culture and hairdressing in the shortest possible time. Visit DeLEE today.
